FLYER DIVES UNDER PLANE AS PAL FALLS

Daring Airman Attempts to Halt Crash at San Diego; Two Machines Are Hurtled to Ground; Officer Dead

Second Aviator Is Severely Hurt, Probably Fatally; Would-be Rescuer Forced Down by Disabled "Ship"

BY INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

SAN DIEGO, Oct. 31.—Risking his life in the air by diving with his own airplane under a falling machine, in a futile effort to avert disaster to a brother airman, a naval birdman from the North Island naval air station today crashed hundreds of feet to earth, the two planes spinning over and over before horrified spectators.

Lieutenant Eric Blackwell was killed in the crash.

Lieutenant Daniel W. Tomlinson suffered a broken leg and other injuries. Which flyer fell first and which came to the rescue ma never be known. Navy men were undetermined, after watching the crash.

One plane started down out of control. The other dove under him. A second later two wrecked machines fell.

Lieutenant Blackwell was instantly killed. Lieutenant Tomlinson may not recover.

SAN DIEGO, Calif., Oct. 31.—Lieutenant Winthrop E. Blackwell was instantly killed and Lieutenant Daniel W. Tomlinson had both arms broken, following a collision between two navy combat airplanes here late this morning.

Both aviators were attached to combat division No. 3, another squadron, Pacific fleet, of which the U. S. S. Arostook is the mother ship, and were engaged in combat maneuvers at the time of the collision.

ONE WING TORN OFF BY A COLLISION.

According to reports of the accident, the 'plane piloted by Lieutenant Blackwell collided with the 'plane in which Lieutenant Tomlinson was flying, and tore away one wing of the Tomlinson 'plane. The collision occurred about 80 feet high, it is estimated. Blackwell quickly, saw the damage that had been done to the Timlinson 'plane, which immediately began falling, and in an effort to aid Tomlinson, in maintaining his balance, circled about with the idea of creating a suction.

LOSES CONTROL WHILE ATTEMPTING RESCUE.

While engaged in this task, Blackwell apparently lost control of his 'plane and started to plunge toward the ground when about 400 feet in the air. Both 'planes struck on mud flats on the shore of San Diego bay, about midway between the naval training station and the marine base. Blackwell, according to navy officers, was instantly killed by the fall.

Rescue parties reached the scene within a few minutes and extricated the two airmen from the wreckage.

Tomlinson, in addition to having both arms broken, received a fractured leg and other injuries. It was stated at the navy hospital, to which he was taken, that there is small chance for his recovery.

Hapsburgs Forever Barred From Throne

BY UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

PARIS, Oct. 31.—The allies have decided to demand that the entire Hapsburg family relinquish its claims to the Hungarian throne, it was learned here this afternoon.

The decision followed a reported despatch to Budapest of an ultimatum requiring former Emperor Karl, whose most recent attempt to regain the throne failed, to sign a permanent abdication.

Four Are Shot As Bandits Rob Bank

NIAGARA FALLS, N. Y., Oct. 31.—Four armed bandits this afternoon entered the Niagara Falls Trust company and in an attempt to rob the institution started a revolver battle in which more than two score shots were fired. A policeman was seriously wounded, the vice-president of the bank, one of the robbers and a girl bank clerk also were shot, but injured less seriously. The robbers obtained about $5000.

Irish Prisoners Break From Jail

DUBLIN, Oct. 31.—(By Associated Press.)—Four political prisoners in Mount Joy prison, this city, escaped last night. One of them, Linda Kearns, a nurse, was serving a sentence of ten years.

The escape was effected by means of a rope ladder thrown across the prison wall and the fugitives clambered down a steep embankment, completing the most daring jail delivery in the history of Mount Joy.

Schooner Reported Capsized in Ocean

MOBILE, Ala., Oct. 31. — The three-masted schooner J. W. Somerville, St. Andrew's Bay, Fla., to San Juan, P. R., with lumber, was found dismasted and capsized 40 miles off Dry Tortugas, according to a telegram received today by J. W. Somerville of Gulfport, owner of the vessel.

Principals in Double Tragedy

MAN SHOOTS HIS WIFE, KILLS SELF

Oakland Woman Dying From Wounds Following a Row With Husband.

Mrs. Ella Harrison, 20 years old, lies at the point of death in the emergency hospital today with three gun shot wounds in her body, fired last night from the pistol of William H. Harrison, a prominent [illegible] of Sacramento, who a few minutes later placed the muzzle of the weapon against his breast, fired, and died at the receiving hospital.

Forcing his way back into his wife's apartment at 911 Grove street after he had been ordered to leave, Harrison drew his revolver and in the presence of three witnesses fired three shots point blank at the woman. He then ran from the house, pursued, and when he saw that escape was impossible turned his pistol upon himself.

"I LOVED HER," SAYS HARRISON WHILE DYING.

In a dimly lighted room at the emergency hospital, where a priest was performing the last rites over the body, Harrison, with the death rattle in his throat, spoke of the shooting.

To all appearances he had passed away and detectives there to get his dying statement, closed their books. As the inspectors edged towards the door, the priest asked:

"Why did you shoot your wife?" There was a slight movement on the bed and slowly Harrison said:

"I shot my wife because I loved her."

"Why did you shoot yourself?" continued the father.

And then came Harrison's last words:

"I shot myself, because I loved my wife."

MRS. HARRISON PROBABLY FATALLY WOUNDED.

According to attaches at the emergency hospital, Mrs. Harrison is probably fatally wounded. She is suffering from a bullet wound in her left thigh, one in her left shoulder and another in her left lung. The bullet entered her left shoulder and lodged in the lung.

They discussed their matrimonial troubles for a few moments, and then the "unwelcome visitor" arose and started toward the door.

"I'm going back to Virginia," he said, "and I'm going to tell your mother of our separation."

"Don't you dare tell my mother," Mrs. Harrison is said to have cried. "Now you get out of here."

Harrison went out the door, leaving it open about six inches. He apparently waited in the hall for a few moments, and then burst in the room. He drew his pistol and his wife screamed. Rushing nearer to the bed, he pointed the weapon at the woman and fired three times. Mrs. Harrison fell to the floor, and her husband, still clutching the revolver, ran through the door, down the hall and into the street.

MAN KILLS SELF WHEN ESCAPE IMPOSSIBLE.

He was pursued by Irwin, and ran down Ninth street one block west to West street.

A crowd stood at the corner watching the chase, and Irwin, gaining on the fugitive, shouted:

"Stop that man!"

The spectators rushed towards Harrison. Seeing escape was impossible the railroad man stopped short, in his tracks, menaced his pursuers with his pistol for an instant and turned it upon himself. He fired one shot and sank to the ground.

As soon as word of the shooting was received at the police station Inspectors Alex Trotter and George Burbank were rushed to the apartment house and had Harrison and his wife taken to the emergency hospital. They brought the witnesses to the police station where they were questioned, and investigated the affair thoroughly.

PEACE IN OIL FIELDS LOOMS

Strikers Hold Meeting and a Settlement Is Predicted.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS. LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

BAKERSFIELD, Oct 31.—The California district council of the oil workers' union is in session behind closed doors here today, considering, it is reported, a new development in the oil field strike situation. Strike committees from the various union locals in the Kern county and Coalinga fields are reported to be in conference with the council.

STRIKE NEAR END. RUMORS PERSIST.

Persistent rumors are circulating here that the strike, affecting more than 6000 oil workers in the San Joaquin Valley, is nearing an end. Though union officials refused to corroborate this report, they declare that "something of importance is in the air."

Harry Baker, a vice-president of the district council, has returned to Bakersfield from Southern California, and announced upon his arrival here that he had contributions totalling $83,000 for the strike benefit fund.

FIRMS' EMPLOYMENT OFFERS REJECTED.

E. B. Daniel, secretary of the district council, declared that the procedure of employment of workers and the announcement of principles by the Oil Producers' Association of California, which were said to indicate an early resumption of operations in the fields, "means nothing to the strikers."

One Killed, Forty Hurt In Street Car Smash

BY INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

MONTREAL, Oct. 31.—One person was killed and forty injured in a headon collision between two street cars on the Ahuntsic line, running between this city and Sault Aux Recollects, a suburb. Twenty-one of the injured were taken to city hospitals.

Herrick Gets a "Black Hand" Letter; American Radicals Plan to Protest Against Conviction of Two Italians

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

HAVANA, Oct. 31.—Considerable property damage was caused by the explosion of a bomb in the home of Fernando Gonzalez Verdenes, an architest, in a fashionable residence section of this city early today.

The police appeared to believe the explosion might be connected with threats by radicals against Major General Enoch H. Crowder and the United States legation here. These threats were contained in proclamations distributed throughout Havana Saturday night in connection with the case of Nicolo Sacco and Bartolomeo Vanzetti, who have been convicted of murder in a Massachusetts court.

HERRICK GETS FIRST BLACK HAND LETTER.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

PARIS, Oct. 31.—The flood of protests in the case of Sacco and Vanzetti, the two Italians convicted of murder in Massachusetts, which Ambassador Herrick has received had not included up to today one of the "black hand" type. Such a letter came this morning, however, with a large hand, filled in with ink, occupying most of the sheet, in one corner a skull and cross bones had been outlined, with the word "justice" underneath, while in another a long dagger was depicted.

"Justice for Sacco and Vanzetti or death to Americans," was written at the bottom.

PHILADELPHIA POLICE BREAK UP MEETING.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 31. — A mass meeting to pledge moral and financial support to Sacco and Vanzetti, awaiting sentence in Massachusetts for the murder of a paymaster in April, 1920, was broken up by the police yesterday, but no arrests were made.

The action by the police took place after speakers declared that the Italian radicals of this country would tear down the jail if the men were not given justice and if the men died in the electric chair, certain prominent financiers who were named—"would, too, pay the price," it was declared.

U. S. RADICALS PLAN PROTEST MEETINGS.

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—Mass meetings throughout the United States similar to those in foreign countries to protest against the impending fate of Nicolo Sacco and Bartolomeo Vanzetti, Italian labor organizers whose murder appeal will be decided by the Massachusetts appellate court December 1, were planned yesterday at a meeting of radical organizations.

By HENRY WOOD.

ROME, Oct. 31.—"The Italian proletariat" will never tolerate the execution of Sacco and Vanzetti unless the foreign office "exhausts every means to prevent it," according to an ultimatum made public today. The ultimatum was presented to Foreign Minister Della Torretta by a proletarian committee which demanded immediate information as to the fate of the two Communists who are seeking to obtain a new trial following their sentence of death for murder in the United States.

Court Order Would Hold Unionization

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 31.—An injunction directed at stopping the United Mine Workers of America from efforts to unionize the Williamson coal field in West Virginia, where miners have been on strike for more than a year, was issued today by Federal Judge A. B. Anderson, on the ground that the union was seeking to rstrain trade.

After Judge Anderson's announcement of the order some delay in its formal issuance was occasioned by discussion between court and counsel as to the exact text of the order.

Wilson Mending, Is Report of Physician

BY UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—Former President Wilson appeared today to be making a good recovery from an attack of indigestion and severe headaches, which has kept him in his bed for the last few days, his physician, Rear-Admiral Grayson, said.

After an early call at the Wilson home, Grayson said the ex-president probably would be able to sit up considerably today. He expects him to be able to resume his usual routine tomorrow.

Gold Miner Is Rival to "Death Valley Scotty"

(By United Press)

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 31.—Harry M. Phillips, who said he had made a fortune in gold mining in Torreon, Mexico, is on a Chicago-bound train today with the announced intention of showing the Illinois village a trick or two about spending money.

The natives of Los Angeles have not as yet recovered from the effects of Phillips' brief but highly interesting visit.

"Ho hum," he remarked as he registered at a local hotel Saturday night. "Here's a tip for the bellhops."

The tip consisted of two fistfulls of ten-dollar bills, scattered over the tile floor of the hotel.

Several of the bellhops were reported as casualties following the riot.

Distributing two or three such "tips" during his stay yesterday, Phillips checked out last night and took a train for Chicago.

"When I get through with this trip," Phillips announced as he boarded his train, "poor old 'Death Valley Scotty,' who thought he knew something about spending money, is going to be relegated to a very back seat in the hall of fame.

"It's taken me years in a mighty lonely exile to make this money. I'm surely going to get some joy out of spending it."

EAGER TO DISARM, JAPANESE SAYS

Sentiment Is Overwhelming, Declares President of Tokyo Bank.

BY INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 31.—Japan is willing to meet the other nations of the world more than half way in the limitation of armaments, according to Umekichi Yoneyama, managing director of the Mitsui Bank of Tokyo and a leading member of the Japanese businessmen's party, which arrived here today for a visit with Portland businessmen.

Leaders of finance and business in Japan, the visitors came to America to cement friendly relations with financiers and businessmen of this country.

Yoneyama conferred with members of the Japanese disarmament committee before they left for the United States and his statement carries considerable weight. National sentiment in Japan is overwhelming in favor of disarmament, he declared.

"The people of Japan are burdened with taxes from building war machinery, and they pray for relief just as every other nation in the world is praying," said Yoneyama.

Senator Threatens World Bankruptcy

By FRASER EDWARDS,
United Press Staff Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—Universal bankruptcy will result unless the world limits armaments and permits a reduction of taxes, Senator Swanson of Virginia, member of the naval and foreign relations committees, declared today in the Senate during the debate on the pending tax bill.

"Reform and reduction of government expenditures are world problems, demanding immediate and decisive action," declared Swanson. "The curse is world-wide and relief, to be most effective, must be universal."

Typhoon Devastates Philippine Island

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

MANILA, Oct. 31. — Batanes Island, the northernmost province of the Philippines, communication with which has been cut off since July 22 owing to a destructive typhoon, lost 80 per cent of its crops and hundreds of head of livestock in the storm, according to advices brought by a vessel which arrived today from the island. There was no loss of life, the advices said.

The typhoon destroyed the wireless station at Basco, the island's only means of communication with the outside world.

The ship carried an appeal for food to the Philippine government. The property loss is estimated at $200,000.

More Time Sought To Try Profiteers

BY INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—A bill extending the statute of limitations for three years was passed by the House this afternoon. Attorney-General Daugherty requested the passage of the bill in order that the government might have opportunity to prepare its cases for prosecution of alleged profiteering during the world war. The present statute of limitation bars prosecutions for such offenses after three years.

Situation in Ulster Is Declared to Be Intolerable; Unionist Failure to Force Vote of Censure, Is Prediction

LONDON, Oct. 31.—(Associated Press)—Possible legislation to put the Ulster parliament in a better position was indicated by Prime Minister Lloyd George today in the House of Commons answering critics in the debate on the Unionist motion intended as a censure of the government's Irish policy.

The premier said the position of the Ulster parliament was intolerable and unless something happened in the next few days a short bill would be introduced to remedy the situation.

As to the Irish negotiations the prime minister assured the house that no agreement was possible without the sanction of the imperial parliament.

Lloyd George said he had received guarantees that no arms would be imported into Ireland during the truce.

"I cannot conceal from the house," said the premier in alluding to the effort at an Irish settlement, "the possibility that I may have to make the grim announcement that it is impossible to settle without danger and dishonor."

He said that if the conference broke down, the first thing this government would have to do would be to ask the house considerably to strengthen the forces of the crown.

By FRANK E. MASON,
International News Service Staff Correspondent.

LONDON, Oct. 31 — Charging that the Irish peace conference "has been hopeless from the start," Colonel John Gretton, a coalition Unionist, this afternoon in the House of Commons, moved a vote of censure against Premier Lloyd George and the cabinet's Irish policy.

"The government is seeking a pretext to break off the conference," Colonel Gretton declared.

The coalition Unionist speaker was greeted with ironical cheers as he began to speak. It was admitted generally throughout the House that the resolution was doomed and that the Lloyd George government would receive a big majority.

CONFERENCE HALTS TILL VOTE IS TAKEN.

The promise of fireworks on the floor of Commons resulted in the house being crowded, with every member in his seat.

In the meantime the Irish peace conference has halted its sessions. It is expected that it will resume again tomorrow at the premier's official residence at No. 10 Downing street. The crux of the Irish peace situation today was as follows:

The Sinn Feiners are demanding that the proposed central parliament at Dublin shall be supreme and that any secondary legislature at Belfast must deal only with local affairs and be subservient to Dublin.

The Uister Unionists oppose this arrangement and demand an equal voice in Irish affairs with the Sinn Feiners.

TEXT OF UNIONIST RESOLUTION GIVEN.

LONDON, Oct. 31. — (By Associated Press).—The debate on the Irish question, particularly the motion intended as a censure of the government, excited keen interest throughout Great Britain today. Evidence of this interest was found in the fact that it was impossible to satisfy more than a fraction of the demands for seats in the restricted public galleries, hundreds of applicants being disappointed.

The Unionist motion, which was introduced by Col. John Gretton, follows:

That this house views with grave apprehension the action of the government in entering upon negotiations with delegates from Southern Island who have taken the oath of allegiance to the Irish republic and have repudiated the authority of the crown.

And in view of the fact that an act of parliament for the settlement of the relations between Great Britain and Ireland was passed as recently as last year, this house is of the opinion that no proposals for the government of Southern Island should be made without the sanction of parliament.

SINN FEIN HOPES FOR SETTLEMENT.

LONDON, Oct. 31. — The innermost councils of the Sinn Fein are hopeful of a settlement this week, it was learned this afternoon. There were exchanges of communications between the Sinn Fein delegates and Dublin over the week-end.

Miss Rappe's Illness Chronic, Says Doctor

CHICAGO, Oct. 31. — Witnesses who knew Virginia Rappe, film actress, who died following a party given by Roscoe (Fatty) Arbuckle in a San Francisco hotel and which resulted in his being held on charges of manslaughter gave deposition today before representatives of the State of California and the defense.

Dr. Maurice H. Rosenberg, the first witness, testified that he knew Miss Rappe here, and that in 1913 she visited his office for an examination. Dr. Rosenberg told the investigators that Miss Rappe was suffering from a chronic illness.

Brennan left for New York immediately following the hearing, to take the deposition of Lowell Sherman.

Italian, Belgian War Heroes Cheered by 15,000 Delegates and Visitors to Kansas City Convention This Morning

Schumann-Heink Opens Big Session With Song; Vice-President Coolidge Speaks Com. Emery Gives Report

By THOMAS WRIGLEY,
International News Service Staff Correspondent.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 31.—Fifteen thousand people roared forth a welcome to General Armando Diaz of Italy and Lieutenant General Baron Jacques of Belgium, when these distinguished guests appeared before the American Legion convention this afternoon. The tumult continued for several minutes and drowned out the music of the bands as the allied heroes made their way to the platform.

General Diaz, who saved Italy from disaster when he rolled back the Austrian hordes on the Piave, was visibly moved. Commander of the Belgians, Baron Jacques, deeply touched over the great demonstration, turned to his aides, but seemed at a loss for words.

As each was presented for his address the convention stood while the band played the national anthem of his country.

RECEPTION BEWILDERS TWO ARMY CHIEFS.

It was a solemn and impressive moment as the two great army chieftains stood side by side on the platform and looked out over the vast hall. Before them were the same cheering, yelling, impetus doughboys who fought by thes ide of their legions in Italy and in Flanders fields. Major-General Lejeune, who stood beside them and was also widely applauded, was proud of the welcome for the guests and smiled back at the cheering thousands.

The floor of the convention strongly resembled a national political convention. Delegates were arranged in sections under standards bearing the names of their respective States. Bands played during every intermission, sergeant-at-arms paced up and down the aisles, while in the pit in front of the platform a small army of newspaper men were at work.

Stirring and thrilling was the opening as "Mother" Schumann-Heink, holding aloft a silken American flag, sang the "Star Spangled Banner."

Major James W. Cowgill, for the city, and Dr. Harry F. Parker, State commander, for the State, welcomed the legionnaires, and Commander Emery made fitting response.

CHEERS GREET COMMANDER EMERY

Cheers greeted Commander Emery as he read his annual report. He paid glowing tribute to the late Commander F. W. Galbraith and reviewed the activities of the Legion during the past year.

Reports of other national officers followed. Adjutant Lemuel Bulles in his report stated that the Legion has added 1051 posts in the last year and that its finances have increased $146,216, with a present total of $608,933.99.

At 11 o'clock Vice-President Calvin Coolidge entered the convention and was presented. A tremendous ovation was accorded him when he had finished his address.

During the day's sessions the women delegates, although only 25 in number, were decidedly in evidence. They were working to secure support for Mrs. Nellie Malone for vice-commander. Mrs. Malone is commander of Ragian-Lige post of the Legion of Detroit. Over 460 war nurses here for the convention are demanding that a woman be elected among the national officers.

Distinguished guests who had already arrived were receiving mid-West hospitality, an open-handed, right-from-the-heart welcome, with formality thrust to the background. These included LieutenantGeneral Baron Jacques, Belgian war hero; General Armando Vittorio Diaz, Italian generalissimo and Vice-President Calvin F. Coolidge, who arrived yesterday, and Admiral Earl Beatty, British naval hero; Major-General John A. Lejeune, United States Marines, and Admiral Robert E. Coontz, U. S. N., who arrived this morning.

FOCH, PERSHING ARRIVE LATER.

Marshal Foch of France and General John J. Pershing, together with Charles Bertrand of the French Chamber of Deputies, and a delegation of Washington notables will arrive at 5:30 p. m. and the legion then will be "all present or accounted for."

The opening session of the convention was called to order by John G. Emery, national commander. There were 2500 delegates and alternates present on the floor of the convention hall, while the galleries of the spacious building were packed with thousands. Every State was represented, while delegates were also present from Hawaii, the Philippines, Alsaka and from legion posts in South America, France, England, Canda and Italy.

Business began with despatch as soon as the welcoming addresses and responses were concluded. The morning program was taken up with the reports of Commander Emery and the various national officers and with reports of committees.

The presentation of Vice-President Coolidge was also a part of the morning program.

At noon a memorial service was held for the late Frederick W. Galbraith, national commander, who lost

SOLDIERS' BONUS IS HELD ILLEGAL

Senator New Declares Proposed Act Taxing One Class of Citizens for Another.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—The issue of unconstitutionality was raised against the proposed soldier bonus measure during Senate debate today. Senator New, Republican, raised the point that the measure is unconstitutional because it proposes to tax one class of citizens for benefit of another.

The bonus as proposed by Senator Reed is an amendment to the tax revision bill providing that excess profits taxes shall be continued and the revenue thus derived used to pay the bonus.

The charge that "big business is running the treasury department" and that "big business opposed the soldier bonus bill," was made by Senator Reed, Democrat, of Missouri. "I understood and believe, rightly," Reed said, "that Secretary Mellon is perhaps the wealthiest man in the United States, being connected with many oppressive and powerful industrial organizations."

N. D. Non-Partisans Lose by About 2000

FARGO, N. D., Oct. 31.—Independent candidates at the North Dakota recall election were victorious by approximately 2000 votes, on the basis of returns tabulated today. With 171 precincts, all Non-Partisan strongholds, missing at noon, R. A. Nestos, Independent, has a lead of 7697 over Governor Frazier.

Independents were worried for fear initiative measures, submitted at the election, would fail if Nestos' majority was under 2000. They feared he would have to have a majority of 5000 to carry the initiated measures.

Nestos, Sveinbjorn Johnson and William Witchin will become governor, attorney-general and commissioner of agriculture and labor, respectively, within thirty days, unless something unforeseen now develops. The vote must be certified within thirty days and a ruling has been obtained that the officers-elect shall take office immediately thereafter.

Paraguay President Ousted in "Revolt"

BUENOS AYRES, Oct. 31.—Vice-President Paiva has assumed the presidency of Paraguay as a result of a bloodless revolution, according to an Asuncion despatch to La Prenza today.

President Gondra was said to have resigned when confronted by the revolutionists. The latter were reported to have been led by former President Schaerer.

Several political assassinations have taken place in Paraguay and the Paraguayan government is deporting many revolutionary suspects.

The political unrest has been accentuated by the territorial dispute between Paraguay and Bolivia.

his life in the service of the Legion at Indianapolis, June 9.

The afternoon session is to be devoted largely to addresses by Baron Jacques, General Diaz and Major-General Lejeune. Greetings were also to be extended by the official representatives of the American Federation of Labor, Grand Army of the Republic, United Confederate Veterans, Spanish-American War Veterans, British Legion and the Great War Veterans of Canada.

Tonight Admiral Beatty and Admiral Coontz will address the Legionnaires at the evening session.

Although there are many matters of important business to be threshed out in the convention before the election of officers and the selection of the next convention city on Wednesday, the final day, a spirited contest was already in progress today between New Orleans and San Francisco for the 1932 meeting. Both cities were prominently mentioned by the delegates.

The New York delegation, the last to arrive this morning and by far the largest single unit in the convention, New York having furnished one-tenth of all the soldiers of the country in the war, announced that it would vote for New Orleans, and there was rejoicing in the camp of the southerners.

For the entertainment of the visitors who are expected to total 100,000 by tomorrow, the Legion flying meet and the Western rodeo opened today. Many of the country's most expert pilots are entered in the airplane contests, while the greatest broncho busters and riders of the West will take part in the rodeo feats.

The city was a mass of colored bunting, with the flags of the allies fluttering from every pole or draped upon buildings. One hundred and fifty bands blared forth their stirring music along streets filled by visiting thousands.

And mingling with the crowds were the khaki-clad doughboys, looking up their old "buddies," meeting new ones and having the time of their lives.

CHICAGO, Oct. 31.—One hundred thousand Knights of Columbus will parade in honor of Marshal Foch in Chicago next Monday, Edward Houlihan, supreme director of the Knights of Columbus, announced yesterday, following a conference of national executives and mid-West district deputies or the organization.

Marshal Foch wired the Knights of Columbus through Supreme Knight James A. Flaherty in Washington Sunday.

"I am eager to visit Chicago and look forward to spending Sunday with the Knights of Columbus, whose pilgrimage to France last year will be an ever-cherished memory."

Silent Tribute at 9 a. m. Coast Time

WASHINGTON, Oct 31.—The two-minute silent tribute in honor of the unknown American soldier which President Harding has asked the entire nation to give November 11, from noon to 12:02, should occur throughout the country on eastern time, the United Press was told today by the war department. A simultaneous observance is desired, the war department said.

Thus the states in the central time will stop work at 11 a. m., those in the mountain region at 10 o'clock and on the coast at 9 a. m.

MILLIONS ASKED TO AID VETERANS

LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE

WASHINGTON, Oct 31.—Cancellation by the Veterans' Bureau of all contracts with State, municipal and private hospitals not established prior to July 1, 1917, and finding all others unsuitable was included among recommendations for administrative reforms in veteran relief activities by the special Senate committee investigating the subject in a report published today, the second compiled by the committee in its yet uncompleted task.

The committee recommended an appropriation of $16,400,000 for hospital construction and also that all government hospitals, including soldiers' homes not needed by the army or navy, be turned over to the Veterans' Bureau.

Asserting the government had failed to obtain results commensurate with the large expenditures, in rehabilitation work, the committee reported with "deep regret" the "melancholy fact" that out of a total of 256,000 approved applicants for vocational training up to last July 1, only 5055 have been rehabilitated, 106,000 having entered training up to that date. Of the 63,000 eligible for training without pay who have not entered training, the committee found that a "vast majority" had not done so because of their "inability to support themselves without pay."

The chief recommendation of the committee in the vocational phase of the work was standardization of training courses, while permitting the applicant to select as far as possible his own vocation.

Elimination of politics from appointments and expenditures of funds for hospitalization also was urged.

Texas Rail Strike Leaders Seek Peace

HOUSTON, Tex., Oct. 31.—Rail brotherhood officials and executives of the International and Great Northern railway met here today with the probability of a joint conference to follow conferences of brotherhood leaders upon the status of the trainmen's strike on the railroad. Six hundred trainmen who struck October 22 in protest against the wage rulings are still on strike pending the result of the leaders' deliberations.

Coolidge Addresses World War Veterans

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS
LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 31.—"Nothing is closer to the heart of President Harding than to make the relief for incapacitated war veterans absolutely complete. No man not in the service has a deeper appreciation of what the service meant, of the sacrifices made by the veterans or the obligations incurred by the country, and no man will go further to minister to the true welfare of those who have been in the service and their dependents than the President," Vice-President Calvin Coolidge told the national convention of the American Legion here today.

"He will never sacrifice you for his own welfare. He will sacrifice himself for your welfare. He will do all that can be done to prevent the need of your again sacrificing yourselves for your country's welfare," Coolidge said.

The Vice-President reviewed what has been done so far toward relieving the incapacitated veterans, paid high tribute to the valor of America's armed forces, and declared the Legion represnted a "new national consciousness." He made a plea against sectionalism, which, he said, had been largely wiped out by the fusing forces of war, and predicted a great future in the nation's life for the American Legion

Armistice Day Is Declared Holiday

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 31.—In order to clear up what was said to be a somewhat general misunderstanding, Governor Stephens today issued a proclamation declaring Armistice day, November 11, a legal holiday in all respects. Inquiries had indicated there was some doubt as to whether the schools and banks should observe the day as a holiday. The proclamation was issued to clarify provisions of the law passed by the last legislature.

Unemployment Cure Laid Before Legion

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS
LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 31.—Efforts of the American Legion to meet the unemployment situation as it affects the former service man, and the suggestion of remedies for the problem, were set forth at length in the annual report of Adjutant Lemuel Bolles to the national convention of the Legion here today.

Bolles suggested stimulation of public works, a more rigorous exclusion of aliens and a systematic effort on the part of local posts and departments to find work for the former soldiers said by the report to be jobless.

COMPENSATION IS ADDRESS THEME OF LEGION CHIEF

Commander Emery Seeks Adjustment Between Men and Stay-at-Homes.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 31.—The issue of national adjusted compensation for the ex-service man has not been at all settled, John G. Emery, national commander of the American Legion, declared here today in his address opening the third annual convention of the Legion.

"Such means as were used last summer to beat adjusted compensation cannot ultimately succeed," Commander Emery told the Legion. "Nothing is settled until it is settled right.

"The American people are the court of last resort, and wherever the American people have by the ballot passed judgment on the matter of adjusted compensation that judgment has been an endorsement of the Legion's stand.

"I cannot conceive of a Congress so derelict in its duty, so unmindful of its just obligation to those who served their country at great financial loss, or so blind to the wishes of our people as to be misled again into refusing to adjust the economic balance between the man who went to war and the man who did not."

Commander Emery reported that "in the face of adverse industrial conditions, which have hit the ex-service men harder than any other class, the Legion has gained in strength and its financial position has steadily improved."

BAN ON POLITICS.

He suggested that the political clause in the Legion's constitution, which "will not permit any one who holds or is seeking salaried elective public office to hold office in the Legion or in any department or post thereof," be extended to include appointive offices. He added that he felt "no person in public life, in community, State or nation, should be allowed to speak for the Legion, and that the Legion must be allowed to continue to speak for itself when issues involving service men are concerned, and then in terms which all the world will understand."

Commander Emery paid high tribute to the late Commander Frederic W. Galbraith Jr., who was killed in an automobile accident. He said his one aim had been to carry through the great program which Commander Galbraith had left unfinished.

LEGION GROWTH.

The greatest Legion achievment of the year, Commander Emery said, was won for the disabled service men, its vigorous efforts resulting in creation of the Veterans' Bureau.

"The last national work undertaken by the legion has been for the relief of comrades who are unemployed," Commander Emery continued. "It is a duty of the Legion to extend every aid to these comrades and a duty which I know the Legion will not fail to perform," he said.

Abroad, Commander Emery reported that a movement was on foot in France to consolidate the numerous veterans' associations there into one united and effective body. "It is a singular tribute to us that the name proposed for the new organization is Legion Francaise," he noted. "In Great Britain, too, the American Legion is the pattern after which the ex-service groups are being reformed and brought together under the name of the British Legion.

"Tomorrow morning," he continued, "there will be called to order in Kansas City another great convention, a convention which means the dawn of a new day in the making of better America. The Women's Auxiliary of the American Legion, with possibilities unbounded, is about to become an accomplished fact, independent and self-governing, a worthy compatriot of the Legion."

China's Shantung Stand Outlined in Eight Points

PEKING, Oct. 31 (By the Associated Press).—China's fundamental attitude toward Shautung stands today as it did a year ago, when the government cabled to China's representative on the Council of the League of Nations, Dr. K. Wellington Koo, its views relative to Japanese control of the province and the methods by which control of Shantung would be returned to China.

This was shown Saturday when the government gave to the newspapers here the eight points made in its message last December to Dr. Koo. Publication of these eight points was probably due to popular pressure, resulting from Japan's claims that the Tokyo memorandum of October 19 had been inspired by unofficial hints relative to the project for settlement. The foreign office declared the Japanese claims were not correct, but it admitted that General Yu Ching-Ho, councillor at the War Office here had made disclosures to General Rihohiro Ikanzai, Japanese military adviser to the Chinese government.

POINTS DISAPPROVED.

Newspapers here comment unfavorably upon the eight points made public by the foreign office, declaring they differ materially from the stand taken in the Chinese note of October 5. Following is a summary of the eight points:

1—China shall take back the entire Shantung leased territory, making Tsing Tao an open port and governing it exactly as it was administered under the German regime through a Chinese municipal administrative bureau. Customs duties shall not be imposed on goods imported at Tsing Tao and intended for sale in the leased territory.

2—China shall not recognize the valadity of forcible purchases of land in the leased territory from Chinese by the Japanese since the Japanese military occupation.

3—All former German government property at Tsing Tao shall be controlled by the Chinese maritime customs service or the Chinese municipal administrative bureau. An exception would be made of the fortifications and barracks, which would pass under the control of the Chinese government immediately following the conclusion of special arrangements between China and Japan. Salt fields in Shantung must be returned to China, as salt constitutes a government monoply. China, however, shall grant Japanese the right to purchase salt under a special license covering specified quantities over a fixed period of years.

RAILROADS IN DISPUTE.

4—The railroads between Tsinan-Fu and Shunteh Fu and Kaomi and Ilsuchow Fu shall be turned over to the management of consortiums for operation, while the main line of railroad between Tsing Tao and Tsinan-Fu shall either be operated immediately by China or shall be delivered to China upon a fixed date, pending temporary Chino-Japanese system of financial and technical operation which would be satisfactory to China. Railway shares formerly belonging to the German government shall be equally divided between China and Japan, and privately owned German shares shall, if necessary be refunded China and Japan equally. China shall be entitled to one-half of the surplus and profits earned by the railroads since the Japanese began operation, and shall be entitled to the same ratio until there is a full restoration. China alone shall administer the political departments, including the railway police.

MINES DEMANDED.

5—All mines along railways formerly operated by Germany shall be conducted as joint Chino-Japanese enterprises for a specified period, after which they shall be restored to China and absolutely.

6—All Japanese troops shall be withdrawn from Shantung forthwith.

7—The cables running between Tsing Tao and Chefoo and Tsing Tao and Shanghai being entirely within Chinese territory must be returned to China. The wireless at Tsinan-Fu erected by the Japanese shall be delivered to China upon payment of the cost of construction.

8—Japan shall issue a statement waiving all rights and privileges formerly enjoyed by Germans through China and German treaties and agreements, excepting such as may be later mutually agreed upon which may be conceded to Japan shall in future make no demands relative to rights and privileges waived.

Pershing, Hoover Praised by Belgian

LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 31.—Belgium does not and cannot forget the aid given her by America in the world war, Lieutenant General Baron Jacques, commander of the Third Division of the Belgian army, declared today in an address at the convention here of the American Legion.

"We do not forget, we cannot forget," the Belgian military leader asserted, "all we owe you for the aid you brought us during the most tragic moments in the history of our glorious country; we cannot forget the name of Herbert Hoover, the great philanthropist, thanks to whom our wives and children did not starve in occupied Belgium. Above all we do not forget the name of General Pershing, who conducted the American soldiers to the final victory.

"You came into the struggle when the Germans, having disposed of the Russians, turned all their forces against us, trying to smash us with the final blow. When you drew the sword we knew that we were victorious and a new thrill of enthusiasm passed into the ranks of our soldiers.

"And finally when the armistice was signed, you were by our side with the French and British divisions ready to give the last push and to clear the road to Brussels for our beloved King Albert."

U. S. Envoys Given Ambassadors' Rank

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS
LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31. — The rank of Ambassador was given today to the American delegates appointed by President Harding to represent the United States at the forthcoming conference on limitation of armament and discussion of peace and far eastern questions.

Secretary Denby, Admiral Coontz, Chief of Naval operations, and the group of naval experts working out the American proposals as to limitation of naval armament, again met today with the American delegates to the conference on limitation of armament.

The meeting was called in Secretary Hughes' offices and the navy officials arrived armed with portfolios full of documents. It was assumed that the general theory of limitation of naval armament which this government believed might be successfully applied had been completed.

The naval problem, however, it is generally understood, is the most difficult one to come before the approaching conference and there is much detail to be gone over with the experts.

Included in the consideration of naval establishments of the various powers necessarily is the question of bases, particularly in Pacific waters and to some extent the fortifications that defend various ports as well as the status of the merchant marine as a potential naval force.

Grain Railway Rate Hearing Is Fixed

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 31.—The alleged discrimination against the city of Oakland by the Southern Pacific company on freight rates on grain and grain products, protested early in the year by Albers Brothers Milling company, is to be taken up again by the State Railroad Commission December 7, according to an announcement today. Albers Brothers complained that there was discrimination in favor of Vallejo and Stockton from one-half to 5 cents per hundred pounds on grain moving through Port Costa. On June 1 the commission found that the charge was justified, directing the Southern Pacific to remove the inequality.

The company proceeded to raise the rates of Vallejo and Stockton, both of which cities promptly objected. It is as a result of their protests that another hearing is to be held and the Southern Pacific called upon to justify the raise.

ITALIAN LEADER PAYS HOMAGE TO AMERICA'S BRAVE

Gen. Diaz Hopes for Sheathing of Sword and Era of Peace in World.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS
LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 31.—That the sword may be sheathed and that peace and labor may triumph for the good of all was the message brought to members of the American Legion, in convention here today, by Italy's foremost soldier, General Armanedo Vittorio Diaz.

"The war is over," said General Diaz, in conveying Italy's message to the American veterans of the world war. "From it must arise not war but peace, labor and progress."

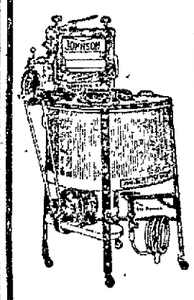

General Diaz in his address said:

"To the service men of the United States, joined together by the American Legion; to the American women who so nobly and in manifold ways took their part in the war, to all the citizens of this great republic I bring this message of their Italian comrades, of their wives and mothers, of the Italian people who see in this solemn convention in the presence of representatives of the victorious allied armies a deep affirmation of common glory, identical ideals and significant human and civil solidarity.

"Italy remembers and appreciates. She remembers the timely coming in of the United States, the colossal expeditions, the wealth of material put at the disposal of the allies to bring about the collapse of two tyrannical empires, the spirit with which the American soldiers took part in the war.

"The 332d United States Infantry, the numerous American aviators, the members of the United States Army Ambulance Corps, the American Red Cross and other welfare organizations were our comrades, bearing to our battlefields a symbol—and exalted meaning which I here declare to be one which makes us brothers, not only in the past, but in the future."

Quit Laxatives, Purges; Try NR

NR Tonight—Tomorrow Feel Right

It is a mistake to continually dose yourself with so-called laxative pills, colomel, oil, purges and cathartics and force bowel action. It weakens the bowels and liver and makes constant dosing necessary.

Why don't you begin right today to overcome your constipation and get your system in such shape that daily purging will be unnecessary? You can do so if you get a 25c box of Nature's Remedy (NR Tablets) and take one each night for a week or so. NR Tablets do much more than merely cause pleasant easy bowel action. This medicine acts upon the digestive as well as eliminative organs—promotes good digestion, causes the body to get the nourishment from all the food you eat, gives you a good, hearty appetite, strengthens the liver, overcomes biliousness, regulates kidney and bowel action and gives the whole body a thorough cleaning out. This accomplished you will not have to take medicine every day. An occasional NR tablet will keep your body in condition and you can always feel your best.

Try Nature's Remedy (NR Tablets) and prove this. It is the best bowel medicine that you can use and costs only 25c per box, containing enough to last twenty-five days. Nature's Remedy (NR Tablets) is sold, guaranteed and recommended by your druggist.

Charter Is Opposed by Wheeler in Statement

Emphatic protest against the new charter scheme was voiced today by Dr. Benjamin Ide Wheeler, president emeritus of the University of California, and for years a resident and builder of the college city, in a public statement which he issued. The new charter scheme, in the opinion of Dr. Wheeler, would finally and utterly extinguish the individual characteristics which he sees to be of value to Berkeley.

"I cannot believe that my fellow-townsmen," he concludes, "when they look the situation frankly in the face, will be willing to throw themselves into the nondescript embraces of Oakland."

Dr. Wheeler said:

"If Berkeley is ever to amalgamate with Oakland it ought at least to do it under a plan which would enable it to rescue out of the mass its own peculiar character. The proposed plan, however, offers nothing of the sort, but quite the reverse. It offers a plan by which Berkeley can go utterly out of existence as quickly as possible. It, for instance, takes over the schools and the fire department and the police utterly into foreign hands

"Berkeley is, as a matter of fact, a place of definite character, even though it be small. It has a definite work to do, and that does not mean that it represents merely one class of citizens It represents in its constituency mountain and mart, factory and seaboard. Central among them all stands the university, which is itself the most cosmopolitan and universal of institutions.

"Berkeley is a tolerable completeness within itself. One part supplements the other. It is a well rounded scheme of community life. As far as size is concerned it is about what size ought to be—a citizen can form a reasonably clear judgment concerning what the town is in which he lives He can understand what it is for and what it is trying to do. It is governed from within itself. It has a character—a character which the pending scheme threatens utterly to destroy

"As things are now we have a clean government and one which is definitely respondent to the facts of community life as they show themselves in Berkeley. Why should we be dissatisfied, except as moved by the divine discontent?"

Speaker to Address San Leandro C. of C.

SAN LEANDRO, Oct 31.—Joseph R. Knowland will address the members of the San Leandro Chamber of Commerce and their guests at a mass meeting in the town hall here next Wednesday evening on the subject of the proposed city and county consolidation movement.

The announcement of the coming meeting was made today by E. E. Linthicum, chairman of the chamber committee in charge of the event The meeting will be of a forum nature, so designed as to not place the local body on record in the matter. This reservation is made in order that the meeting may be attended by everyone, member of the local booster body or not

At the last meeting a speaker in favor of the new charter scheme was called upon by the local business men to explain what would happen to San Leandro if it did come into the proposed consolidation At the coming meeting Knowland will be asked what will happen to this municipality if it should not vote to accept the project.

The latter question is more important than the former in San Leandro, states Linthicum, as it is known that the general sentiment here is against the proposed charter movement

Wife's Suit Says She Fears Husband

Eliza Ann Smith today brought suit for divorce from William Gresley Smith, charging him with cruelty. Her complaint, filed this morning, sets forth a number of acts of violence, all of which occurred in England when both parties to the suit lived there

They were married on October 4, 1902, Mrs. Smith says, and she bought the railroad hotel, Mount Sorrel, at North Hampton Square, Leicester, England, placing her new husband in charge Having charge of a bar proved too much of a temptation for William and, the complaint recites, he was drunk continuously for more than five years. In January, 1907, Mrs. Smith says she was forced to flee to London to escape his violence, and again in May, 1909, she fled from him to Oadley. Finally she fled to America and now is seeking final refuge in American law to free her from possible danger.

The prosecutor here was amazed a few days ago, when a condemned assassin, in response to a request as to what he desired, said: "I should like to have a "homard a l'Americaine" ("lobster done in the American fashion").

"Can't I get you something instead?" asked one of the guards, "a sardine or some other kind of fish."

"American lobster or nothing," demanded the man about to die. "I have always adored American lobster, but I have never been able to eat it without suffering from indigestion for hours afterward."

Charter Meetings Schedule Arranged

A list of public meetings to be held in connection with the proposed new charter scheme and those who are to address the gatherings was made public today.

Speakers from Berkeley are to debate with Dr George C Pardee before the members of the Twentieth Century Club in Berkeley tonight, while Fred Faulkner and Dr. Pardee are scheduled to appear later before an audience in the auditorium of the Prescott school. The balance of the list of addresses and speakers is as follows:

High School Pupils Manifest Interest

Public interest in the election of November 15 is increasing daily, according to an announcement issued today from the headquarters of the Alameda County Anti-division League. Requests for literature bearing on the new charter scheme are being received from scores of residents in the Eastbay communities and from more distant points as well.

Boys and girls of high school age also are manifesting an unusual degree of interest in the charter scheme, requests for information having been received from an average of twenty boys and girls daily during last week.

War Speeds Cities' Playgrounds, Claim

BERKELEY, Oct. 31.—The world war has had a stimulating effect on playground and recreational work, according to W. W. Pangburn, district secretary of Community Service and the Playground Association of America, who is a visitor in Berkeley

Pangburn was the speaker on Saturday before playground directors of Berkeley at the first of a series of Saturday morning conferences, held in the office of Miss Violet Richardson, physical education supervisor in the schools.

"There are at present 10,000 people employed in municipal recreation work in the United States," says Pangburn

"Community service was the outgrowth of the playground movement and covers a large and varied program. At present there are 167 cities carrying on community service programs; 102 of these running on full time year round budgets."

Booze Charge Faces Turlock Auto Driver

MANTECA, Oct. 31.—Nick Vrenos, Turlock restaurant man, has been held to answer in the superior court to a charge of driving an automobile while in an intoxicated condition. In the justice court Nightwatchman Oliver, who made the arrest, stated that Vrenos crashed the machine into the curb in the night, lost a wheel and left the care there. The officer said he called Dr. Goodale, who pronounced the man intoxicated. Vrenos, on the stand, declared he had had but one drink of wine that night. He was accompanied on the auto trip by L. N. Johnson, son of a prominent Turlock lumber dealer. The car was owned by Johnson's father and was driven by Vrenos.

PARDEE SEEKS TO REPLY TO DAVIE'S VIEWS

Confirms Mayor's Claim That Oakland Tax Roll Shows Decrease.

In a statement issued today commenting on Mayor John Davie's opposition to the proposed new charter scheme, Dr George C. Pardee admits that Mayor Davie has lowered tax rates and couples this with another statement that overhead expenses have not been decreased.

This his been achieved without making necessary any reduction in the staff of deputies and city employees is seen in Pardee's question:

"Has a single one of the unnecessary army of deputies and city employees been dismissed?"

Dr. Pardee's statement, in part, is:

PARDEE'S REPLY.

"Mayor Davie opposes consolidation, because he says, the same interests that tried to give away Oakland's harbor years ago are again attempting to give away not only our harbor, but everything we possess.

"By that he means that Oakland if it goes into consolidation, will be swallowed up by the rest of the consolidated city and county.

"Other opponents of consolidation however, say that all of the county except Oakland, will vote against consolidation

"The mayor also reminds us that our city taxes are lower this year than they were last year.

"True, but has our overhead decreased any? Has a single one of the unnecessary army of deputies and city employees been dismissed?

"The mayor's 'saving' in taxes he boasts, will still permit the city to spend more money this year than it did last year. The increased income, in spite of tax rate reduction, is possible because assessments have been increased and $171,000 of new money raised by new licenses and fees. The taxpayer is always the goat.

BUDGET THIS YEAR.

"The city budget this year is only $28,066 less than last year. The real reduction in taxes therefore, is not 19 cents, but is only 2 cents.

"In spite, too of the reduction in the tax rate, the expenses of the mayor's office are $4197 more this year than they were last year. Besides that, covered up under the camouflage of 'public affairs,' is another increase of $6680 which is at the command of the Mayor.

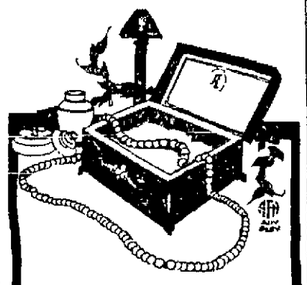

"The sum of these two increases in the cost to Oakland of its mayor is $10,877. This year the mayor's budget calls for $16,050, plus $6680 called 'public affairs,' totaling $22,730 for this year, as against $11,853 27 last year."

Alameda Women to Hold Civic Meeting

ALAMEDA, Oct 31.—The Alameda Women's Improvement Club will hold a civic meeting Wednesday afternoon in the meeting room of the Washington school, Santa Clara avenue and Eighth street, at which the subject of consolidation will be discussed by W J Locke, city attorney of Alameda, and Edward A Vandeventer. The meeting is open and the public is invited. Mrs W. Hopps, head of the improvement club, will preside.

Taps Sounds for Buddie Who Died in the Argonne

SAN JOSE, Oct. 31.—Taps sounded over the remains of another San Jose "buddie," who gave his life for his country, here yesterday.

The body of Antonio Camastro, beloved young Santa Clara man, was tenderly laid to rest in the Santa Clara cemetery following simple but deeply impressive services at the funeral parlors of the Nutman Undertaking Company at Santa Clara.

Camastro gave his life fighting in the famous Argonne drive, falling October 3, 1918, before the fire of the Germans. His body reached here last Friday from France.

He was the third slain American soldier of this county to reach home within the past week, two other "buddies" having been laid to their last long sleep here during the week.

Camastro was a brother of Louis Camastro and Mrs. C. Viruso, both of Santa Clara, and was 24 years of age at the time he fell in battle. He had many friends here and in Santa Clara.

LUDWIG'S FUNERAL SET.

BERLIN, Oct. 31.—The body of former King Ludwig of Bavaria, who died at Sarvar Castle, Hungary, is being moved to Munich, where the burial will be held in the Church of our Lady at noon, November 5. Funeral services for the former queen of Bavaria will be held at the same time.

SLAIN BEATING WIFE.

CHICAGO, Oct. 31.—James Beasant was shot and killed by Mrs. Marion Dillon, his sister-in-law, while he was alleged to have been beating his wife at Mrs. Dillon's home after Mrs. Beasant had refused to go home and live with him. Mrs. Dillon, police said, will be booked on a murder charge.

If Your License Number Is Published, Tickets Will Be At Tribune.

Two seats for the Oakland Orpheum are awaiting their proper owner in the office of the circulation manager of the Oakland TRIBUNE.

They belong to the motorist whose auto license number appears in the Orpheum ad in this paper today.

Look at the ad now—it may be your number.

Each day an automobile license is selected at random, either on the street, in a garage or service station of Oakland, Berkeley or Alameda. This number is published the following day in the Orpheum ad in the Oakland TRIBUNE only.

The owner of the number by calling on the circulation manager of the Oakland TRIBUNE will be given an order for two of the best seats at the Oakland Orpheum. The order will be good for any performance except Saturday's, Sunday's and holidays.

That's all there is to it. Just watch the Orpheum ads in The Oakland TRIBUNE every day. Your own auto number may be the one selected tomorrow—in which case the tickets are yours for the mere asking.

Timothy B. Smith, State Pioneer, Dies

BERKELEY, Oct. 31.—Timothy B. Smith, California pioneer and a partner of the late T. P. Armour, died this morning at his residence, 2435 Virginia street. He was 87 years old. Smith came to California in 1852, making the trip across the plains and settling near Auburn, where he and Armour engaged in business. Six years later he left for Nevada, where he took up extensive cattle ranges with his brother, Cyrus Smith. Smith valley was named for them. After amassing a considerable fortune, Smith returned to California in 1897, establishing his home in Berkeley. During his Nevada residence he was prominent in politics and held many important county offices.

Besides a widow, Mrs. Margaret Smith, he is survived by a daughter, Miss Margaret Smith, and two sons, James U. Smith and Dwight Smith of Virginia City, Nev. Smith was born in Massachusetts. He was descended from Mayflower stock.

No arrangements have been made for the funeral.

Speedy Seaman Taken After Thrilling Chase

BERKELEY, Oct. 31. — After a chase of more than a mile, Dick Bordenave, a 24-year-old seaman of 2333 Clement avenue, Alameda, was arrested last evening by Patrolman C. K. Thayer at Dwight way and San Pablo avenue. According to Thayer he chased Bordenave from Camelia street to Dwight way. Bordenave was given a five-day notice to appear before Judge Robert Edgar on a charge of speeding. He is declared to have gone at a rate of 35 miles per hour.

THIS YOUNG MOTHER

Tells Children Women what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Did for Her

Williams, Wis.—"I want to give you a word of praise for your wonderful medicine. We are very fond of children and for a considerable time after we married I feared I would not have any owing to my weak condition. I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and now I have a nice strong, healthy baby girl. I can honestly say that I did not suffer much pain when my baby was born then I used to suffer with my periods before I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound years ago. I give all the credit to your medicine and shall always recommend it very highly."—Mrs. R. H. JANSSEN, Milltown, Wisconsin.

How can women who are weak and ailing expect or hope to become mothers of healthy children? Their first duty is to themselves. They should overcome the derangement or disorder that is dragging them down, and strengthen the entire system, as did Mrs. Janssen, by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and give their children the blessing of a good constitution.

Berkeley Man And Bride Will Reside Overseas

MISS TRACY KITTREDGE formerly Miss Eleanor Hayden of Newport, who became bride of well-known Berkeleyan in Paris this month.

Mr. and Mrs. Tracy Kittredge Will Make Home in Geneva for Year.

BERKELEY, Oct. 31.—Geneva, Switzerland, will be the home of Tracy Kittredge, well-known graduate of the University of California and his attractive bride for the next year.

Kittredge's duties as assistant secretary-general of the League of Red Cross Societies will keep him in Switzerland for at least another year, according to word received by his parents, Professor and Mrs Herbert Kittredge of Berkeley. News of Kittredge's marriage to Miss Eleanor Hayden, daughter of Mrs. Daniel Franklin Hayden of Providence and Newport, Rhode Island, which was received here last week, comes as the culminating chapter in a pretty romance which had its inception some months ago when Kittredge was stationed at Newport on the staff of Admiral Sims. For some months Miss Hayden and her mother have been traveling abroad. The wedding in Paris on October 10 was an interesting event at the American church in the Rue de Berrie, with members of the English, French and American smart set in attendance.

Mr Kittredge besides being well known in social circles in Newport and Paris, has literary achievements to her credit, being formerly associated as a special writer with a New York paper.

Black Face Art Told in Cary Diary

Frank M. Cary, a famous black face minstrel of his day, who died recently at his home, 4135 Gilbert street, has left an interesting document setting forth the history of minstrelsy in the United States and England, which introduces a long line of names familiar throughout the country. According to Cary, Lotta Crabtree made her greatest hits when she blacked her face, danced jigs and sang negro melodies to banjo accompaniment. Abraham Lincoln was a follower of black face minstrelsy and never went to St. Louis on business that he did not attend the Fred Wilson shows, the diary relates.

A run of forty-seven years by Moore and Burgess Christy's company in London, England, was ended on Saturday night, April 9, 1904, while the Bernard and Backus San Francisco Minstrels ran twenty years in New York, Cary narrates. The early eighties gave to San Francisco four companies playing at the same time to full houses.

Cary in his diary traces the story of this form of stage entertainment from 1842 when E. E. Rice, playing in Baltimore, adapted to his performance the antics of a negro whom he had seen dancing on the street corner. By 1855 minstrel companies were touring the country, New York had four famous troupes — Bryant's, Christy's, Kelly and Leon's, and Wood's; Philadelphia had three—Sam Sanford's, Simmons and Slocum's and Carncross and Dixey's; Chicago had one and often two—Billy Manning's and Catton. Arlington and Kemble's; Boston and St. Louis each had one.

How men gave up professions and women left the operatic stage to go into minstrel companies, is told by Cary. Julia Gould, who married Swayne Buckley, a famous blackface of his time, and Lotta Crabtree are among those mentioned.

JUDGE REBUKES LAWYER MAKING TRIAL CHARGES

Superior Judge George Samuels sharply rebuked J. L. Sullivan, attorney for M. J. Holt, in court this morning, when Sullivan admitted he had no basis but rumor for his charge of misconduct on the part of certain members of the jury which convicted Holt. Holt was tried and found guilty in three hours of violation of the state medical practices act, practicing healing without a license.

Sullivan, who was not Holt's trial attorney, in asking for a new trial for Holt, declared he had heard rumors of misconduct of the jury.

"Have you run down these rumors?" asked Judge Samuels.

"No, your honor," replied Sullivan.

"Then I must say that this is a strange charge for a reputable attorney to make to the court," said Samuels. "You had better run down such rumors in future before coming into court with unsubstantiated charges."

The case was continued until Thursday morning, when arguments for a new trial will be heard.

LANDLORD MUST PAY DAMAGES FOR NAGGING TENANT

Rancher Tells Court Owner Tried to Force Him Off His Leasehold.

SAN JOSE, Oct. 31.—Eviction of a Japanese tenant by "nagging and harassing" today cost J. H. Fahey of this city $786.55 when a verdict for damages to that extent was handed down in the Superior Court by Judge F. B. Brown in favor of George Miramatsu.

Miramatsu brought a long complaint to the court in which he alleged many trials at the hands of the man he had contracted with to cultivate a 22-acre tract of land near Sunnyvale, and for which he was to receive half the proceeds.

The plaintiff contended that Fahey apparently regretted his entering into the contract and thereupon began to "make life miserable" for Miramatsu. Among other things, the plaintiff averred, the defendant caused a team of horses Miramatsu was driving one day to run away, endangering the life of the defendant. He further charged that the defendant cut off the water supply from the ranch preventing the plaintiff from irrigating and keeping him from having water in his house.

Youths Hold Up Grocer, Get Away With Day's Cash

SAN JOSE, Oct. 31.—The second holdup to be carried out with forty-eight hours in this city by two armed and masked bandits was perpetrated shortly after 9 o'clock last night, when L. Bassoni, proprietor of a grocery store at 408 Jackson street, was attacked and $20 in cash stolen from him.

The two bandits, young men answering the description of the two who, Friday night, held up and robbed B. Morrison, 21, and a girl companion, made their escape with their loot following the hold-up. They threatened Bassoni with death if he made any attempt to follow them. As soon as they had disappeared the grocer called the officers.

Bassoni was just about to close his store for the night when the two men boldly entered the place, guns already drawn, and demanded that the proprietor throw up his hands. Then, while one kept Bassoni covered, the second rifled the cash drawer of its contents. The men were apparently hungry, also stealing a quantity of eatable groceries.

Pharmacy Clerk Is Held for Booze Sale

MODESTO, Oct. 31.—R. W. Ashton, clerk in the Husband pharmacy, was fined $300 by Judge Rice following conviction on the charge that he sold alcohol without a prescription. He was tried with J. W. Husband, but the jury disagreed on the Husband case. It is understood Husband will be tried again.

The case was probably the most bitterly fought liquor trial since the little and big Volstead laws went into effect here. Chief of Police Smith testified that Husband begged him not to prosecute, saying that he would not offend again. This Husband flatly denied on the witness stand.

The stockholders are J. C. Hagens, Hagens & Co., Chaffee Hall, Elliott H. Downing and H. Hagens.

WHEN NERVES ARE UNSTRUNG

Gude's Pepto-Mangan Builds Up Vigor and Strength

There are times when men and women cannot help losing strength. They try to do too much or they lose sleep or do not eat enough food that nourishes. Blood becomes sluggish because poisons clog it. Faces grow pale and pasty looking. It is not long before nerves get unstrung.

The best way to start a change for the better is to take a course of Gude's Pepto-Mangan. It builds the blood. The weakness from a lack of red cells in the blood is overcome. Gude's Pepto-Mangan sends a fresh supply of red cells streaming through the blood. Good blood, pure and free from poisons, starts building vigor and strength. Sleep is better, appetite keener, so that the body becomes properly nourished. Druggists have Gude's Pepto-Mangan in both liquid and tablet form. The name "Gudes' Pepto-Mangan" is on the package.—Advertisement.

News of the Churches

London Is Theme of Sermon

At Plymouth church last night the pastor, Rev. Charles L. Kloss, gave the fourth of the series of European Impressions, the general theme being "The Lure of London." He said, in part:

"The most interesting sight now in London is the grave of the unknown Tommy in Westminster Abbey, surrounded as it is continually by a procession of people and bedecked with flowers. No one can look upon this memorial unmoved. It would seem as if this wonderful Gothic building had been built as a fitting place to enshrine his memory. You could dispense with many of the sculptured tombs, and marble effigies which make Westminster Abbey the greatest Walhalla in the world, but now that he sleeps there, it would be infinitely poorer without this unknown soldier, for by him and through him and his brothers, the Poilu of France, and the American doughboy, the unspeakable Hun was beaten to his knees and civilization saved.

"London has more fascination than any other city of the world, especially for English-speaking peoples. It is impressive not only because of its bulk and vast area, but because we find here streets, public buildings, museums and churches which enshrine the history, memories and traditions from the time when Julius Caesar landed on Britain's shore, 55 B. C.

"Here off from Fleet street is the famous old tavern of Cheshire Cheese, where Johnson and Goldsmith so often dined.

"Here is George Inn, where Pickwick first met Sam Weller; number 48 Doughty, where Dickens lived and wrote the last chapters of Pickwick papers, and the house in Gade Hill where he died.

"London, as every great city, represents the perpetual struggle between the higher and lower ideals. The new impulse of mankind to civic betterment has its best illustration here in countless philanthropic agencies, in social settlements, and churches, the better housing of the poor, the reclamation of the dissolute and immoral. There is still much poverty and squalor, but the East End slums are disappearing and the death rate for babies this summer in the entire city was no greater than that of California. There are more funds and people dedicated to altruistic service in London than any other city."

Rabbi Talks on Social Order

Dr. Rudolph I. Coffee, rabbi of the First Hebrew congregation, occupied the pulpit and conducted the morning service in Piedmont Interdenominational church yesterday. His subject was, "The New Social Order." He said:

"Among the great prophets of the Bible, no work is more slighted than Micah. He is one of the greatest men who ever lived. In the first place, he gave us the grandest definition of religion the world has ever known. Do you remember when President Harding was inaugurated on March 4? His right hand was uplifted to God, and his left hand touched Chapter 6 of the Book of Micah. 'He has told thee, Oh Man, what is good. What does the Lord require of thee? Do justice, love kindness, walk humbly before thy God.'

"If Micah had said nothing else but that wonderful definition of religion, he would have deserved immortality. But in chapter 4 he preached what I consider to be the finest sermon in the whole Bible. There he emphasizes the need of religion. Religions come and go, but religion lives forever. We have too many forms of religion in America, but too little real religion. By religion Micah meant doing good, helping our fellow man, rendering social service.

"In the second place, Micah was the first man in the Bible to speak against war. He believed as we now understand that it is absolutely unnecessary. If the preachment cannot abolish war, if statesmen will not, then the chemist has invented such terrible poisons that war is impossible.

"I remember a story told by Jack London in our high school days twenty-five years ago. Jack told our classmates of a war which was fought out in the air by balloons. One nation dropped bottles containing germs of disease on the innocent towns below, and a plague killed them all. We thought it was fiction. That story is all too true. Newer forms of poison gases will make future wars impossible because of their frightfulness.

"The final point in Micah's argument is, every man should dwell on his own house and lot. He insisted that there can be no real happiness on earth until men were independent economically. No lawyer can live up to the highest ideals of his vocation, if he must struggle to make his living. No doctor can devote sufficient time for research work, if he has to worry about tomorrow morning's breakfast. No minister can preach God's truth, unless he is absolutely free, and lives in his own home. We can only do our best when we receive a living wage."

Progressive Religion Urged

"Our system of weights and measures is a cumbersome method, which we have inherited from the past, and should be cast aside for the metric system."

Rev. Clarence Reed, pastor of the First Unitarian church, made these statements yesterday morning in a sermon, "Thinking Forward," taking for his text Maeterlinck's play, "The Blind." He continued:

"The leaders in the church today are in the main blind leaders of the blind. Ask the average priest or minister if he really believes in the creed of his church, and in place of finding a man who is ready to die for his creed as something absolutely vital, you will be given an interpretation of the creed or a talk in regard to its symbolic or historic value.

"All persons are born blind and some of them never open their eyes. A religion is needed today that will open the eyes of people, that will cause them to think for themselves and inspire them to engage in creative work. All that many people know in regard to religion is that which they have been told. They are feeling their way through life like a blind person. One of the great tragedies of modern life is that many persons who might be creative thinkers are in mental slavery to the inherited traditions of religion.

"It makes all the difference in the world if you look to the past for your religious convictions, believing that a complete plan of salvation was miraculously revealed two thousand years ago, or if you look to the future, believing that the greatest conception of ethical religion remains to be given to mankind. If you believe that a perfect ethical standard was revealed to mankind centuries ago, you will have a certain philosophy of life; and you will have a radically different philosophy of life if you believe that a higher ethical standard will be given to man than any of the ethical codes of the past, through looking not backward but by thinking forward."

"Discontent" Is Pulpit Topic

"Discontent is the moral and spiritual disease of people today," declared Rev. Frank M. Silsley, preaching on the subject, "The Absolute Cure for Discontent," at the First Presbyterian church yesterday morning.

"Almost every nation is shaking under the pressure of discontent, and every man today has his serious problem. People are almost universally dissatisfied. The symptoms of this discontent are manifested in the unconquerable desire for change and the cynical attitude toward religion and government.

"The modern rush after new things is not a virtue—it is simply an evidence of discontent. The cause of this discontent has been variously diagnosed, but the Master gives us the real diagnosis in tracing it to sin. In the individual life it is some one special sin. In the life of the woman of Samaria it was uncleanness. In the life of the rich young ruler it was covetousness. In Saul of Tarsus it was spiritual pride. And most individual cases of discontent today may be traced to some sin that is breaking the harmony with God.

"But what is the cure for discontent? We are turning today to mere earthly expedients. Money or the bliss of pleasure or world power or distinction cannot produce contentment. The Master tells us plainly that after we drink from these wells we shall thirst again. The absolute cure for discontent was stated for all time by the Master when he told the woman of Samaria that it is His well of living water within—His spiritual energy—His divine life—His ideals vitalized in our lives, or in short, the prayer life.

"But practically Jesus teaches, as the cure for discontent, doing right. Let any man endeavor to do right as Christ tells him to do and he will find peace of conscience against 'every stormy wind that blows.' The golden road to contentment is keeping step with Christ and doing His great work in this world. The golden road to contentment is coming and living under the control and directing power of our Sovereign Lord."

Minister Sees World Crisis

Unless the decisions of the conference on disarmament to be held in Washington are based upon the teachings of Jesus, they will not be worthy of putting on a scrap of paper, and we will be nearing the twilight hour of history which is foretold in the Bible, according to Rev. Harold Govette, pastor of Olivet Congregational church, who preached yesterday morning on "Twilight."

"From a comparison of the Bible with the pages of history it is likely that we are approaching the end of the sixth great dispensation of history," Rev. Govette said. "We have lived to witness the results of great scientific researches, wonderful inventions and splendid literary attainments. Wars, strife, crime, fraud and all kinds of evil pervade the earth, but the promise of God is 'At even time it shall be light.'

"Old age is the twilight of life. It is wonderful to see people grow old gracefully and patiently, leaning upon the arm of God for support. God often withholds the best wine until the last, as he did with Job.

"We are now living in the twilight of the year, the sowing time, for the harvest is now past and the crops have been gathered into the barns. The mornings as they come to us over the everlasting hills, after the long, dark nights, are generally suggestive of work, trials and strife, but the evening of the day, with its soft and radiant glow, suggests rest, quiet and peace, the ending of a period of trial and worry."

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY.

The Women's Auxiliary of the First Baptist church will hold its regular monthly meeting at the church tomorrow, from 2 to 4 p. m. Three impersonations depicting different phases of missionary life in the Philippines will be given. Miss Amy Acock, a missionary from Morioka, Japan, will speak of her experiences in that mission field.

At 4 p. m. a reception will be tendered Mrs. C. H. H. Moore, a member who leaves the same evening for Susanville, where her husband has accepted the pastorate of the First Baptist church.

MISSION BAZAAR.

The annual bazaar of St. Augustine's mission will be held at the parish hall, Twenty-seventh and West streets, tomorrow, Wednesday and Thursday. Chicken dinner will be served daily from 11:30 to 1:30, and from 5:30 to 7:30 p. m. A program will be given at 8 o'clock each night. Mesdames Turner, Calhoun, Craig-Martin, Smith and Dawson are in charge.

AUTOS TO CARRY DISABLED MEN IN PARADE WANTED

Machines to Be Barred From Armistice Pageant, Except Those Bearing Wounded.

Judge Lincoln S. Church will deliver the oration at Lakeside park on Armistice day following the parade, it was announced today. The observances at Lakeside park will consist of speeches, music and vocal numbers.

Automobile owners who would rather ride than walk in the parade have been requested to communicate with the special committe appointed to secure sufficient machines to accommodate the disabled war veterans and G. A. R. members who will participate in the memorial observances. About sixty automobiles are needed.

At its second meeting Saturday night the Armistice day committee voted to ban all automobiles from the parade with the exception of those in which the wounded veterans and members of the G. A. R. ride. Passenger automobiles will not be allowed in the parade. The committee desires to utilize the street space for the thousands that will march. Over fifty organizations were represented at the meeting Saturday night at the city hall, and it is estimated that there will be at least seventy-five organizations in the line of march. There will be twenty-three brass bands, including two military and one naval band.

At the meeting Saturday night three permanent committees were appointed. These committees will raise funds by popular subscription to pay any expenses of the Armistice day observances over and above $1000, which amount was allowed by the City Council; will work in conjunction with the Merchants' Exchange in arranging a barbecue at Lakeside park, to which all military organizations which participate in the parade and the wounded men will be invited.

Laundry Extends Time for Visitors

Public interest in how a modern laundry is operated is so general and keen that the Excelsior Laundry company, 2116-30 West street, today announced it had extended until November 5 the time during which its patrons and others may visit the company's big plant and see the process through which soiled linen and clothing is converted into clean, sanitary wearing apparel.

The laundry company officials originally had set aside all of last week in which their plant could be inspected, but so many visitors availed themselves of the opportunity that it has been found necessary to set aside an additional "Laundry Educational Week."

WOMAN ARRAIGNED.

Mrs. A. F. Ephriam was arraigned this morning before Police Judge Edward J. Tyrrell on a charge of grand larceny. The preliminary examination was set for November 18. She was arrested several days ago on the complaint of Mrs. Rose Ledvina, 556 Ashbury street, San Francisco. Her arrest followed a real estate transaction in which $2000 was involved in the payment of a piece of property in this city.

City Attorney Hurls Defi in War on Fences

Despite the warnings of attorneys for the Moss tract, in East Oakland, the city's fence across its streets went up for the fourth time this morning, and Moss tract is again blocked away from the Foothill boulevard, according to Superintendent of Streets George Mattis.

In a letter to the street department, Attorney O. D. Hamlin Jr., for the Moss interests, said that the fence has "prevented ingress and egress for fifteen or twenty families residing on the tract." Hamlin demands that the fences be removed and says he will "hold the officials responsible" for all damage and loss arising from this battle of the fences.

Hamlin also asserts that the utterances of the city officials, as set forth in the press, have hurt the realty business of the tract. He asks that these utterances cease.

City Attorney Leon Gray immediately made another utterance this morning. He says he wants to bring this matter into the courts.

"The city," says Gray, "is very desirous to have a court decision to determine if a private owner has the right to cut curbs for a private thoroughfare into public streets."

Gray asserts that the fence will go up and stay up.

"We will hold you responsible," warns Hamlin.

"The fence goes up," says Gray.

Immediate offensive operations are promised by both sides.

City Attorney Leon Gray says that if the worst comes he has "another card to play."

"If necessary, the city can condemn the streets of the tract and compel the property-owners to lay paving and other improvements," says Gray. "Our next action depends on their move."

MAN TALKS DEATH INHALES GAS; LIKELY TO DIE

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 31.—For an entire week, Allen Hill, 22 years old, of 629 Waller street, asked fellow-employees at the Franklin hospital, at different times, what was the best method of committing suicide. Hill, employed as an orderly there, was believed to have been joshing and various bits of advice were imparted to him. Today his landlady found him in bed with both gas jets turned fully on. He is unconscious at the Central Emergency hospital, with only a slim chance for recovery.

Report on County Library Is Filed

SANTA CRUZ, Oct. 31.—The county librarian, Miss Minerva Waterman, has filed her yearly report with the supervisors.

During the year from the main library at Santa Cruz 14,869 books have been sent to 87 schools and school communities and county branches at Boulder Creek, Soquel, Ben Lomond, Skyline and Olympia.

This does not include the books taken out by rural residents to the number of 250, who signed county application cards and who dealt with the main library.

In addition to the distribution of books, phonograph records are loaned through the county the same as the books.

SENATE PROGRAM: TAX, ANTI-BEER, RAILROAD BILLS

Foreign Debt Funding Measure Will Be Held Up Awhile.

By J. BART CAMPBELL.
International News Service Staff Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31. — With the opening of the regular session of Congress (December 5) but five weeks away, Republican leaders of the Senate agreed today upon a tentative program by which they hope to dispose of (1) tax legislation, (2) the anti-beer bill, and (3) the railroad debt funding bill before the close of the present extra session.

No special effort is to be made by them, it was stated, to press for early passage of the modified foreign debt funding bill by which a commission appointed by the President would handle the $11,000,000,000 foreign indebtedness to the United States.

It probably will be permitted to go over to the regular session, if for no other reason than that the administration does not desire the Senate to become involved in another controversy over the foreign indebtedness while the conference on armament limitation and Far Eastern questions is getting under way and Washington is filled with official representatives of the European nations who owe this country billions of dollars.

Senators also enter the opinion that the foreign indebtedness will inevitably obtrude itself on the conference, despite any efforts to keep it in the background which the administration may be contemplating and that the status of the bill itself may be altered materially by developments at the conference.

When the Senate resumed consideration of the committee compromise bill today it was the purpose of Republican leaders to press for a final vote on it before the week-end. In view of the number of radical changes the Senate already has made in the House bill, the prediction was made that the amended measure may be tied up in conference for two or three weeks before the Senate and House reach an agreement on it and it is sent to the President for his approval.

Once the tax measure is committed to conference, the Senate is expected to tackle again the long disputed conference report on the anti-beer bill. Republican leaders are planning cloture or restriction of debate to compel a final vote on the report, which the House has already adopted and thereby pave the way for early consideration of the railroad bill.

Violators of Parole Are Sent to Prison

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 31.—Samuel Rivira, who was on probation from Alameda county, was arrested for robbery here and found guilty in Superior Judge Louderback's court. He pleaded for probation today, but by reason of his conviction across the bay the court gave him an indeterminate sentence of from one to ten years in San Quentin. The same term was prescribed by Superior Judge Louis Ward for Charlest Westwood, who was on probation when, a month ago, he was arrested for committing burglary in a Post street apartment house.

This new teeth-cleaning method

Brush teeth for ten days in this new way. We supply the test. See and feel the good effects. Compare them with the old ways.

It will be a pleasant test. And it may bring to you, as it has to millions, a new conception of clean teeth.

Whiter teeth

One great object is to fight the film—that viscous film you feel. It clings to teeth, gets between the teeth and stays.

Old brushing methods do not effectively combat it. Much is left intact, forming a dingy coat. And most tooth troubles are now traced to it.

Film is what discolors, not the teeth. It forms the basis of tartar. It holds food substance which ferments and forms acid. It holds the acid in contact with the teeth to cause decay.

Germs breed by millions in it. They, with tartar, are the chief cause of pyorrhea.

Fight it daily

Dental science has found two methods to effectively fight film. Many careful tests have proved them. Leading dentists everywhere now advise their daily use.

Both are combined in a tooth paste called Pepsodent—a scientific product. And to millions of people it is bringing whiter, cleaner, safer teeth.

Acts like fruit acids

Pepsodent also brings three other effects, such as fruit acids would bring. It brings them regularly and at proper times.

It multiplies the salivary flow—Nature's great tooth-protecting agent. It multiplies the starch digestant in the saliva, to digest starch deposits that cling. It multiplies the alkalinity of the saliva, to neutralize mouth acids which cause tooth decay.

Modern diet, rich in starch, makes these things essential.

Quickly seen

The effects are quick and apparent. No one can doubt the benefits when they are explained.

Send the coupon for a 10-Day Tube. Note how clean the teeth feel after using. Mark the absence of the viscous film. See how teeth whiten as the film-coats disappear.

Feel and see these good effects, then judge if you always want them. They are vastly important. Cut out the coupon now.

OAKLAND WOMEN ARE LOST DURING TREASURE HUNT

Miss Hazel Thompson and Mrs. S. S. Breck Exhausted When Rescued.

How she and a companion, Miss Hazel Thompson, Fifty-first avenue and Foothill boulevard, were lost two days in the remote mountain district of El Dorado county while searching for buried treasure, is being related today by Mrs. S. S. Breck, 616 Twenty-eighth street. When Mrs. Breck and her companion were found by other members of their party they were exhausted from lack of food and water.

Mrs. Breck recently came into possession of a map which purported to show a location near Shingle Springs where several thousands of dollars had been buried by a man identified as "Pulfer," a former state employee. The two women were en route to Shingle Springs to meet Mrs. Breck's brother, A. J. Sims, Oakland automobile dealer, and John L. Hurd, 2100 Broadway, when they became lost.

They encountered a mountain spring during their wanderings but were afraid to drink the water as they feared it might contain some poisonous mineral element.

When the explorers reached the spot where the treasure is supposed to have been buried, according to their story, they found every indication that someone else had arrived at the place in advance of Mrs. Breck and her companions and taken the treasure.

$10,800 SWINDLE IN OIL CHARGED

Two strangers whom William G. Woolfrey of Moose Jaw, Saskatchewan, met in this city a short time ago induced him to invest $10,800, his entire savings, in a Mexican oil stock deal, which he told the police proved to be a bunco scheme.

He told Captain of Inspectors Richard McSorley and Tim Flynn that while on a street car in San Francisco he met a man named Sterling. The same day the two men came to Oakland where Sterling introduced him to a friend named Chetwell, who was representing an oil stock company.

Chetwell told his two friends that he had just made $1000 on a stock deal. When he explained his system it interested Woolfrey. His two friends advised him to go to Canada and sell his property and invest the money with them. He followed their instructions and went north. He sold $12,000 worth of Canadian Victory bonds for $10,000 and borrowed $500 from a friend and then returned to this city.

He met his two friends on his return and the trio then went to Reno, where he gave the money to one of the men to buy the oil stock on a 2 per cent margin. The friend returned saying that he had misunderstood the order and had purchased on the wrong market. Wolfrey lost his entire savings and a second victim lost $1000.

Woolfrey and the second victim were both given tickets to Vancouver and $100 each by the two stockbrokers. Woolfrey went as far as Portland and then realized that something might be wrong with the deal and returned to Reno. He was also told to report the matter to the Oakland police, which he did.

Policemen Given New Stations by Chief

Orders which transfer two sergeants and six policemen were issued today by Chief of Police James Drew and will go into effect immediately. Sergeant James Pullman was transferred from the northern to the eastern station, taking the place of Sergeant Leslie Cox, who goes to the northern station. Policeman H. C. Gottschalk goes from central to eastern, L. M. Carroll from central to eastern, W. J. Atkinson from northern to eastern, H. G. Hogarty from eastern to northern, Luke Hart from northern to central and S. S. Britt from central to northern.

IS HOUSE GUEST OF RELATIVE.

Miss Marion Weir, fiancee of Louis Vaile, who is the house guest of her cousin, Miss Grace Willson, this week, is to be the guest of honor at several affairs of import this week. Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Arthur Latham of Piedmont will give a bridge for Miss Weir and on Wednesday Mrs. Ralph Merritt, her cousin, will be hostess at a luncheon at Taits-at-the-Beach.

Mrs. Cecil Dutton has planned a tea for the following day at her home here, while on Saturday in Vacaville, the home of the bride-elect's parents, a large tea will be given by Mrs. J. W. Stitt and Mrs Lucile Glover. The Weir-Vaile wedding will take place the latter part of November.

☼ ☼ ☼

At the Claremont Country club Friday afternoon Miss Arda Bibbins was hostess at an elaborate luncheon for two brides-elect—Miss Harriett Rinder, whose engagement to Carrington Dinwiddie has been announced, and Miss Louise Park betrothed of Miles Cantelow. The surprise was the announcement of the engagement of the hostess to John Davidson Burns, University of California graduate.

Miss Bibbins is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tracy E Bibbins and a sister of Miss Betty Bibbins. She is a graduate of Miss Head's school and a student at the University of California.

Burns is an Alpha Delta Phi fraternity man and a member of the class of '17 at the state university.

The wedding is to take place after the first of the year.

☼ ☼ ☼

In honor of Miss Mary Gaines and Miss Vera Chatfield, two Berkeley brides-elect, a handsomely appointed tea was given by Mrs. Earl A. Davis and Mrs. Sterling Parr at the Parr home in Northbrae Saturday afternoon. Assisting to receive were Miss Gaines, Miss Chatfield, Miss Olivia Hoyt, Miss Pauline Gaines and Mrs. George Hosford of San Francisco. Miss Ruth Gaines and Miss Elmer H. Berryman poured tea. The setting for the affair was in yellow and autumn foliage.

☼ ☼ ☼

Mrs. Allie Chrisman of Manor Drive, Piedmont, who is president of the C M Goodlett Chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy, will be hostess at a Hallowe'en buffet supper and dance this evening.

Mrs. J D. Garrett, Mrs. J. C. Foster, daughter of the hostess, Miss Libbie Sohst and Messrs. F. P. Chrisman, J. D. Garrett and Robert Berger will assist in carrying out the program for this evening.

☼ ☼ ☼

Miss Mabel Moller was a hostess at bridge Saturday for thirty of the college set who were bidden to meet Miss Helen Leete, Miss Carol Eberts and Miss Katherine Gelderman, a trio of brides-elect. The coterie were friends of the honor guests.

☼ ☼ ☼

A Hallowe'en dinner was given Friday evening by Mrs. E. H. Chapman and Mrs. J. W. Shores at the home of Clifford Shores in Rosemont Road. The guest list included a group of high school and college friends, among whom were the Misses Joan Selander, Jocelyn Ives, Ruth Dobson, Mary Stoller, Viola Benhre, Genevieve Elfen and Ethel Allan. The young men present were Messrs Brennan, Stoller, Jack Ross, George Wellman, Orin Fageol, Graham Whitehurst and John Stoller.

VICTIM NEARLY SMOTHERED BY BURGLAR IN S. F.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 31.—An armed burglar operating with a flashlight in the room of T Supeheri, a Japanese merchant of 1523 Geary street, almost smothered his victim with an overcoat this morning while he ransacked the apartment, escaping with $97. Climbing to the second floor and entering through an unlocked window, the intruder was searching the apartment when Supeheri awakened. He started to rise when the light was flashed on his face and he found himself confronted with the revolver and was warned to lie still on pain of death.

The burglar then took his victim's overcoat and placed it over him in such a manner as to make it impossible for him to breathe.

"If you make a move you're a dead man," he said.

For five minutes the Japanese lay motionless, but finally gasping for breath, was forced to throw off the coat. The burglar by this time had obtained his loot and escaped.

HOLMES, NOTED FOR RAIL WORK, DIES IN S. F.

Director of Lake Chabot Project Succumbs After Six Weeks' Illness.

Howard Carlton Holmes, the directing mind in the development of the Lake Chabot water project and designer and builder of the Alameda Mole and Key Route ferry system mole, died last night at his home in San Francisco following an illness of six weeks. Holmes had a national reputation as a construction engineer and builder of railway projects. He was a member of the American Society of Civil Engineers, the Engineers' Club, the Academy of Science San Francisco Chamber of Commerce, the Masonic Order and several exclusive men's clubs including the Pacific Union Bohemian, San Francisco Golf and Country Clubs.

Funeral services have been arranged for tomorrow at 2 p m in from a chapel at Devisadero and Post streets, San Francisco. Holmes is survived by a widow, Mrs. Josephine Bauer Holmes.

The San Francisco Ferry Building and the earlier cable railways across the bay are monuments to Holmes' genius. Hunter's Point drydocks, the Yacht Harbor, the passenger and freight terminals at the Panama Pacific Exposition were constructed under his direction.

WITH HARBOR COMMISSION.

When he was 19 years old Holmes made the contour surveys necessary for the development of Lake Chabot. Shortly afterward he became assistant engineer for the State Board of Harbor Commissioners, resigning to take over the construction of the Alameda Mole and depot for the Southern Pacific company. He was responsible for the greater part of the old Oakland, Alameda and Piedmont railways.

Holmes was the son of C Holmes, a figure prominent in the early history of the Pacific Coast, as a miner and building contractor. He came to California with his parents when five years old and received his early education in the public schools of San Francisco. He was born in Nantucket, Mass, in 1854. He began his career as a civil engineer at the age of 17.

In 1887-88 Holmes built the Powell street railway, known as the Ferries and Cliff House railroad, in San Francisco. Later he constructed the Sacramento street branch, the lower end of the California street cable and extended the Union street line from Fillmore street to the Presidio.

DIRECTS TERMINALS.

Holmes became chief engineer for the Harbor Board in 1892 directing the construction of the water terminals, and installing in the Southern Pacific ships freight and passenger hoists which were invented by him. A teredo-proof pile for wharves was introduced by him. Nine years later he resigned his position to become chief engineer for the San Francisco Dry Dock Company. Plans for one of the world's greatest drydocks at Hunter's Point were prepared by Holmes.

Outside of California Holmes' achievements were considerable. He was a former consulting engineer for the Massachusetts Harbor and Land Commission, the Esquimalt Shipbuilding and Dry Dock Company in British Columbia, the port of Portland Dock Commission, designer of the Canadian government's drydocks at Victoria, and builder of cable railways in Portland, Spokane and Seattle. In 1904 Holmes was commissioned by the Boston Harbor and Land Board to report on the merits of graving and floating docks.

He was a former consulting engineer for the Bethlehem Shipbuilding Company, the Western Pacific railroad, and many of the large corporations having terminal facilities in San Francisco harbor.

Who will assist a husband and father to keep his independence?

A tent will do it

It's a question for Good Fellows to decide—whether it is better for a community to keep a man on his feet through a little aid, a well wishing boost onward—or allow him to become a ward of the county, dependent for food and clothing on organized charity.

This man is the father of three children, owns a small automobile, but can't get work here. He has a promise of employment, picking apples but will need a tent in which to house his family during this season. When the apple crop is picked, the oranges will be ripe, and with his machine, his tent and his family he can get further work in the country.

But he needs the tent.

If he raises money on his automobile to purchase this necessary covering, he can't take the machine out of Oakland—which leaves him just as badly off as before.

So, Good Fellows, if you possess a tent which you no longer have any use for, will you give it—or lend it—to this man for the winter? If so he can support his family through the hardest months of the year, and work may be more plentiful in the spring for him here.

Last week requests were published for a gas plate, a coal and good stove and a high chair. The gas plate and the stove have been received—but no one had a vacant high chair for the youngest of eight children.

4500 Women Enlist In Anti-Dope Drive

More than 4500 women are included in the membership roll of Alameda district.

CHARGE AGAINST TAUSCHER DROPS; MAY ENTER U. S.

Indictment Returned in S. F. Quashed by Order of Daugherty.

WASHINGTON, Oct 31—Indictments in San Francisco against Hans Tauscher, who left the United States early in 1917 with Ambassador von Bernstorff, have been quashed at the direction of Attorney-General Daugherty it was announced at the department of justice today.

Daugherty now has before him a letter from Secretary of State Hughes asking the advice of the department of justice relative to the admission of Tauscher to this country. It was stated unofficially that there is no necessity for a ruling of this kind from the attorney-general.

According to official advices from Berlin, Tauscher wishes to become an American citizen as an example to his countrymen of the proper solution of Germany's future through cultivation of good relations with this country. He is reported to have suggested that the government drop the indictment still pending in San Francisco in order that he may transfer his allegiance.

NO OBJECTIONS.

Despite Tauscher's record of alleged connection with the activities of von Bernstorff, von Papen and other German agents, the war and navy departments are understood to see no objection to his return.

It is intimated that Tauscher possesses secret information which would be of value both to the government and certain American industries.

Tauscher, according to intelligence agents was concerned with widespread German intrigue in this country and was indicted in San Francisco with von Papen for violation of neutrality laws in connection with the so-called Hindu plot to ship arms and ammunition to India. After reaching Germany, however, he is declared to have evidenced a friendly attitude toward this country and used his influence in behalf of American prisoners of war.

DUPLICATED IN PLOT.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 31.—Captain Hans Tauscher was indicted in San Francisco in 1917 by the federal grand jury on charges that he had attempted to violate American neutrality through fomenting here plots to cause revolt in India. Indictments were returned at the same time against a large group of German military and navy officers, but the warrant in Tauscher's case and that of many others was not served. Tauscher had escaped safely to Germany.

He is the husband of Johanna Gadski, opera singer.

SAN FRANCISCO BURGLARS POSE AS POLICEMEN

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 31.—Unsuccessful attempts at robbing two homes in this city Saturday on the part of a trio of pseudo policemen, have been reported to the police. One of the homes was that of Mrs. Katherine Strong of 1603 Hyde street, and the other was that of Mrs. Lillie Kraus 1335 Fillmore street. In both cases the self-styled "policemen" lost their nerve when questioned closely as to their status. In Mrs Strong's home they pretended to be looking for stolen silverware, and when they entered the home of Mrs Kraus they said they were looking for liquor and narcotics.

Alleged Threats to Kill Lead to Jail

Joe L. Omeli, Ohio Apartments, is being held by the police for investigation today, following the complaint of Mrs Jessie Herwick, 1619 West street, said to be a dancing instructor, that he struck her in the face and threatened to kill her shortly after midnight at the corner of Thirteenth and Washington streets. Omeli has admitted that he made threats against the life of the young woman, police say, but declared that he was joking.

Mrs. Herwick was on her way home from her employment at Twelfth street and Broadway early this morning, according to her story, when she met Omeli. She alleges that he drew a knife during the verbal encounter. With her brother, Ed Meyers, she went to police headquarters to make complaint. Police Inspectors Joe Enright and William Haldeman arrested Omeli at the Ohio apartments.

CONVICTED REDS ENGAGE LAWYER, SEEK NEW TRIAL

Six Defendants in Syndicalist Cases Granted Brief Arrest of Judgment.

Taken before Superior Judge George Samuels for sentence on their conviction of distributing revolutionary literature, Michael J. Dunn, Patrick Casey, John McLaughlin, John Hannon, George Ryan and Howard Welton today asked for a new trial and for an arrest of judgment. Judge Samuels will hear arguments on both motions on Friday morning at 9 30 o'clock. Sentence will be passed at the same time

With the finding of the jury the six defendants, who conducted their own trial, apparently have realized their inability to foresee all the legal difficulties before them and have engaged an attorney to represent them in the person of William F. Cleary of Arizona, a son of W. B. Cleary, attorney of Bisbee, Ariz. Cleary was prominent in the trial of the Bisbee transportation cases, suits brought against civil officers of Cochise county, Arizona, for the part they played in deporting about 1300 alleged members of the I. W. W. from the Bisbee mining district.

The motion for a new trial is predicated upon the declaration that the finding of the jury is at variance with the evidence produced at the trial and contradictory to the jury's finding on the other counts of the indictment. The six defendants were charged, among other things, with being members of the I. W. W., a revolutionary organization which teaches criminal syndicalism, and also with disseminating the literature of that organization. The jury found the defendants guilty of disseminating revolutionary literature.

EIGHT ARRESTED BY 'DRY' AGENTS

Special to The TRIBUNE.

SANTA ROSA, Oct. 31. — Eight persons, among whom were three women, were arrested here today on Federal warrants charging violation of the National Prohibition Act Federal Prohibition Officers J. T. O'Toole and I. W. Grover made the arrests, while the warrants were sworn to by O'Toole Statements to the effect that the arrests were only the beginning of a clean-up of the bootlegging in Sonoma county were made by O'Toole shortly after the arrests

The three women arrested were: Mrs. Lena Matozzini, Mrs. Lena Bonfighli and Mrs. Peter Girollo. The five men arrested were L. B. Arnest, Lawrence Moran, G. B. Rocko, Ceasar Arrighi, L. L. Rinaldi. All appeared before United States Commissioner L. E. Fulweiler of Santa Rosa and deposited $500 bail. Dates for their preliminary hearings will be set later.

O'Toole spent two weeks in Santa Rosa and vicinity collecting evidence against the alleged violators of the Eighteenth amendment, assisted by Grover, a United States Deputy Marshal acting as a prohibition officer.

SALON OF CAMERA PRODUCTS OPENS

By LAURA BRIDE POWERS.

The pre-view yesterday of the First Annual Salon of Photography of the Oakland Municipal Art Gallery revealed a collection of pictorial camera reproductions that proved—if proof be needed—that photography in the lines of the sensitive has its definite place in the art expression of the people.

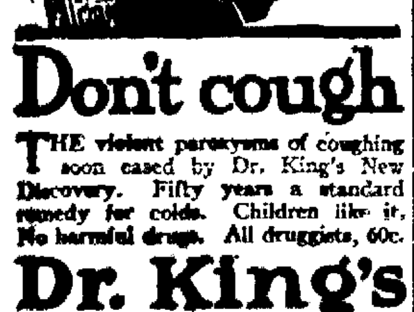

The exhibit includes all the camera men and women in upper California, and some out of it, who approach their subject with the feeling of the artist and with a conscious regard for the laws that underlie esthetics, varying, of course, in degree of artistic attainment.

The judges of the show were William H. Clapp, John Paul Edwards, J. Nisen Laurvik, Roi Partridge and Edward Weston, their selection the best assurance that the pictorial man has arrived.

The members of the local group under whose direction the exhibition has been arranged are Erwin S. Culver, chairman; Laura Adams Armer, Albert A. Allen, Louis A. Goetz, Johan Hagemeyer, G. H. S. Harding, Romayne Myers and H. Tracy-Webb

The affiliation of the group with the Oakland Art Association was effected two years ago, since which time a series of exhibitions have been given in the art gallery, as well as talks on the esthetic laws that must underlie good work, at the monthly meetings, William H. Clapp the directing spirit.

The exhibition will be open to the public today, to continue until November 26, from 1 to 5.

Samuel Upright to Fete Anniversary As Sale Opens Wednesday.

In observance of his sixth year in business, Samuel Upright, proprietor of Upright's department store at Thirteenth and Washington streets, will stage a birthday party for his employees Wednesday, when the store's sixth anniversary sale will open to the public.

Six years ago, Samuel Upright, a San Francisco dry goods man, formed a partnership with Joseph Marymont and opened Marymont & Upright, a department store, successors to Abrahamson's, at the corner of Thirteenth and Washington streets. A few years afterward Upright bought out his partner and since the store has been known as Upright's, and to the energy and farsightedness of Upright Oakland today owes one of the most progressive and fastest growing department stores

LAUDS STAMP PLAN.

One of the reasons to which Upright attributes his success is the giving of the "S. & H." Green Trading Stamps The presentation of these tokens to customers with each ten cents spent is in the nature of a discount—a discount that Upright firmly believes is due his customers who pay cash or who pay their bills before the tenth of the month. "I get a discount from manufacturers when I pay my bills promptly," Upright explains. "Why should I not provide some such discount for my prompt-paying customers?"

His sales force, and particularly his department heads—many of whom have been with him for the whole six years he has been in Oakland—are given credit by Samuel Upright for his commercial success Frequently on his trips East, Upright is accompanied by his staff of buyers. The personnel of the store is just like "one great happy family" and, to prove that this is no idle boast, Upright has frequently invited his customers to visit the employees' lunch room on "Dollar Days," when he banquets his help at a picnic luncheon. Proprietor and employees all sit together to feast on the best the market affords.

Such a spread will be Upright's "birthday party" to his assistants and sales force on the first day of Upright's Sixth Anniversary Sale, which starts Wednesday. By rights the Upright anniversary should have been held the latter part of October. But, because of congestion in shipping, due to the threatened railroad strike, much of the goods that Upright went East for last month was delayed in transit

BIRTH DATE CHANGED.

"Besides," says Upright, "my old customers protested that we always start out record-breaking bargain sales away along the last of the month when their month's expense money is running low. Last year there were many women who came to me and requested that next time we hold our Birthday Sale along toward the first, and not the last, of the month. In deference to their wishes Upright's obligingly changed its birth-date."

"No comparative prices" is another reason for the rapid and substantial progress of this, Oakland's youngest department store. At the beginning of his connection with the Oakland business, Samuel Upright decreed that the former price of an article put on sale should not be told in the advertising of that article. This policy, which the firm pioneered in Oakland, has been strictly adhered to. The result has been that the shopper of Oakland knows Upright values, and has confidence in them. "Quality merchandise at dependable prices" is another slogan that the Upright department heads constantly keep in mind—and that customers do not forget.

STATE HIGHWAY WORK EMPLOYS 10,000 LABORERS

SACRAMENTO, Oct 31—According to estimates by officials of the state highway commission, highway construction now under way in California, including day labor work, approximates $14,000,000 in value and provides employment for 10,000 men.

More than $16 000,000 in contracts has been authorized since the first of the year, $4,000,000 being old contracts. The work includes sixty-five going contracts, besides day labor, and involves the paving, asphalt surfacing and grading of more than 600 miles of highway. Some of this work is being done in almost every county in the state, and approximately 40 per cent of all work, including this year's contracts, is rapidly nearing completion

With this year's program rapidly drawing to a close, T. E. Stanton, assistant state highway engineer, said today, the highway commission probably will some time before the first of the year, map out a new program for further development

With a view of giving assistance in relieving the unemployment situation, all work will be rushed, so far as possible, with the general scheme already mapped out.

Three or four big contracts for bituminized macadam paving have been let during the year. These include work between Auburn and Grass Valley on the Nevada City lateral, sixteen miles of highway between Summit and Victorville in San Bernardino county, and two contracts in Inyo county.

Another important contract has been let involving the asphalt paving of ten miles of highway across the sand dunes between El Centro and Yuma.

FREQUENT 'WET' STRIKES AT ANY FURTHER FINES

SAN PEDRO, Oct. 31—Peter Olson, longshoreman, whose thirst, police records show, needs frequent quenching, appeared again today before Judge Crawford on a charge of being "highly insulated" over the week end Pete had been drinking perfumery.

"Guilty or not guilty?" inquired his Honor

"Guilty," mumbled Pete.

"Twenty dollars or twenty days," said the court.

"Lock me up," retorted Pete "Youse guys ain't gittin' no more of my dough; from now on I go on strike."

Pete was given an outside room and instructed to "tuck the covers in" when he got ready to retire

Pete is the first Volstead striker on record here.

Big Sum Asked of S.P. Co. in Damage Suits

STOCKTON, Oct. 31. — Three damage suits totaling $130,000 have been instituted here against the Southern Pacific company and Edward C. Cushing, one of its locomotive engineers, by Charles B. Well, Mable Wise Well and Isabelle Well, for the death of Julius C. Weil and injuries to Mabel Weil and Isabelle Weil at Manteca, October 20, 1920. The auto in which they were riding was struck by a train, of which Cushing was in charge as engineer. Plaintiffs allege that no warning was given as the train approached the crossing.

Hill has spent $12,000 in improvements already. Ten acres are in Tokay grapes and the owner intends to plant the remaining acreage to grapes.

CLEW TO MISSING WOMAN FOUND IN TWO TELEGRAMS

Wife Who Disappears Leaving No Message Believed to Have Joined Mother.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct 31. — The mystery surrounding the disappearance Saturday afternoon of Mrs Grace Cavel, 23 years old, reported to have dropped from sight by her husband, Lloyd Gavel of the St James hotel, was partially dispelled today by information received by the police. It is now believed that Mrs. Gavel is alive and well and is at some Oakland hotel with her mother, who is understood to have arrived from the East Saturday night.

Policewoman Kathryn Eisenhart obtained several clews but the most important was a communication from a man whose name the police did not reveal, to the effect that he talked to Mrs. Gavel at the Sixteenth street depot in Oakland from 4:30 to 6:30 o'clock on Saturday afternoon.

At that time the woman told him that her mother was coming from Ohio and was due to arrive at the station at 6:40 p. m The police also claim to have in their possession two telegrams, one received from the mother informing Mrs. Gavel of her expected arrival and asking that she meet her in Oakland, and the other, a copy of a message sent to the mother.

This, according to Mrs. Eisenhart, strongly intimates that the woman had had a quarrel with her husband. The police now believe that Mrs. Gavel knew for a long time that her mother was coming, had kept her husband in ignorance of it and had gone to meet her, desiring to do so secretly.

According to Gavel, his wife left the hotel and told the clerk she was going to City Hall park, asking that her husband come and get her on her return home. Gavel searched the park but could not find her, although he returned only twenty minutes later. The fact that the woman's purse containing $25 and an expensive coat was left in the room, caused him to fear something had happened, he said.

Gavel and his wife came here several days ago from Boston. He is a mechanic and worked last at Lynn, Mass.

Former Mail Clerk Is Charged With Theft

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct 31—John Hannstra, who is in the city prison here, will be taken to Sacramento to face an indictment charging him with the possession of stolen government property, it was declared today.

Hannstra was arrested several weeks ago at Kelso, Washington He was formerly a railway mail clerk running out of Oakland, and also at one time conducted an automobile repair shop in Oakland For a time it was believed that Hannstra was a confederate of Roy Gardner in his alleged perpetration of the robbery of the Pacific Limited near Newcastle last May

The postal authorities are now acting on the theory that Hannstra may have been implicated with K Cain, arrested in Milwaukee for the robbery of a mail train outside of Sacramento on May 19

Newell Forfeits Bail; Bench Warrant Issued

Hugh M. Newell, alias Bruce Vincent Douglas, contributed another high light to an already colorful career when he failed to appear before Superior Judge George Samuels today to stand trial on a charge of passing a fictitious check for $50 on the First National Bank of Oakland Newell has been a globetrotter, adventurer, convict, heir to a vast domain in Brazil and one of the principals in a spirited divorce action.

His status now, according to the police, is that of a fugitive from justice, who has forfeited $4000 in bail to avoid standing trial on a felony charge Judge Samuels issued a bench warrant for Newell's arrest upon his failure to appear in court and an intensive search has been instituted.

Newell recently completed a sentence of two years in a New York state prison for embezzlement and then was brought here to stand trial on the fictitious check charge.

Shortly after his arrival here Newell announced he was prepared to have set aside an interlocutory decree of divorce awarded Mrs. Ella Mair Bennet-Douglas by default and which carried with it title to 1,440,000 acres of valuable timber and mineral land near the famous "River of Doubt" The deed conveying this land to Newell, the latter asserts, was signed by Manuel Valdez, former Brazilian consul to the United States, in return for Newell's services during a sporadic political upheaval in the South American country.

Mrs. Newell based her divorce action on the charge that Newell had been convicted of and was serving a sentence for the commission of a felony. When the proceedings were instituted the fair plaintiff disclosed some of the details of her honeymoon which, she said, was marked by the groom's alleged bogus check operations and the necessity for secrecy and speed in moving about the country in order, she charged, to keep ahead of detectives from private agencies who were trailing him.

The issuance of the alleged fictitious check for $50 occurred in 1918 while Newell was living here as an official of the New Ellen Potash company.

Mrs. Newell is the divorced wife of a Candian army officer and is widely known here Considerable publicity was accorded her when she made public what she intended doing with the vast domain in Brazil when she was given title to it

OFFICIAL EVADES SPEED WARRANT SERVICE MONTH

SAN LEANDRO, Oct. 31.—An interesting session is expected at the speeders' court here Tuesday morning, states Judge William J. Gannon, although it is a question as to whether A. D. Shaw of Hollister, who has successfully evaded his trial since October 5, will be present or not.

"Speeders may come and speeders may go," says Judge Gannon, "but I'm going after Shaw until I get him, for the principle involved.

Shaw is the sealer of weights and measures in San Benito county. He resides at Hollister. He has written Judge Gannon, evaded the service of a warrant that has been out for him for nearly a month and even now may fail to appear, according to the judge.

"But he's going to appear some day," added Gannon.

BURGLAR'S VICTIM ARRESTED WHILE REPORTING THEFT

SAN PEDRO, Oct. 31.—K. Yahada, Japanese farmer, living in a lonely ranchhouse near Portuguese Bend, had his home robbed last night of valuables

Mounting his auto, Yahada hurried into the city to report the incident to the police department.

On his way down Pacific avenue, Yahada was hailed by a motor cop for speeding and driving without a tail light.

"I have honor to be reporting, sir, of there being burglar in my home house," pleaded Yahada to the goggled cop

"I have other honor for you to report to the judge," said the heartless rider of the motorbike

This morning in court Yahada was fined $5 for attempting to report the burglary at his home.

DR. BRUMFIELD SENTENCED TO DIE ON JAN. 13

New Trial Is Refused the Condemned Man; Protests His Innocence.

ROSEBURG, Or., Oct. 31.—Dr. R. M. Brumfield today was sentenced to hang January 13 for the murder of Dennis Russell.

Brumfield was convicted of Russell's murder on October 20, the jury recommending the extreme penalty.

The following day he attempted to commit suicide by slashing his neck with a razor blade He was to be sentenced Saturday, October 22, but a delay was granted to allow the convicted man time to recuperate from the bungling attempt to beat the hangman.

Today the convicted man stood before Judge Bingham still weak, but in his right mind and fully cognizant of what was transpiring, according to a physician's examination

"As God is my judge, I don't know how Russell met his death," was Brumfield's sole comment.

Mrs Brumfield was present in the courtroom as her mate was sentenced to death. She bit her lips in a valiant effort to retain her composure. Her face was deathly pale She did not faint.

Attorneys Rice and Orcutt filed motions for a new trial, with motions to set aside the judgment, but Judge Bingham overruled them.

The defense attorneys filed notice of appeal from Judge Bingham's decision. They were granted until January 2, 1922, to prepare the transcript.

Brumfield will be taken to the state penitentiary at Salem tonight, Sheriff Starmer announced.

SANTA ANA, Cal., Oct. 31.—Mrs. Mary Campbell, found guilty by a jury Friday of last week of manslaughter for killing her husband, Jess J. Campbell, at Balboa, June 27, today was sentenced to San Quentin for a period not to exceed ten years. Sentence was passed by Judge R. Y. Williams

NEW LODGE TO MEET.

RICHMOND, Oct. 31.—Harbor lodge, one of the new Masonic lodges recently instituted, will hold a meeting this evening at which the first degree will be conferred. Other matters of routine business are to be taken care of at the meeting.

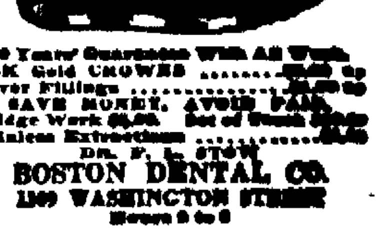

GIRL'S STATEMENT WILL HELP OAKLAND

Many women will profit by the following statement of one of their sex: "I was afraid to eat on account of stomach trouble. Even rice did not agree. After taking Adler-i-ka I can eat anything." Adler-i-ka acts on BOTH upper and lower bowel, removing foul matter which poisoned stomach. EXCELLENT for gas on the stomach or sour stomach. Guards against appendicitis. It brings out poisonous matter you never thought was in your system. Osgood Brothers, Druggists.—Advertisement.

LEADERS IN TRIBUNE WINTER LEAGUES MEET WITH DEFEATS

WHELAN MARKET HANDS MELROSE MERCHANTS FIRST BEATING IN THE CLASS 'A' DIVISION

TEAMS IN ALL THREE DIVISIONS OF LEAGUE ARE CLOSELY BUNCHED

Victory Motors Meet First Defeat at Hands of Avenue Merchants in Great Game at Levee

By EDDIE MURPHY

Defeat of leaders in all divisions featured the fourth set of games played yesterday morning and afternoon in The OAKLAND TRIBUNE Midwinter League, and today the teams are bunched a lot closer than they were yesterday morning. The Melrose Merchants who had held the lead in the National division of the Class "A" League since the opening of the season were taken down the line yesterday at the Melrose diamond when the Whelan Market nine made good on its promise to get revenge over "Indian" Butler, and batted the tall pitcher out of the box and put over an 8-to-5 win. As a result, the Oakland N. S. G. W. No. 50, who won their game at Alameda, and the Whelan Markets are in a triple tie with the Melrose boys for the lead. A triple tie also exists in the American division, as the Allendale Merchants, Calatone Waters and Mel Anderson Tailors came through with wins. The Del Monte Packers No. 6 proved that their victory of the Sunday before over the Calatones was not a flash in the pan by handing the Poplar Candy nine a 3-to-1 beating at the Coast League Park.

In a thrilling game at the Twenty-third Avenue Levee, the Twenty-third Avenue Merchants pulled through with a 5 to 4 win over the Niles Victory Motors, and a few clubs in the California division of the Class B league are now tied for first place. The Victory Motors were formerly known as the Eastlake Club and had not suffered a defeat under the leadership of Jimmy Welsh. A tie for first place also exists in the Western division of the Class B, for the Chevrolet Motors slipped over a neat surprise on the Western Electric by defeating them 6 to 5 in a thrilling twelve-inning game, while the Heppe Trout Flies, who are now tied with the Electrics, defeated the Oakland Art Pottery in another dandy game at the Twenty-third Avenue Levee.

Fans Witness Fast Games In All Three Divisions.

The Glen Athletic Club took sole possession of the top rung of the Eastern division ladder by defeating the Lee Bertillion Juniors 11 to 9 in the morning game at the New Durant baseball field. The Bertillions had been in a triple tie with the Glens and Alameda West End Merchants. The West End Merchants were also surprised yesterday when the R. R. Tutt Hardware team of Elmhurst traveled to Washington park in Alameda and gave them a 2 to 1 beating.

There is still a tie for the lead in the Class C league and the Kushner Cubs and Imperi Club came through with wins to keep their slates clean. With only a few exceptions, every one of the twenty-six ball games played yesterday were closely contested. In the Class C, the Merritt Club and Imperials staged a thirteen-inning game at Hawthorne playground in the morning. The Risdon Bakery and St. Joseph's Sodality nines in the California division of the Class B played a 9 to 9 tie at Fruitvale.

The defeat of the Poplar Candy team in the Class A at the hands of the Del Montes No. 6 can be attributed to the Poplars not taking the Del Montes seriously enough. Manager Tommy Lynch started Carl Kamb on the hill against the Packers and all the three runs were scored off him in the first two frames. When Bill Plummer took the hill, Packers were helpless, but that made no difference for Ezetti, the lad whom the Del Montes brought down from Naps, was in just as good form as Plummer and the Poplars could not touch him.

Hoover Saves Game for The Avenue Merchants.

Fans who traveled out to the Twenty-third Avenue Levee were treated to really Class A ball by a couple of Class B teams when the Twenty-third Avenue Merchants and Niles Victory Motors tangled in the second game of a double bill out there. The Merchants won, but they can slip a lot of credit for it to "Smiles" Hoover, the young relief chucker, who stepped into the box in the seventh inning when the bags were loaded, with nobody out, and turned the Motor boys back without a score. Murphy was doing the chucking for the Merchants and he wobbled in that inning, walking two batters, after Pryor had singled, and he filled the bags. Hoover stepped in and made "Frenchie" Combatalade fly to the outfield. Tommy Ellison hit to Matson at short and the latter made a snappy throw to the plate to force a runner, and then Hoover showed the old nerve by making Mortinson bite at high ones and fan. The Victory Motors needed but one run to tie the score, so Mr. Hoover is a big hero in the Eastside district today.

But in spite of the Eastlakes' defeat, the work of Larry Lellor, the tall young chucker of that club, cannot be overlooked. Larry pitched a whale of a game and it was not all his fault that he met defeat. He allowed only seven scattered hits and fanned the same number. At the close he was going better than in the early innings, and if his teammates could have put over a couple of runs in that seventh inning, he would have held them at the top of the ladder. Failure of a ball to be stopped on a peg to second helped a run over, while the tieing run came in when a ball bounced badly through Pryor and went for a hit. Hellor did make a wild heave himself to first base that let a run across, but he really starred for his club.

At the bat Heilar crashed out a couple of hot drives that were turned into sensational catches. In the fifth inning Nunes backed against the left field fence and grabbed his line drive, while Matson caught a line drive at short and turned it into a double play. Tommy Ellison thrilled the crowd with a good catch in left field off one of the Avenue players

Here Is How Avenue Merchants Put Over Win.

The Twenty-third Avenue Merchants started the scoring in the second inning when two runners spiked the pan. Nunes walked, Koenig singled and stole, and both runners scored on another single by, Pitcher Murphy.

The Victory Motors came right back in the third inning and took the lead by scoring three times. Pryor was safe on a boot Cleary fanned, Larson singled, Combataiaue was also safe on an error, and Mortinson's single did the rest of the damage. The Motor Boys scored another in the fourth when Alf, the first batter up, was safe on an error, and Cleary doubled with two out of the way.

The Avenue Merchants scored one in each of the fourth, fifth and sixth innings. In the fourth Nunes drew a walk, Koenig sacrificed and Nunes crossed the plate when John Duffy beat out a swinging bunt and Heller fielded the ball and made a wild heave to first. In the fifth with one out, Vargas drew a walk, stole second, went to third when nobody handled Larson's perfect throw and scored on a sacrifice fly which Repose lifted to Cleary. That run tied the score, and then the Merchants won out in the sixth. Al Nunes led off with a single, stole second and scored when Koenig hit one too high for Pryor to handle and it rolled to the outfield for a hit. Koenig was out trying to make second Alameda Club Is Defeated By N. S. G. W.

Isle City Boys Gather But Four Hits Off Gene Van Houtte

By MARTIN ROTKE.

The Oakland Natives No. 50 defeated the Alameda Club 4 to 2. Gene Van Houtte, for the winners, twirled a wonderful brand of ball, allowing only four hits and fanning six. Ralph Prisk spoiled Van Houtte's chance of pitching a shutout game by driving a fast ball over the left field wall in the last frame with Vonah on base. It was a line drive and just barely cleared the fence. "Hookum" Smith, former Alameda high star, started in the box for the losers but was hit hard and had to be relieved by Hammond in the fourth inning. In the five innings that Hammond worked, the Natives could only get two bingles and he sent five of them to the bench via the strikeout route.

Smith got by all right in the first frame but in the second the Natives landed on his shoots for their first run. After two were out, Garcia singled, stole second and came all the way around when L. Beeson poked a single to right field. In the next frame the Natives again crossed the plate once, but it was no fault of Smith's, as his teammates made two errors. After Goldenson was out at first, Bertollacci was safe at first on a boot by Scott, who by the way had a bad time of it all during the game by making four bad boots. Queirola then laid down a pretty sacrifice that put Bertollacci on second. Pete Starasinich then smacked one out to the center patch and Krieger scooped up the pill and made a pretty throw to the plate in an effort to get Bertollacci, but Blunt was too anxious and he dropped the ball

The Natives didn't stop hitting them, for in the next frame they crossed the plate twice on five bingles. Garcia led off with his second hit, but was out trying to make second. L. Beeson fanned and the two out rally then started. Van Houtte singled to right field, and Goldenson put him on second with a nice hit to center field. Bertolacci then smacked a pretty one to left field that brought Van Houtte home, and Queirola duplicated the feat, bringing in Goldenson. Hammond then stepped into the box and retired the side, and stopped the scoring for the rest of the game.

Van Houtte held the Alamedans runless until that ninth frame, when Krieger was hit by a pitched ball and was forced at second by Vonah and after Russ fanned, Prisk lifted one of Van Houtte's shoots over the left field fence. Quellich ended the game by lifting a high one to "Dutch" Holstrum in center field.

ARCHIE NISSEN HAS REAL AMATEUR CLUB

Here we have the bunch of youngsters who sport the uniforms of Archie Nissen's Alameda Club. Archie is one of the best boosters in the country for the amateur ball players, and nobody can pick out a boy of his club who has had one inning of professional experience. With one or two exceptions, every player on Nissen's club makes his home at Alameda. Do you wonder why the Alameda fans flock to Washington Park each Sunday to see these boys play? Nissen's club is a strong contender for the Class "A" champions in The TRIBUNE Midwinter League. (Left to right, back row), MANAGER ARCHIE NIESSEN, G. QUELLICH, TOM HAMMOND, HARRY NEILSEN, JOHN TONKIN, KEN. SOLOMON, JENKINS, "HOOKEM" SMITH. (Lower row), TOD VONAH, "RED" JOHNSON, BLUNT, KREICBR, STOTT and PRISK.

Maxwells Win By Staging a Rally in 9th

In a loosely played game at the Fitchburg grounds, the Maxwell Hardware defeated the Zenith Millers by a score of 8 to 7. The game was exciting from start to finish and was not decided until the last frame, when the Maxwells cinched the game by crossing the plate three times. Bray of the Millers twirled good ball until the ninth frame, when the Hardware bunch began slamming his delivery and he had to be relieved by Ashton.

Commy, recently of Pittsburg made the longest hit of the day when he smacked one of Jackson's offerings for a homer. Brooks Dreisbach was the heavy hitter, getting three blows, one of them going for a three-bagger

Allendale Is Winner Over Kohler & Chase

The heavy-hitting Allendale Merchants defeated the Kohler & Chase team 12 to 6 at Allendale. The Merchants have one of the heaviest hitting clubs in the A League.

Allendale crossed the plate once in the initial inning and in the next frame they practically sewed up the ball game by putting over six tallies, with the help of two walks and two costly errors. They practically stole the shoes off of Gilligan, by running wild on the paths and stealing eight bases.

Bobby Foster, of the winners, was hit hard, thirteen bingles in all being made off his delivery, but he tightened up in the pinches and pitched splendid ball. Zeirau was also hit hard and his wildness practically cost him the game.

American Legion Trims Lumber Nine

Oakland Post, No. 5, American Legion, made it two wins in a row by taking the Hudson Lumber Company team down the line by a score of 14 to 5. The heavy-hitting brigade of the Legion was too strong for Pitchers Cooper and Finney, nineteen bingles in all being made off their deliveries.

Ray Meisner was the most consistent hitter of the day, getting four hits out of five trips to the platter, two of the smacks going for doubles. Mel Fickes knocked one of the longest home runs ever seen at the Fruitvale depot grounds.

Telegraph Avenues Defeat the Sciots

At Bushrod Park the Telegraph Avenue Merchants beat the Oakland Sciots No. 2—score 10 to 6. The game was poorly played and errors by the Sciots' infield were responsible for seven of the Merchants' runs. Corbett pitched a good game for the Sciots but everything broke against him. The Sciots have a good team organized but they do not seem to be able to play steady in the pinch, and as soon as an opposing player gets on the paths, some one is sure to boot the ball. Burch, of the Merchants, who replaced Bondshu in right field, was the star of the game with two three-baggers and a star one-handed catch of a long hit that looked good for three bags.

Heppe Trout Flies Trim Pottery Nine

The Heppe Trout Flies made it three wins by handing the Oakland Art Pottery a 4-2 beating at the Levee "Lefty" Cardoza allowed but six scattered hits and fanned eight. W. Welsh also twirled fine ball but the Trout Flies got to him at the necessary times.

Cole and Houston for the winners got two bingles apiece, one of Houston's going for a two-bagger. W. Welsh tried hard to win his own game by getting two of his team's six hits. Gomes provided the fielding features of the day by making some wonderful stops.

West End Merchants Lose to R. W. Tutts

Errors and poor base running caused the first defeat of the season for the Alameda West End Merchants in their game with the Tutt Hardware club at Washington park yesterday morning, score 2 to 1, neither team scoring an earned run. Captain Kihn, the first man to face the Hardware pitcher, sent a roller to short, but said shortstop has not touched the ball as yet, making it necessary to credit Kihn with a hit. stole second while George Donald was striking out and scored on an error of Third Baseman Vielhauer. That ended the Merchants' run getting, while poor base running in the sixth inning prevented further scoring. The Hardware boys made their two runs in the seventh on a double, two singles and two errors. Floyd of the winners should have scored a homerun when he hit to deep right field but tripped over third base, requiring him to remain there while the next batter flew out.

Del Monte No. 6 Trims Poplars In Tight Game

The Del Monte Packers, No. 6, pulled the biggest surprise of the season last Sunday when they handed the league leading Calatone Water team a beating, and yesterday they repeated by defeating the Poplar Candy team by a score of 3 to 1.

Kamb started for the losers and the Packers nicked him for two runs in the first inning. In the second frame, after the Packers made one more run, Kamb was lifted from the mound and his place taken by Bill Plummer, former Tech high boy and recently of the Portland Coast Leaguers. Plummer allowed only one hit in the seven innings that he worked and sent 15 men to the bench via the strike-out route.

Azetti, the Del Monte's new twirler, also pitched great ball, allowing three dinky bingles and fanning six. Not one extra base hit was made during the game. Gray of the winners got two healthy singles. Tehan, at shortstop for the Packers, played a wonderful game, his catch of Gallagher's line drive in the fifth inning being sensational. "Fox" Baker was also in the limelight, making some wonderful stops. The score:

Durant Motors Win On Their New Diamond

The Durant Motors celebrated the opening of their new ball park by handing the Bertillion Hatters a 9 to 6 beating.

The Motor bunch started out in the second inning by crossing the platter twice on three hits, but in the next frame the Hatters forged in the lead by sending over three tallies. This lead did not last long, for in their half of the same inning the Motors tallied three times on four hits. Shoemaker was being hit at will and in the next frame the Motor team made two more runs and duplicated the feat in the fifth inning. Litscher replaced Shoemaker in the box and he got by very well in the next three frames without any runs made against his delivery. Fourteen hits in all were made off Shoemaker in the five innings that he was on the mound. After the third frame the Hatters did not stand much of a chance, getting only three runs and three hits.

The feature of the game was the hitting of E. Vitt, who made four hits out of four trips to the platter and also stole four bags. Henderson proved to be a good hitting pitcher by lining out two doubles. McDonald featured for the losers by lacing out three hits, two of them going for doubles.

"Chic" Hafey Hurls Water Boys to a Win

He Fans Sixteen, Allows But Three Hits to Clement Drug

By MAURY PESSANO.

"Chick" Hafey, the seventeen-year-old youngster pitching for the Calatone Water club in the American division of the Class A league, proved too much for "Doc" Clement's boys yesterday afternoon at the San Pablo playground. The Water boys won the battle 6 to 2, hitting the shoots of Jones at the right moment. They were helped along with a few poor plays by the Drug boys. Bib Hafey was at his best yesterday. The young righthander had everything that a pitcher would care to throw. He whiffed seventeen of the Clement boys. Even Bill Lawson, Scotty and Ingram, the Clement best hitters, proved easy for the big heaver. He was nicked for three hits, two of them coming in the first four innings. After that but three men were able to reach first base. In the third and fifth innings, Hafey retired the side on strikes, and four other innings sent two of the three men to face him back to the water bucket. Opposed to Hafey was Dayton Jones, Clement's best bet, but even his good work could not beat the Water boys. They started right off the reel to solve his curves by spiking the rubber once in the second and again in the third inning.

CLEMENTS SCORE TWO.

In the second frame, Sam Hafey singled to left. Campbell was out, Jones to Scotty, Sinclair, who had a great day with the bat by crashing out three clean drives, got his first one in the frame. Cafey came home on the clout. Jones settled down and got the next two batters. Three errors in the third inning gave the Water boys another run. The Clements tied the count in their half of the fourth inning. A walk to Williams started trouble for Hafey. McDonald hit one to Jones, and both men were safe. Lawson whiffed, and Scotty got a hit to send in Williams. McDonald was trapped between third and home, but got back to third safely. While the players on both sides were arguing with Umpire Arrousey, McDonald stole home.

After this inning, Hafey proved the boss. The Water boys broke the tie in the fourth with some heavy hitting. Sinclair singled, and came all the way home when Jackson singled to center. Elliot let his hit get away, and before the ball was recovered Jackson had spiked the rubber, but Umpire Arrousey called him out for cutting second base. The Water boys made sure of the game in the sixth by crossing the pan three times. After this frame, Jones gave up the job "Lefty" McClintock took up the burden.

Mel Andersons Trim Natives In a Slugfest

The Mel Anderson Clothiers enjoyed a fine slugging fest at Alberger field yesterday afternoon while they defeated the Fruitvale N. S. G. W. No. 252, by a score of 11 to 7. With the score reading 5 to 4 the Clothiers stepped out and landed on the shoots of Jack Wade for six hits which netted them five runs and clinched the ball game.

"Lefty" Sprinkle was on the hill for the Clothiers and his pitching and hitting featured. He allowed eight hits and sent twelve to the bench via the strike-out route. He also grabbed three hits in as many times at bat against the shoots of Wade. Abe Rubin, his battery mate, was also on the job, catching a good game and connecting for a double and two singles. "Red" Corbett hit a pair of doubles and played a great game at first for the Clothiers. The work of George Wolfrom at third featured for the Natives. The Natives tried hard in the eighth inning to put the game out of the fire, but Sprinkle tightened up and put an end to the rally. The score:

Bill Johnston Wins From Willis Davis

Bill Johnston defeated Willis Davis in the feature match of the University of California Stadium tournament held at the Berkeley Tennis Club courts yesterday. It was the best and hardest fought match of the day, the scores being 6-2 6-4.

Mrs. Sutton Bundy put on a beautiful exhibition of championship playing when she defeated Helen Baker in one set, 6-1. Wallace Bates of the University of California defeated Phil Near of Stanford, an intercollegiate champion, 6-1, 6-2.

In the doubles, Strachen and Roberts defeated the Kinsey brothers, 6-4, 6-4.

Whelans Slip First Beating To Merchants

Market Boys Bat Bill Butler From the Mound At Melrose Lot.

Somewhere in Oakland, two men and a host of their friends and admirers are wearing a mighty broad smile. The men in particular are Dan Whelan and Frank McCormack, who have made the Whelan Markets one of the best organized teams in The TRIBUNE league class A race

The Melrose Merchants, one of the hardest teams to beat, had not tasted defeat since their entrance into the league, and they were out to make it a clean sweep. So, when Whelan's boys came through with an 8 to 5 victory at Melrose, Dan was so elated that he began making arrangements to treat the members of his team to an Italian feed.

Monahan made his first start in two weeks for the winners and had trouble finding the plate, but after the second inning only two hits were made off his delivery. "Indian Butler," former pitcher for the Whelan Markets, started in the box for the leaders and had to be relieved in the fourth frame after allowing 8 runs. Dick Arlett twirled the rest of the game and got by with no tallies scored against his delivery, besides striking out six of the winners.

Fouts was the big slugger of the game, getting four healthy smacks, one going for a two-bagger, while Drew did the honors for the losers, by getting two bingles. The score:

Emporiums Trim Pacific Gas Nine

In a game that was in doubt until the last man was retired, the S. F. Emporium nine defeated the Pacific Gas and Electric at Hawthorne playground 10 to 9. Heavy hitting was done by both teams, Godier for the losers and Glasson for the Emporium being the stick stars with three safe hits each. The latter hit a triple and double. Armstrong, right fielder for the losers, made a wonderful catch along the right field foul line. The score:

OLYMPIC CLUB IS DEFEATED BY ALL ARMY TEAM FROM CAMP LEWIS, SCORE 6 TO 0

SOLDIER BOYS FAIL TO LOOK STRONG IN GAME WITHE WINGED 'O'

Pacific Fleet Would Be Big Favorites if They Meet Army Men in Title Game.

By DOUG MONTELL

The Olympic Club made a brave showing and put up an excellent argument against the All-Army team from Camp Lewis yesterday afternoon at Ewing Field, but the gentlemen of the uniform proved too much for the Winged "O" by a margin of one touchdown and annexed the decision after four weary rounds, 6-0. As a scientific exhibition of the American outdoor pastime of football it was not so much, but the cash customers were well repaid for their trip to the fog belt by the exhibition of scrap that was afforded by the twenty-two huskies and other sundries in the line of substitutes who made replacements right and left, mostly for the Winged "O." The Army team that played yesterday may be going to play the Pacific Fleet for the service title of the west, but if yesterday's efforts were their best they had better settle the championship off the gridiron if they hope to win.

The Army was as slow in executing their plays as the Kaiser was in getting to Paris and the united efforts of the captains, lieutenants, majors and sergeants, assembled in battle formation, availed the Ninth Army Corps but one touchdown and that the result of such a diligent attack that the Olympians felt constrained to permit the score. It came in the second quarter, that period of most football games when the greatest amount of havoc is raised. Before that and after that the game was but a sham battle and outside of exchanging a few personalities on the field the boys didn't accomplish much, although the spectators enjoyed the vast amount of running done by both teams.

Winged "O" Crippled; Coach Hollingberry Plays.

The Olympic Club looked better than the previous week and if they show an equal amount of improvement this week they may be able to make a warm contest for St. Mary's next Sunday, game time and same place. No question but that the Olympic squad, once so formidable, has been reduced to but a mere shadow of its former self. Yesterday the Winged "O" were in as sad a plight as against the Multnomah Club, and Coach Babe Hollingberry hustled himself into action in a brave attempt to avert disaster at the hands of the generals. Didn't do much good as far as the scoreboard was concerned, but it gave the Olympians a thrill at the close of the second quarter, when Babe directed a series of forward passes that almost gave the Olympians a touchdown. Time was called with the ball on the Army seven-yard line, and after that the Olympic Club was all through. The Army tried hard, but they appeared to lack both teamwork and stars to make up a formidable eleven. Had the Olympians hit them earlier in the season the boys who have risen from the ranks would have been hors de combat.

Army Team Makes Only Score in Second Quarter.

The first quarter was played amid great cheers from the Olympic Club fans and an equal volume of noise from the assembled leatherneeks. Nothing happened. The Olympic Club drove down to the Army ten-yard line at the end of the quarter, but a poor pass from center spoiled Dobson's chance of making a drop kick. After the second quarter opened the play was devoted to booting the ball and the Olympic Club drove the Army back to their ten-yard line again with a long punt. Here the boys from Sam Brown's hosts adopted the slogan "On to Paris" and smashed for eighty yards and their one score. It took nearly the whole quarter to do it, but Eglin, Searles and Craig alternated in carrying and a forward pass, Searles to Craig, took the ball to the Olympic Club six-yard mark and Craig plunged across. The attempt at goal hit the bar and missed the mark. This piece of driving made the Olympic come to life and when Hollingberry entered the game he directed an aerial attack that went big. Dobson to Brown gained 25 and for four that *the commanding general hadn't ob*served the work Dobson repeated the performance for 20 yards more. Dobson then heaved 15 yards to Eastman and the ball was on the Army ten-yard with a minute to play. Here the Olympians elected to try tank tactics, but the Army put up a barrage and stopped the play on the seven-yard line. A pass would have given a chance to score, but Hollingberry lost the forward pass signal and failed to call it, so the half ended and so did the Winged "O's" chances.

Second Half Played, But Nothing Happened.

They played a second half to give the customers in the stands their money's worth and the Army a workout, but the time might have been more profitably spent elsewhere. First the Army would punt and then the Olympians would punt. The referee had his little fun by penalizing both teams liberally and the linesmen got sore feet from walking from one end of the pasture to the other with the sticks. Seventy-two substitutes, more or less, were used by the Olympians during these two periods and Jakie Baumgerner lost his voice announcing them to the stands.

The only event that produced any applause from the assembled multitude in the last part of the game was a brilliant 30-yard run by Roderick. Toward the finish the Army executed right front into line to the extent of five first downs and carried the ball to the Olympic two-yard line, but the General wasn't paying any attention to the proceedings, so the timekeeper sent the gang home in time to get dinner.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

Coach Street of Fremont High has resigned as football coach and will devote the rest of this and next term to the organization of basketball. Last year Fremont copped the Casaba championship and Street is intent on duplicating the feat. Polsen, the coach of the baseball team, will have full charge of the football squad.

Vocational High must be congratulated for their wonderful showing Friday against Oakland High. They have been handicapped all season long by lack of a regular coach. Mr. Pfund, of the recreation department, helped the team in his spare moments and he taught the fellows on the squad every angle of the American game. Considering this, the Vocational team, and especially Captain McCurdy, must be given due credit.

It will be a fight from start to finish when the University High team battles with the Tech eleven tomorrow at Bushrod Park. The teams will be fairly well balanced as to weight with Tech just a shade heavier, and both squads are well versed in straight football tactics. Tech is given the preference to win over University by reason of their overwhelming victory over Oakland High. University will have gained experience and improved since the Fremont game. The teams will probably line up as follows:

University.	Position.	Technical
Mangel	re	Fechter
Bailey	rt	Chastiamm

Steinberry	le	Pope
Thale	lt	Gibson

FOOTBALL NEWS

CHICAGO, Oct. 31.—Four Western conference teams—Chicago, Wisconsin, Ohio and Iowa—were still undefeated in inter-conference games. One of these will fall from the select list next Saturday when Chicago and Ohio State meet at Stagg field. Both teams should be in tip-top condition for the game. Ohio did not play last Saturday, while the Maroons had a light game with Colorado, in which the second string men were given a chance.

BUENOS AIRES, Oct. 31.—Argentina won the football championship of South America by defeating Uruguay, 1 to 0, before the largest crowd which ever witnessed an athletic contest on this continent. Uruguay held the title for four years.

Alameda Boys Have School Soccer League

A 100-pound and unlimited soccer team has been chosen from each of the grammar schools in Alameda to compete in the two soccer leagues organized under the direction of the physical education department of the Alameda city schools. During the first week of play several exciting contests resulted.

Monday afternoon on the Washington park grounds, the Washington 100-pound team won from Lincoln 100-pound team, 1-0.

Wednesday afternoon the Haight school 100-pound team won from Porter 100-pound team by a score of 2-0. The passing of the Haight boys won the game for them.

Standing of the 100-pound soccer league:

	W.	L.	For.	Agst.	Pts.
Haight	1	0	2	0	2
Washington	1	0	1	0	2
Lincoln	0	1	0	1	0
Porter	0	1	0	2	0

Thursday afternoon, on the Lincoln school grounds, the Lincoln unlimited and the Haight Unlimited soccer teams played six quarters of hang-up soccer, which ended in a 0-0 score.

The same afternoon, on the Washington park grounds, the Porter unlimited soccer team won from Washington unlimited team, 3-2, the final score coming near the close of the fifth quarter.

THIRTEEN-INNING GAME.

In a game featured by heavy hitting and loose fielding the Merritt club of the Class C league defeated the Imperials in 13 innings by a score 13 to 12. Four times during the game the Imperials were in the lead. Pedro, who started for the Merritt Club, was wild and was relieved by Mattos in the sixth inning. Mattos twirled fine ball, allowing only four hits in the seven innings that he worked. Tryon hit a home run to the farthest corner of the center field fence at Hawthorne playground.

Hallowe'en Parade Will Be Held by Lloyd Repairers

Slip the mitt to the Lloyd Repair baseball team in the class C division of The Oakland TRIBUNE Midwinter league for putting on a lot of class. Manager Lloyd announced last night that his team is to have a boosters' parade in Fitchburg and Elmhurst this afternoon, starting at 4 o'clock, and it will not only be a boost for the ball team, but will give all the kiddies of the district a chance to have a lot of fun. It will be a Hallowe'en parade and hundreds of youngsters will dress up in funny costumes. The Lockwood school band with Principal Wilkes in charge, will lead the parade. The Lloyd Repair Shop ball team will award many prizes to the kiddies with the best costumes. It should be some colorful parade.

Washington State, defeated by California, is still in the running for a high place in the Conference standing, and is to be expected to trim the University of Oregon this Saturday when the two teams meet. The game is played in Pullman, Wash., and the Cougars should stop the Lemon Yellow by a worse score than did California in Berkeley.

SURPRISES ON GRIDIRON THIS SEASON ARE MANY

Come-Back of Cornell and Defeat of Harvard by Centre Furnish Fodder for Ball Fans.

By JACK VEIOCK,
International News Service Sports Editor.

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—Football is moving right along.

It has spread over each section of the country like a huge blanket and as the seasons come and go it grows in popularity.

The 1921 season has been an exceptional one to date. It has been fraught with many a surprise and has developed some of the best football games ever played.

It has been proven pretty conclusively, too, that strength on the gridiron is no longer sectional, but that it has become national in scope; they say up-to-date, intelligent football in the west; they have it in the south, too. The effete east can no longer claim supremacy. Harvard's defeat by Centre and the rise of Cornell were the outstanding features of last week's games. Harvard lost because the Crimson was away off color—had no real attack and consistent defense. Dartmouth's downfall at the hands of Cornell and the power the Ithacans have developed caused football critics to gasp in astonishment.

Cornell is now the leading team in the matter of running up scores. The Ithacans have scored a total of 235 points in five games. This week will see the start of the annual intersectional clash between the members of the big three.

Harvard will invade old Nassau to take on the Princeton Tigers, while Yale plays an easy practice game against Maryland. The following week will see Yale and Princeton come to grips at New Haven, and on November 19 Yale will invade Cambridge to take on the Crimson in Harvard stadium.

The Army has a stiff assignment Saturday against Notre Dame, and Penn State will play a game that Coach Bezdek considers dangerous, taking on Carnegie Tech at State College. Bezdek's team, powerful and brilliant in its decisive victory over Georgia Tech last Saturday, is favored to beat Carnegie this week. But next week the Staters will have their hands full when they meet Navy at Philadelphia. This game holds forth promise of being one of the best of the season.

UNDER the GOAL POSTS

U. S. C. did as well as was to be expected Saturday in beating Pomona 35-7. The Trojans were not figured to show a vast amount of stuff a week before their game with California, and it will be interesting to hear what Nibs Price tells Andy regarding the southern brand of football.

The fans are looking forward to the Stanford-California game to produce the big thrill of the year. With Art Wilcox playing a wonderful game for Stanford and Don Nichols the talk of California, there should be some real sensational stuff dished up at the opening of the new Stanford stadium. Both these men are halfbacks and both flashes in the open field. Wilcox is the more dangerous of the two, for Van Gent has him trained in both passing and receiving passes, as well as running the ball.

And now out of the West (for so they call it in the East) comes little Centre College and defeats Harvard 6-0. Dear old Harvard. The second of the Big Three to go down to defeat this season. Yale stands forth as the only undefeated member, and Old Eli has Maryland, Princeton and Harvard to meet and defeat to claim the title in as many successive weeks.

Coach Madigan has his St. Mary's Varsity hard at work this week in preparation for their game against the Olympic club on November 6 on Ewing field. The Saints are confident that they can take the measure of the Olympians, and inasmuch as California, Stanford, the Multnomah club and the All Army teams have done it, it looks like the Saints are next.

Harley Carter, the powerful Stanford tackle, showed himself to be the high class player he has been touted to be. Many times during the O. A. C.-Stanford game the big lineman tore through to smear the Aggie backs for losses. He is one man on the Stanford line that California must be prepared to take care of in the Big Game on November 19th.

Bertillions Meet First Defeat in Class B League

The Glen Athletic Club went on a batting rampage at Durant field and handed the Bertillion Juniors a trimming by a score of 11 to 6. Every player on the Glen team got at least one hit. Lemos clicked out three singles, while Andrews got two doubles.

The Bertillions started out by scoring one run each in the first and second innings, but the Glens forged ahead in their half of the second by crossing the platter three times on four singles. They made two more runs in the next frame on three hits. The Batters went on a batting spree in the sixth inning and put over three runs, failing shy one run of tying the score. In the lucky seventh the Glens put the game on ice by putting over three runs on five healthy clouts.

Center for the winners twirled fine ball, sending eight men back to the bench via the water route and not allowing a single pass. Randell did the heavy hitting for the losers by smacking three hits, one going for a two-bagger.

Roger Hornsby, star second sacker of the St. Louis Cardinals in the National league, and who is managing the Los Angeles club in the California Professional Winter league, gave the Oakland baseball fans something to talk about by hitting a ball over the right field fence at the Oakland ball park yesterday morning. Hornsby is the first right-handed batter to accomplish the feat. The Los Angeles club defeated the Seals, 5 to 4. "Stubby" Mack, former St. Mary's College boy, was on the hill for the Angels.

Marines Lose Tough Game to Santa Clarans

Mare Islanders Held the Lead Over Saints At One Time.

SAN JOSE, Oct. 31.—The Mare Island Marines held the Santa Clara eleven to a 14 to 9 score on the university field yesterday afternoon. The game was replete with thrills, furnished first by one side and then the other. Santa Clara was the first to score, pushing the ball over after three minutes had elapsed in the second quarter.

The ball was bucked from midfield on successive line plunges with Rianda, the diminutive back field star of the Missionites, gaining most of the yardage, and Abrahamson, the varsity quarter, taking the ball over on a plunge through center. Ferrario converted. The Marines, who had proved soft pickings up to this time, suddenly came to life, and by some heavy plunging and long end runs advanced the ball to within striking distance of Santa Clara's line, when a short forward pass from Clark to Hoffman and a 20-yard run through the center of the line by Clark netted the service men their touchdown.

MARINES HAVE LEAD.

Hoffman converted for the Marines and knotted the count at 7 all. Santa Clara recuperated after the touchdown and approached within scoring distance the latter part of the quarter but the whistle ended the half with the ball on the Marines' 20-yard line. The Marines scored two points on a safety in the third quarter, when Woods, the Islanders' right end, tackled Abrahamson behind the Missionites' goal line on a fumbled punt. The fourth quarter opened with the Marines fighting hard to hold their two-point lead but the Missionites were not to be denied, and Rianda, aided and abetted by some good interference, scored Santa Clara's second and final touchdown.

Ferrario again converted. Santa Clara was well on her way to another touchdown when the whistle was blown ending the contest. The game was stubbornly fought throughout, Rianda performing brilliantly for the Missionites while Hoffman and Clark were the mainstays for the seadogs.

The teams lined up as follows:

Mare Island.	Pos.	Santa Clara.
Woods	R. E.	Kerchoff
Bjorklund	R. T.	Noll
Neely	R. G.	Lewis
Isaacson	C	Crowe
Pike	L. G.	Ferrario
Keller	L. T.	Murphy
Yachow	L. E.	Logan
Clark	Q.	Abrahamson
Huffman	R. H.	Manelli
Rianda	L. H.	Rianda
Oleson	F. B.	Fawke

Touchdowns—Santa Clara (Abrahamson, Rianda). Marines (Clark). Safety—Marines 1. Goals converted—Ferrario 2, Huffman 1.

N. S. G. W. Bowling League Will Start Season Tonight

The Alameda County Native Sons' Bowling league will open its second season tonight with three games being played. Last season the league started with six clubs but through the efforts of Joe Thomas, the newly elected president, the Athens and Claremont parlors have added teams, making eight in all. Many handsome trophies have been put up for the best teams to collect at the end of the season. Tonight's schedule follows:

Alameda vs. Fruitvale, at Zings, Alameda.

Oakland vs. Brooklyn, at Auditorium alleys.

Piedmont No. 1 vs. Piedmont No. 2, at Heroldes.

The Athens and Claremont teams will start next Thursday night at the Maryland alleys. Harry C. Williams, grand vice-president, will roll the first ball at the Maryland.

Grand Historiographer Frank Merritt will roll the first ball tonight at the Auditorium alley, while George T. Fans will do the honors at Alameda, and Grand Second Vice-President William Hayes will start the pin smashers on their way at Heroldes.

Yokel, Montana Will Wrestle Friday Night

JOE KHOUMRIAN, local wrestling promoter, today signed Mike Yokel and "Bull" Montana for a wrestling match to be held at the Aahmes Pavilion next Friday night. Montana, who was disqualified in his last show here with Al Karasick, asked Khoumrian for another chance to put himself in right with the local fans. A double main event will be offered the fans, as Al Karasick, who was injured in his match with Yokel, will meet a mystery man from Denver. His name will be announced in a couple of days.

Stanford, U. C. Are Favorties In Conference

Most experts figured today that California has the Pacific coast conference championship just as good as won, as a result of Saturday's victory over Washington State.

Stanford stood out as the other chief contender, her victory over the Oregon Aggies Saturday having boosted her chances heavily.

Stanford and California now are the only undefeated teams in the conference, the Oregon Aggies, Oregon, Washington State, Washington having lost a game each. Washington and Washington State have no conference victories to their credit.

The University of Southern California, although not a member of the conference, constitutes, with Stanford, the two high hurdles California must clear before being hailed as the real coast champion.

The Bears meet U. S. C. at Berkeley next Saturday. Experts predict the Blue and Gold will open up all it has in order to roll up an overwhelming score—if it can—and eliminate the Trojans definitely as a possible for the Western representative in the East-West game at Pasadena New Years' day.

Harness Racing

The most popular horse at the Golden Gate Park Stadium, Little Dick, is the proudest now. Yesterday afternoon Luke Marisch, his old owner, warmed him up before the race. And to see Little Dick was well worth the trouble of going out to watch the harness races. He pranced around the track and held his head high, as though he owned the world. Leo Roberts' Leanor held her title in the free-for-all pace. In fact, she showed just what she was able to do by turning the second heat in 1:39½. Had this race been a mile instead of three-quarters she would have done that distance between 2:12 and 2:13. The results:

FIRST RACE—2:40 Mixed.

Mission Girl (Frank Callea)	1	1
Lady Evelyn (K. F. Silva)	3	3
Frank B. (Fred Foster)	2	2

Time—1:50; 1:52.

SECOND RACE—2:20 PACE.

Black Bird (E. J. Milan)	1	1
Eureka (W. J. Kenny)	5	4
Jumbo (Frank Callea)	2	2
Fire Ball (E. Stinson)	3	3
Little Dick (K. F. Silva)	4	5

Time—1:48; 1:45; 1:45.

THIRD RACE—Free-for-all Pace.

Leanor (Leo Roberts)	1	1
Seventh Son (F. H. Metz)	2	2
Bold Harry (Frank Callea)	3	3

Time—1:41; 1:39½.

FOURTH RACE—Free-for-all Trot.

Easter Lynwood (J. Compton)	1	1
Lady Garland (J. Cercia)	2	2

Time—1:45; 1:42.

Borba, Murray Firm May Be Dissolved Soon

Eddie Landon and Herrera Working Hard for Next Wednesday's Show

By BOB SHAND

There is a rumor around town that next time Henry Borba climbs through the ropes he will have a new manager. It seems that Henry is far from being satisfied at the matches made for him recently and he claims he has been sent into the ring when in no condition to box. The matches with Herrera over here and the Delmar bout across the bay are being cited as instances of poor judgment on the part of Billy Murray. Borba was sent in against Herrera with only five days' training and the lad was just recovering from an operation on his nose. He was way out of shape again last Friday when he met Delmar across the bay and only a lucky punch in the last frame gave Borba a draw against the green San Francisco youngster. The Crows' Landing entry was quite a sensation in his first few fights here but he has been fading fast. Borba blames Murray for his recent poor showings and any time a fighter gets sore on his manager they might as well split up. Of course, Murray points out that he has secured many fine matches for his protege and is not to blame if Henry is not in condition. The trouble with Borba is that he had too many press agents. Had Murray not obtained a number of extravagant write-ups for the boy Borba would have gotten along very nicely. The over-boosting led the fans to expect too much of the boy and he was given the razz the first poor showing he made.

FOUR-ROUNDERS TRAINING.

The little four-rounders who will provide the entertainment at the Auditorium Wednesday night are in shape and Matchmaker Tommy Simpson announced last night that there would be no changes in the card. Joe Herrera, who meets Eddie Landon in the main event, is working out in a North Beach gymnasium while Landon is putting in his licks at the Simpsonian plant in West Oakland. Landon claims he has cut out cigarettes and late hours. He attributes his failure to go four rounds to these habits and henceforth he intends to take good care of himself. If Eddie can go four rounds Wednesday as fast as he went the first two last time he met Herrera he will be a sensation. The lad has the height, reach and punch and is fairly clever.

Joe Roberts is training in Alameda for his contest with Buck Holley. Buck is working across the bay and his manager telephoned last night that the boy was in great shape. Holley has promised to keep his punches a little higher this time.

Benny Vierra and Larry Jones, who box one of the special events, should put up one of the fastest bouts of the evening. The rest of the card is up to standard.

The story has come down from Portland ahead of the California team of how Archie Nisbet outpunted Jenny of Washington State, doing so with a substitute for a toenail on his boxing foot. It seems that Nisbet lost the necessary protection for his large toe in practice and Doc Rosenthal improvised one for him consisting of adhesive tape with toothpicks for a brace. Guess California was a patched up team in more ways than one.

Listen, World

Bert Woods is making the welkin ring to the sound of his discontent. In other words, Bert is sore, mighty sore, and he wants the world to know it. An' it's all because of Cutie.

Cutie's real name is Amy and she Bert's wife. Before he married her she was a Reg-lar Girl with pug nose, a temper and a day laborer's appetite under her chiffon blouse. But as soon as Bert bought the diamond, he christened her Cutie. With the first chime of the wedding bells he burst into baby talk. He just "adored to see his sweetums cuddling in bed in the morning and nibbling her itty bitty breakfus while Big Manums went out to fight the world—" so he did! So Cutie cuddled in bed while Big Manums went out to fight. Naturally. And then of course, Sweetums couldn't hurt her pinky hany-pans with nasty dish water—no indeedy. Big Manums got a Jappy boy for that. Also Sweetums couldn't bovver to get to places on time. Big Manums wouldn't mind waiting for her, would he? Such a nice daddy to spoil his itty girl! And Big Manums wouldn't mind if Sweetums over-drew her bank account—or made up little fib stories about things—or bought $50 hats instead of the $10 ones he could afford or—

No, Big Manums didn't mind. That is, he didn't mind for the first six months. And then he began to mind with increasing violence. "Why couldn't she act like a human being?" he roared. "Whadid she think he was anyway—a doggone sucker?" Whereupon Cutie first wept and then bared her teeth and snarled . . . All of which Bert certainly wished on himself. You can't expect your wife to be a pal if you treat her like a poodle

Dear Geraldine

You may think this letter silly and fruitless, and perhaps it will be, but I hope for the best.

I have read your column time after time and have appreciated at, but, Gerry, there is one question which I should like to raise. That is the idea concerning the decline of men in morals

Today's generation has a wonderfully broad civilization, I know. People, though, for the most part, aren't dependable. They daily lower their standards of life, and, what is more, the young people of today are so overwhelmed with jazz, the dance and silly love affairs, that they have no time for God and nature and the elements which they really need.

I am young, Geraldine, very young, but even so, I have always found men to be deceivers. People have no conception of the trouble and sorrow which could be avoided if young people did not have such freedom.

This does not signify that I am criticizing the co-educational system of today. I think that is marvelous. Being a student of the U. C., I am loyal and admire my university, but there are corrupted schools in this city, schools which have secret societies when they are not supposed to, whose girls and fellows think only of dancing, clothes, love and kisses.

It's too rotten, Jerry. If only some one might banish jazz and ballroom dancing from the face of the earth!

Friend, dear, it makes me weep to think of the conditions of the world today. People try to be new fashioned, etc., but, oh, they are so contemptible and corrupt!

Where are the girls of even three or four years ago? They seem to have gone into oblivion.

May I write you again, Jerry? I have a personal problem I should love to have solved

JUST SEVENTEEN TODAY.

A Sad Outlook

Oh brace up, Baby Mine, and wipe away the brine. The chances are strong that you're kidding me, but if you're not that's one of the mouldiest effusions that ever took the starch out of the shoulder of my shirt waist.

"Where are the girls of three or four years ago?" Out wheeling baby carriages most of 'em and having a grand time. "All men deceivers"—you sound like something Laura Jean Libby forgot to mail.

Come out of it! Jazz in out-size doses may be bad for us, but you certainly do need a few homeopathic shots of it. I suppose by the return mail some old Weeping Willow is going to curse me with bell and book for reading the riot act to you, but let him! If this sort of a meouwling moan be morality, me for VICE!

Wayside Philosophy

I can't for the life of me decide whether this Johnny is for me or agin me, but he certainly does amble on divertingly, and there's much hard sense in what he says.

Dear Geraldine:

For some time past I have been perusing your columns with mingled emotions, anger, pity, amusement, and even contempt.

I surely enjoyed your article on "Passing the Buck." It reminded me of "ye goode olde days" in the U. S. N. The captain gives orders to the Exec. He passed them to the "First Luf" and on down to division officers, boatswains, various classes coxswains, until finally they reach "ye seaman second class," who, having no one under him, carries out said orders.

It is not my aim to criticize any one. We are all entitled to our own opinions (although at times it is not advisable to voice them).

I would, however, like to make the following suggestions:

So long as a thing does not harm us, why encroach upon others liberties?

Throw away the hammer. This is a good old world.

If Mary wants to bob her hair, or powder her nose, or wear short skirts, or half sox, let her do it. That is her affair.

If Jimmy went to the shipyards to keep from going "over there," all well and good. That's his affair. I sometimes think he showed good judgment. Next time a rumpus is kicked up I am going to do the same thing.

My wife divorced me. That's her affair and I hope she is happy. Sometimes when I think it over, I can't understand why she ever married me. I still love her and always will. I think the guy that won her from me had good taste and more money, too, to give her pleasures I could not—and if she ever decides that she made a mistake, well, that's her bad luck.

It is human nature to criticise and we can't change human nature.

If we would all smile more and think less of others' faults we would all be better for it.

'Tis true that working conditions are not at the best now—there are many persons out of work—me too—but it will all pass over and we will all have learned how to make better use of our money. I don't recall ever having read of anyone starving to death.

Say, Geraldine, did you ever notice the pretty hills north of Oakland. I have great sport climbing around them on Sunday, and wonder why more people don't do likewise.

And Geraldine, if you are married, I think you should quit work. I can't imagine what you do with all the money you and your hubby make—things are so cheap.

I guess I have taken up too much of your space with my nonsense, so will knock off.

Best wishes to you and your columns

AN EX—.

I do have a hard time disposing of my money, Pal. I'm thinking of using it for padding under the stair carpet. How would that do? I might use a few of the hundred dollar bills for curl papers, only I don't curl my hair. Orful world!

Defends Womanhood

I do love the gentle, wistful way some of the gang handles the questions that arise!

As you remember, Folks, "He Provider" was the lad that used all the unkind language about the women who work.

Miss Geraldine:

In these days of prohibition the "kick" many of us get from your column in The TRIBUNE is important, so why waste valuable space on such a contemptible letter as signed "A He Provider."

No one whose mentality was not jammed with immoral refuse could "KNOW" such facts concerning married working women to be true. Did he gain his supposed knowledge from personal experience?

Did he give his address?

A TRUCK DRIVER.

No, Pal, he didn't give his address. Had he, I would have called on him long since. My biceps may be feminine, but I've a powerful uppercut in my vocabulary. And at any rate, if you'd just stop snorting fire through your nose for a second I'd like to inform you that I'm strong for you and that any man who will stand up for women that way can have my heart by return mail!

Here's a friendly hand clasp from a "Working Girl" who is now holding down the Most Beautiful Job—more power to her! Thanks, Sister—and kiss the babies for me, won't you.

Dear Jerry:

Just a line or two to say Glory for you. You sure can hand it out when you want to. You gave both the "He Provider" and "He Booster" the finest I ever heard. Jerry, dear, fairness in my mind is your middle name

I was a working girl and have worked since I got married, but there has never been a woman I worked with that didn't have to. And the working ones, either married or single, are decent. I have lots of girl friends married and working, and all to help the family along. I also have some girl friends, two in particular, who have married well and can afford help and a machine. They are the sports. A girl that has too much time on her hands is more apt to be a flirt than a tired working girl whose main object is eat and go to bed. Jerry, dear, the kettle is boiling now and I have to wash the floor while the kiddies are having their nap, or little feet will track it up.

THE HAPPY QUARTET.

Geraldine

What's the World Coming To?

by Rupert Hughes

INSTALMENT No. 2.

True to form, on the very day they meet after his return from France, April Summerlin and Bob Taxter quarrel so bitterly that they forget that April has invited him home for luncheon. They forgive each other by telephone, and agree to meet at the Hotel Commodore the following day to try lunching together. Bob arrives early and explains to a friend that he has just come into a legacy which he may invest in oil. Joe and Kate Yarmy overhear this, and inveigle him into promising $5,000 to develop their oil property in Texas. Bob is so engrossed in conversation with the wily and beautiful Kate that he does not notice April when she walks slowly past him, so she lunches with Walter Reece instead. Half an hour too late, Bob suddenly recalls his engagement with April.

"Well" Kate began, hesitantly, "you see, on the next farm to ours was a shabby old place owned by this Mrs. Durrin, and she had a little old frame shack on it

"Well, when the oil craze hit our part of the country," Kate went on, "one of Mrs Durrin's grown-up boys who'd been a rigger for otha wells decided to sink one on his mother's land. She wouldn't consent for the longest tahm, but one day she went away to visit a sick sista and stayed a week; and when she came back she found a big derrick standing raht where she used to hang out the clothes, and a stream of oil as big as a stovepoipe po'in out. It made a regula' lake. Well, that well brought in only twelve hundred barrels a day. Her boy hired help and ran up fo' mo' derricks, and—well when I left home, Mrs. Durrin was taking in ova six thousand dollas a month."

"God lard!" Bob groaned in awe. Bob was thinking of the automobiles and diamonds he could buy for April.

The thought of April brought back to Bob the memory of his engagement. He gasped. "Holy mackerel! I had an appointment with—with a friend, and here it is half an hour late. Will you excuse me?"

He could not find April anywhere in the huge lobby. It never occurred to him to look in the dining room, where he would have found her turning Walter Reece's head. Bob had hunted the lobby through. He went to the telephone bureau and called up April's number. Mrs. Summerlin answered and told him that April had left to meet him nearly an hour before.

He went the grand rounds of the lobby again with a hangdog look, uncertain whether April had forgotten or had come and gone in the belief that he had forgotten.

He resolved to pursue his legacy and make it his without delay. He put in a long-distance call for the executor, a Virginia lawyer with an office in Richmond. Then he went into the men's cafe and at a solitary luncheon.

Mr. Gooch was really eager to be discharged as executor. He had probated the will, and he was satisfied that all the debts of Uncle Randolph Chatterson were cleared.

By the time Bob had talked to Mr. Gooch it was so late that he had to return to camp.

The evening of the next day Bob received a New York draft for $10,000. The following morning the bank accepted his account, took his signature and gave him a bank book and a sheaf of blank checks.

When Bob telephoned to April he found her out again, and Fansy told him that Mrs. Summerlin was not at home, either.

Then Bob telephoned the Yarmys, and Kate promised to find her brother and bring him along to luncheon.

Bob hunted up a chauffeur and a shiny touring car, found Kate and Joe at the appointed place and told the driver, "Round the park and up the drive and then to Delmonico's."

Kate and Joe could not help noticing that the car carried Caesar. Finally Joe said:

"Looks like to me you must have met up with that old executioner and took a heap of money offen him."

Bob laughed and nodded.

"I don't like to crowd you any, brother," Joe remarked, "but—well, it's only fair to say that since I saw you last I ran into a pawty from my own home town who is mahty anxious to nick in on this little proposition."

This startled Bob. "I hope you told him that I had an option."

Joe grinned perplexity. "Well, I did allow you had spoken of it, but he says to me: 'Where's his cash at?' Has he paid you anything daown?' he says; and I had to say: 'Well, no, but he has a kind of a moral option,' I says. 'How do you know,' says he, 'that this fella 'ain't changed his mind.' Of co'se, I said I knew Lieut. Taxta was a man of his word, but—well, I'll say you had me worried."

Bob laughed in acute distress. He must either accept the ugly name of "welsher" or the fool's cap of "plunger."

He felt that Joe was growing a trifle peevish. Worse yet, he felt a certain chill in the manner of Kate, who sat next to him.

He turned suddenly with a violent twist and a backward gaze. Wasn't that April Summerlin who just shot by? All he could see now was a very trim pair of shoulders and a jaunty overseas cap on a pretty head in a dwindling car of military gray.

He apologized for his abrupt action; "I'm sorry, but—that looked a little like Miss Summerlin who just went by."

Joe's voice softened. "That's the lady you said had come into a lot of money, ain't it?"

"Yes," said Bob.

"You allowed she might be interested in this little proposition."

"Well, yes—she might, but——"

Bob was in a quandary indeed. If April had seen him motoring with Kate, what wouldn't she say to him?

"All right," he sighed. "I'll see if I can arrange a meeting. I'll let you know."

Bob lunched the Yarmys royally at Delmonico's and Joe asked many questions about the Summerlins, which Bob answered in a troubled wonderment whether he were betraying or befriending them.

Joe Yarmy graciously extended Bob's option a little longer. Bob went back to camp and found there his anxiously awaited release from military servitude.

Bob took his old clothes out of the trunks and rejoiced in their colors. But to his horror they proved ludicrously small.

The next morning he dressed with a leisure unknown for nearly two years, packed his duds, and struck out for New York, where he commanded two suits—one for day and one for night. Then he went and bought himself a ready-to-wear business suit and a dinner-jacket and trousers and waistcoat for immediate evenings

It was indeed April whom Bob had seen scudding past his car in Central Park. She finished the day and her own resources of courage together. Mrs. Summerlin glanced over her spectacles to ask:

"Have a hard day, honey?"

"Ghastly! I saw Bob in the park—in a motor with a creature——"

"Tell me more about it."

"I'd rather not. I'll wait till Bob comes round with an explanation—if he can make one up."

And then she climbed the stairs to dress for dinner, for the Motor Corps women were permitted to resume their swansdown after sunset.

The next day along about luncheon-time April was called to the headquarters telephone. She was amazed to hear Bob's voice.

"I got your number from your mother," Bob said in a tone of sunlit honey. "I want you to see me in civilian's clothes."

April's curosity overpowered her. "Come round here at once," she said, "and give the Motor Corps a good laugh."

"No, you're coming to lunch with me."

"The next time I accept an invitation from you, young man, I'll bring some sandwiches. You never keep your dates."

"Don't I, though? I was half an hour ahead of time yesterday, and hunted all over the hotel for you"

"Did you expect to find me inside the eyes of that flapper you were ogling?"

"What's that?"

"Oh, you heard me! And I saw you! I passed right by you, but you were sunk—completely sunk!"

"Now, April! We were talking about you all the time."

April consented to take lunch with him provided he called for her at the headquarters.

They went to the Biltmore.

April noted that Bob seemed to defer the subject of the woman he was with. She broached the matter herself at last. "You were going to tell me about that girl, Bob."

He had been trying for some time to arrange a good beginning for his story, and April caught him unready. He bolted into the midst of things.

"Well, you see, this Joe Yarmy—"

"Oh! you call her Joe already?"

"Call who Joe?"

"This girl."

"I was speaking of her brother!"

"Oh! she has a brother!"

"Of course she has."

"I'm supposed to know that then."

"You're supposed to let me tell this my own way."

"Oh! It's as complicated as all that, is it? Well, go on and tell it your own way."

"It's not complicated at all."

"Then why are you so touchy about it?"

"It's not me that's touchy; it's you."

"Oh! now I'm to blame—as usual!"

"My God! April, will you never grow up? You're as impossible as you were when you were 5 years old."

"Oh, forgive me, Mr. Possible! If I'm so impossible, and have always been, why do you bother with me at all?"

"I don't know, unless it's because I've been cursed from my cradle with loving you."

This melted her a little. She laughed and said: "Well, go on. Her brother Joe——"

The waiter interpolated a few dishes and took away a few. When this third person moved off Bob began anew:

"The other day a soldier named Joe Yarmy came up to me and asked my advice."

"Why did he pick on you?"

"Because he had met me in Texas when I was learning to fly there."

"And had you met his sister there, too?"

"No. Well, yes—at least, she said I had danced with her at the big street dance in Houston."

"Oh! you were dancing in Texas, were you? I don't remember you writing me about any dancing."

"It was probably during one of the times when we were not writing," Bob groaned; then he struck out viciously. "It was just about the time, I reckon, when you were going to marry that Major What's-his-name."

"Oh, you were revenging yourself on me by flirting with another girl? I see! Quite proper! Go on."

He said, very quietly: "Since you know the whole story, write it yourself. You'll get no more out of me."

For the waiter's sake they finished the meal with decorum and strolled out of the room, trying to act as if their hearts were not debating between murder and suicide.

Bob called up a taxi. April said: "I'd prefer to walk, if you don't mind."

Bob countermanded the taxi and walked. When they reached April's headquarters she said:

"Good-by"

He groaned. "Shall I see you again?"

She laughed. "You know the address!" and left him.

He lifted his hat and walked away. He had forgotten to arrange the meeting with Kate he was glad of it.

He did not know that April was peering out of the window at him through a rain of tears as she wondered why she loved him so and was so vain to him

Bob went to his rooms to meditate upon his future.

He called up Joe Yarmy to tell him that he was ready to close the deal and push on to Texas. The Yarmys were out. He left his name and number.

At some remote period his telephone rang. He hoped it was April calling him up to ask his forgiveness. He was all too ready to swap forgiveness with her. But it was Kate that spoke

He asked for her brother, and she said that Joe was out and she did not know when he would be back—probably not till late at night.

Bob proposed a little more fresh air. Kate accepted the invitation. Bob rushed from the Deucalion, beckoned a passing taxicab, and gave the driver the number of Miss Yarmy's hotel, which was also uptown and not far distant.

Kate did not keep Bob waiting. She greeted him with warm goodfellowship.

It was a luxury to his lonely soul to sit beside her.

"Mighty nice of you to take me out," Kate said. "I was going almost crazy, worrying over Joe."

"Your poor thing!" Bob moaned. "What's the matter with Joe?"

"Oh, I oughtn't to speak of it, but—well, he got out of his uniform today and into his bad habit.

"The poor boy! Oh, it's terrible, but—well, he has been drinking. It's the idleness. It's funny how much lonlier you can be in a big city than off by yourself. Had you ever noticed it?"

Her solicitude for her brother touched him deeply.

Suddenly he found that he was holding Kate's right hand in his left and patting it with his right.

"How'd you like to dine with me?" he asked, eagerly.

"Just us two?" Kate faltered. "Would it be all right?"

"Sure it would! You'd be all right anywhere!" said Bob. To the driver he said, "Take us to the Knickerbocker."

There was a dancing space at the Knickerbocker, and after he had ordered a consoling and encouraging dinner Bob suggested a dance. Kate accepted shyly.

She made a delicious armful, and as she nestled to him Bob murmured:

"This is a little different from dancing on the pavement in Houston, eh?"

She nodded her head.

"I'm a little homesick, though," "Me, too," he answered, gallantly. "Texas is like home to me. You Texas girls are—well—" For lack of a bright enough word, he held her a little snugger. She laughed. And the music ended, leaving Bob strangely bewildered.

Bob and Kate lingered and danced after they had finished their coffee.

Bob felt a remorseful recklessness as he sank back into his chair, and then it seemed as if April had taken a place at the table. Bob was bitterly ashamed of himself. He was a dual traitor to April's trust and to Kate's friendship. He made a feeble effort at an armistice and said:

"I don't suppose you'd care to go to a show, would you?"

She said: "I'd love it—that is, if you want to."

"I'm dying to," said Bob casting his last shred of honor overboard with regret.

The farce was ingenious, and since things that startle prudery are always twice as amusing as polite wit, the laughing was uproarious. Bob yelped and rocked with the rocking house. He dared not look at kate, but he could hear her shriek. This shocked him until he realized that she was doubtless too honest to be a prude.

After the farce, Kate permitted him to persuade her to take supper on the New Amsterdam Roof, where they danced some more

One the way back to Kate's hotel, along about 1 a. m., Kate insisted on talking about Texas and oil-wells so that she might have something definite to tell Joe; and at last Bob told her that he would draw his money from the bank the next morning. She was so relieved that she gave a little cry of relief and swayed toward him.

He caught her in his arms and would have kissed her, but she put her fingers between her mouth and his lip and whispered:

"Oh, please don't!"

She guaranteed to have Joe sober and prepared to close the deal with Bob on the transfer of cash.

The next morning Bob stared at his face as he shaved it, and called himself a low-down hound, a no-account common scoundrel. But the face in the mirror did not seem to take the abuse very seriously.

A hall boy brought to his door a telegram. He tore open the envelope. It contained a night letter from his mother.

Your darling letter received so sorry you had so much trouble getting free and have to go right into business without any vacation don't bother to come here I will run up to New York and stop with Cousin Sally will wire train later dearest love dying to see my boy. MOTHER.

Bob cursed himself for an ingrate and a reprobate and vowed that he would never neglect his mother again. It was not a new vow.

Incidentally it simplified matters immensely to have his mother in New York, for he could enjoy a little visit with her and then rush down to Texas before the multitudes of oil borers had drained off all the supply.

After breakfast he went to the bank to draw the money to pay for his share in the Yarmy property. The streets were notably thronged, even for these crowded days.

Bob had to thread his way slowly to the front door of the bank. And then he found it closed for the holiday!

The occasion of the holiday and the mob was the parade of the Twenty-seventh Division, just in from France.

When the regiments had passed, one after another, an army of wounded followed in an almost endless flow of automobiles three abreast. In the front seat of each car sat two women in uniform. They all looked incredibly smart in their motor corps blouses.

Suddenly he recognized April. His heart leaped with love of her. He had never seen her look so attractive.

Bob stared after her with devout eyes

He consecrated himself anew to April. He cast aside his pitiful little yearning to get richer than she. He resolved to give her a chance at the Yarmy investment. As soon as he could escape the crowd he telephoned to the Yarmys that the bank was closed.

He tried to telephone to April and beg her to receive his prodigal heart again, but she was away all day, and when he called her by wire in the evening he learned that she had gone out to dinner.

The next morning he resolved to bring April and Kate together and let them fight it out.

He telephoned April, and she consented to see the fascinating Miss Yarmy and her brother. He telephoned Miss Yarmy, and she consented to call on Miss Summerlin without waiting to be called on.

Bob went to the bank and drew $5000 in five crisp new bills. He was determined to invest it as he saw fit, without regard to April's whims or plans.

This was no time to be caught with dust on the piano and the rugs.

April snatched the telephone and gave the message herself.

"That old vacuum cleaner man, you know—that I met in your elevator."

"Yassum. Fafessa Taxta, you mean."

"That's the one. I must have him this morning without fail."

"Yassum. I reckon I kin git him."

She had invoked a genie, an ebony god in a machine and with a machine.

And now the fates began to take a lively interest in Bob Taxter's future, and a grand rendezvous was appointed for its decision. April and her mother, and Kate and Joe, and Bob's mother would all be on hand, and Bob himself. But old Uncle Zeb would master them all.

Holding a Husband of Adele Garrison's New Phase

REVELATIONS OF A WIFE

I had no compunctions in listening to this phase of the excited child's outpourings, for it was a familiar story to me, one which I had shared with Lillian in the days when Tom Morton, the man who had dragged her through purgatory, was keeping her child from her. And my heart ached for Marion, and for the lonely man who waited only the word to lavish on her all the starved fatherhood of a royal heart. It ached most of all for Lillian, denying herself the love of her girlhood and of her middle age, the protecting tenderness which Robert Savarin only waited her word to give her, because she feared the publicity for Marion of the divorce from Harry Underwood, which must precede any marriage of hers.

Marion crept back into my arms, lifting her flower-like face to mine.

"Do you suppose, Auntie Madge," she whispered, "that it would be all right for me to write to Uncle Robert all by myself, and tell him that mother needs him, that you're afraid she's going to be ill? He made me promise once that if ever I found out she needed him I would let him know."

I struggled for a minute with the temptation to give an unqualified assent to the child's entreaty. But I knew that I dared not do it unless it was a question of life and death with Lillian. She is not a woman in whose affairs one can meddle with impunity.

"I am afraid not, sweetheart," I said reluctantly. "Mother knows best, you know. But I'll keep watch over her for you, and when I think it is right to do it I will tell you. Come, get on your frock now."

Her eyes, large and lustrous, looked steadily at me for a moment with the gravity and keeness of an adult, then she turned toward the bed where her frock lay.

"But I do wish mother would marry Uncle Robert, so I could have a really truly father like other girls," she said with a rebellious sigh.

And I echoed her wish in my heart.

"Lillian, Lillian, dear!"

I bent above the bed where my friend had thrown herself for the ten minutes' relaxation I had prescribed for her. With an anxiety which I dared not betray on account of Marion, who also bent over her mother, her childish face sharpened with worry, I scanned my friend's face which was still flushed, and listened to her uneven breathing.

"Yes. What is it?"

Her eyes flew wide open, but for an instant there was no recognition in them, only a vague bewilderment. She raised herself on one elbow, looking around the room wonderingly until her eyes fell on Marion. Then—I started at the sound—She laughed lightly, sprang to her feet and stretched her arms high above her head.

"Those old Seven Sleepers had nothing on me, I fancy," she said. "How long did I sleep?"

"Only the ten minutes I gave you," I returned. "I didn't dare let you stay any longer with the image of Mrs. Durkee in the background. But are you sure you're all right?"

Marion echoed my words, her arms clasping her mother's waist.

"You're not sick are you, Mumsy?"

"LAUGHING WATERS"

By Mary Garoutte, 490 Twenty-first street—12 years old.

BARBARA'S ADVENTURE IN CLOUDLAND.

A long, long time ago in a little town in Texas there once lived a small girl by the name of Barbara. She often wondered whether the clouds were soft and white or gray and soggy as the people said, and whether anybody lived on them such as fairies or giants, for she was a very imaginative little girl.

One night as she lay in her bed pondering on these questions, she thought she saw a large white shape coming in the window. As she lay looking to see if it was true or not, she felt herself being lifted into something very warm and soft, and then being carried out of the window into the crisp night air. At first she did not know whether to cry for help or keep still, but she soon decided to do the latter, as she was very curious.

Looking around she found herself in a huge boat seemingly made of clouds, sitting beside a small cloud man. They passed many stars, and even the moon, on their journey, which seemed to be drawing them to a very large cloud, which she had noticed that afternoon. She began to get rather curious as to where they were going and if they were going to stop at the large cloud, so looking over at her companion she asked.

A low rumbling sound seemed to come out of her companion and then he said: "You have wanted to visit Cloudland. So the queen told me to bring you here. The large cloud you asked me about is where we are going to get off."

After riding a few minutes in which she found that her companion's name was Sir Dumpy, they stopped at the large cloud and the boat seemed to drift apart and Barbara found that she and Sir Dumpy were standing before a beautiful castle of rose, gold and lavender colored clouds. Sir Dumpy led her up the stairs into a beautiful chamber at the end of which sat the queen.

Barbara went up and bowed as Sir Dumpy did, and the queen came down and took her arm and brought her into a beautiful little room in which everything was made of cloud. She told her to put on the dress on the end of the bed and that she would take her to see the country. Barbara slipped on the dress which was made of a thin rose-colored cloud. She and the queen then got in a boat like the one she had come in and then went sailing around the city. The cloud people came running out and stared open-mouthed at Barbara, who in turn stared at them. Everything in Cloudland was made of clouds from the people to the flowers. After sailing around for a while they stopped and had something to eat, which tasted like ice cream but was supposed to be soup. The queen then took from her head a small star which shone more brightly than a diamond and gave it to Barbara. Barbara then went home, after thanking the queen, with Sir Dumpy as a companion.

Barbara still has the cloud and declares that the story is true, so it is up to you to find out.

BEHIND THE TIMES.

She: I tell yuh there's nothing like the old-time remedies t' cure anybody's ills.

He: Yea! They're all right for some troubles, but I tell yuh they ain't no good for these up-to-date diseases.

HE WAS WISE.

He: Darling, I wouldn't swap you for any ten other wives.

She: Oh, George.

He: No, sir! Living's too high these times

MONDAY, OCTOBER 31.

This is the last day in October. It is All Hallowe'en. It is the day before the rent is due. It is a terrible spooky and suggestive day. Way back in 1687 Connecticut's charter was hidden in an oak, and in 1766 the Sons of Liberty were organized. Nevada was admitted to the Union in 1864.

THE SPIRIT OF THE TIMES

The curfew that tolls o'er the lee
And the street, in this land of the free,
Sending poets and grouches
To twin beds and couches,
Means nothing whatever to me.

The law and its minions were made
For life that was cool in the shade,
For hammock-bound girlies,
All hoop-skirt and curlies,
For fellers who quaff lemonade.

The curfew that speeds parting day,
Is all very well in its way;
But I'll be found sinning—
My day is beginning
When farmers and herds hit the hay.

ARCHIE.

'TIS RECORDED.

Sir:

In case you wish to be the first to record the fact, today is the second birthday of one of our most prominent citizens, one who may sometime be president—in case he picks the right party. I refer to

SINN FEIN JUNIOR.

FOR THE INTELLIGENSIA

Taking the tip from Archie, whose astute communication of a day ago dealt short shrift with the long hairs who have opened a special department for the intelligensia. Penned in most hopelessly by thick glasses and their egoism their isolation has prevented a general appreciation. We are of the belief that the conscious high-brow, the parlor philosopher, the new this or that, should be given his due. There is no one any funnier.

For their benefit today we print a little confession of a gentleman whose specialty is writing exceptionally well and slipping down through the narrows to the open sea. "When I walk through Greenwich Village," he confides, "and become the amused victim of some member of the very advanced intelligentsia, fitted with tortoise-shell glasses, a muffled exhaust and a fixed contempt for everything American, I say to myself, 'There, but for the grace of God, go I.'"

And speaking of this man McFee, Bill Bones and other back-porch navigators are to be reminded that the latest McFee book, "Harbours of Memory," is off the press. It is McFee in the ports of the world sampling the ports and sherries of the same.

FAREWELL TO MRS. HARRIS

Alas! Mrs. Harris is going
To the land where the Hula grass shimmies suggestively
'Neath the summer sunshine,
And the ukulele tree groans
Discordantly under the
Heavy perfume of the trade winds.
Many toilsome hours did Mrs. Harris
Spend in trying to amuse us—
And she succeeded—
Even with me—
In spite of my gloomy disposition.

ENFORCING THE LAW.

The nation-wide satisfaction felt over the passing of the danger of a general strike of the operative employees of the railroads reached every class and condition of the people. Railroad workers are probably more pleased than any one else, for they realized more keenly and accurately than any one else the probable results of a general tie-up of rail transportation facilities. Loss of earnings was a consideration no more seriously debated than the results of a general strike upon the moral and effective working character of their several organizations.

Aside from the avoidance of the immediate harmful results of the suspension of rail traffic, the outstanding feature of the proceedings in Chicago last week was the success of the federal railroad labor board in its efforts to prevent a strike until the procedure prescribed in the federal railroad law has been complied with. This is the first real achievement under the law which, by giving it representation on the labor board, gives the general public a chance to raise its voice for the peaceful adjustment of labor difficulties which threaten the general public interest.

It is the intent of the law that before a strike may be declared, other steps shall be taken; (1) an effort to adjust differences made directly between the workers and rail operators; (2) if this effort fails to refer the issue to the labor board for hearing and decision, and (3) if the board's award is rejected formal notice of rejection shall be given. It is not incumbent upon either side to the dispute to accept the verdict of the labor board, but it is mandatory that the dispute take this course through the labor board before a strike can be lawful.

This provision of the law is not designed arbitrarily to stop or defeat the aims of either workers or operators to support their plans for a change by strike or lock out. But it is designed to prevent such destructive methods until a reasonable effort at mediation and compromise is possible. Both operators and organized workers are charged with offending the spirit and letter of this provision. In the cause of the operators, the Pennsylvania system is alleged to have defied the orders of the labor board. The Brotherhood chiefs were charged with claiming to call a strike against the labor board's decree of a twelve percent decrease in wages, effective July 1, when actually they were trying to intimidate against a further decrease reported to be under consideration.

The labor board maintains that these acts charged against both sides are unlawful and cannot be tolerated. In its order of Saturday, commenting upon the events preceding the decision to call off the strike, the labor board has made its position perfectly clear in this wise:

"First, when any changes of wages, contracts or rules previously in effect are contemplated or proposed by either party, conferences must be had as directed by the transportation act and by the rules or decisions of procedure promulgated by the board, and where agreements are not reached the dispute must be brought before this board, and no action taken or change made until authorized by the board.

"Second, the ordering or authorizing of a strike against decision No. 147 (the July 1 wage cut) of this board is a violation of that decision. The board desires to point out such overt acts by either party tending to and threatening an interruption of the transportation lines, the peaceful and uninterrupted operation of which are so absolutely necessary to the peace, prosperity and safety of the entire people, are in themselves, even when they do not culminate in a stoppage of traffic, a cause and source of great injury and damage."

It appears that the chiefs of the railway unions have by their action recognized the authority of the federal labor board to administer the law and that they are ready, if not willing, to abide by the law as the board interprets it. It is equally important to the integrity of the law that the railroad operators also be held to strict compliance with it. Without impartiality and the square deal which the law purposes to give attempts to uphold the law will be futile. It cannot be applied strictly to one side while the other side is permitted to disregard it with impugnity.

The public will be just as impatient with railroad operators who attempt to escape the law's requirements in acts that injure the public interest as it will be with such acts on the part of the workers. Public sentiment will not be with the side that disregards the public and the law.

BUILDING PROGRESS.

During the week ended October 26, there were issued in Oakland permits for the construction or alteration of 154 buildings, forty-eight of which are to be dwelling places and forty-four of which are to be homes. The total cost of the building covered by last week's permits will be about $400,000.

This is a rate of construction which if maintained for a year would amount to over $20,000,000. Last year about $40,000,000 was spent on new buildings in Los Angeles. On the basis of population, Oakland's program as reflected in last week's building permits is of larger dimensions than that carried out in Los Angeles last year. It is the best sign yet that the depression in the building industry caused by labor troubles and the high cost of materials is passing and that the Eastbay cities are getting their stride again in the building of homes and business structures.

Among the other encouraging developments last week was the decision among the building supply and material industries to reduce the prices of material necessary in new structures. A considerable reduction is now in effect for cement, lime, brick, tile, lumber, etc. Prevailing prices are about fifty percent higher than 1914, but about the same as at the entry of the United States in the war in 1917.

There may be further recessions but they will be small and cover a period. That builders are mindful of this is shown by the energy displayed in new construction.

COMMUNISM FAILS AGAIN.

Governor Lynn J. Frazier and his Non Partisan League administration of North Dakota have been removed from office by recall. This is the first recall election against a governor in this country and the causes which led up to it provide an interesting chapter in the political history of the country.

Adventures in Socialistic and other radical ideas of State ownership, State banking and State financing of private businesses and industries, resulted in the downfall of the Non-Partisan Leaguers. North Dakota is now bankrupt in government. Its bonds cannot find a market because of the questionable security, as well as the integrity of the government, that was behind them. Municipal and county funds which the State administration required to be deposited in the State bank have been dissipated and "frozen" in long time loans to organizations of farmers and small merchants. The result is that many of the most vital functions of government have stopped.

Communism on a polite plan had the same result in North Dakota as violent and angered Communism had in Russia—failure to answer the demands upon government and the breakdown of government when sound principles of business and finance were ignored. The people of North Dakota, being intelligent and having yet the control of the government by the ballot, have applied a corrective.

Unless the police organizations of cities are able to give more effectual protection against murderous thugs and highwaymen the public will eventually demand a reason. It is up to the police authorities to coordinate their work, to organize to suppress crime and bring the criminals to punishment. There must be more fulsome interchange of information, quickly transmitted, and more intelligent cooperation between city police, county sheriffs and federal authorities. The police of every city must make it a point to know accurately what a known criminal is doing while in the city and where he goes when he leaves. If present police systems are not capable of as effective an organization as the criminals maintain, they must be changed.

HARDING TO HIRAM JOHNSON.

In the course of debate on the German treaty Hiram Johnson declared on Tuesday that but for the restraining hand of President Harding we should have been drawn into the "maelstrom" of European politics through the machinations of Secretary Hughes. At Yorktown yesterday the President informed Senator Johnson, without mentioning names, that if such a vile conspiracy is under way Mr Harding himself is badly mixed up in it:

Reflecting today on the inevitableness of our participation, on our ties of kinship, friendship and fellowship, and appraising anew the way the world must share the aspirations to realize the noblest ideas for mankind, there is a fresh hungering for understanding, a new call for cooperation, a clear conviction of purposes and devotions and loyalties not limited to sovereignties nor national boundaries.

This is a forcible statement of faith which awaits translation into works. Hiram Johnson welcomed the separate treaty with Germany on the ground that it writes Finis to American cooperation in Europe. The President's words make it plain that he views the treaty as clearing the way for cooperation. Any definite step in that direction will bring Mr. Harding aid from outside his party. This was shown by the Democratic votes cast for ratification. Against the hostility of the irreconcilables it is within the President's power to rally the support of a great majority of the American people.—New York Evening Post.

NOTES and COMMENT

Editor Mackinder of the St. Helena Star is home. "A little more than six weeks ago I stood on one of the ferry boats crossing San Francisco bay on the first lap of a vacation trip. It was a warm, beautiful evening and I was fanned by a gentle breeze as it was wafted from the Pacific ocean through the Golden Gate. Three weeks later, standing in the shadow of the Statue of Liberty in New York harbor, I gazed out through the Narrows and a brisk wind from a tempestuous sea, tempered the midday sun. Last Saturday I again crossed San Francisco bay and through the morning sun glistening upon the placid waters there shone what seemed to be a welcome to familiar scenes. Then a few hours later I journeyed up beautiful Napa valley, where the falling leaves from the fruit trees and the crimson tints of the grape vines told of a completed harvest. And then, home! Oh, boy! ain't it a grand and glorious feeling?"

This news, which reads queer in this immediate region, is from the Reno Journal. Airangements have been completed for the opening of the Truckee winter sports early in November. W B Gelatt has taken a lease on the Henry ice ponds, and they will be filled with water tomorrow in readiness for the cold weather. Heretofore the winter sports have opened on January 1. Truckee now claims the only natural ice-skating rink in California, and will be ready for the skaters long before the snow flies, when the ice will be like a sheet of glass."

The San Leandro Reporter contributes to the bridge literature: "San Leandro is vitally interested in the movement started by the Hayward Chamber of Commerce of a bay bridge at Mulford's Landing, to terminate at the San Mateo and San Francisco county lines, with a main span of 2000 feet across the deep channel and a 140-foot bascule draw. This seems the most feasible and less costly of all plans submitted so far. The cost is estimated to be $4,750,000, and will only take a year for construction."

This from the Visalia Times has something of the appearance of press agenting for free eats. HALLOWE'EN

THE TRANSVAAL OF PERU

"While tear gas, bombing planes and long range guns now commonly figure in European war news, one outbreak finds its way into newspapers which probably is marked by poisoned arrows, maces known as 'head breakers,' and a form of 'wireless telegraphy' which antedates civilized aerial communication if natives are taking part in it," says a bulletin of the National Geographic Society's Washington, D. C., headquarters concerning the reported revolution in Northern Peru.

The revolt referred to is that at Yurimaguas, Peru, a town lying southeast of Iquitos, Peru's great inland port.

"Yurimaguas lies in the Transvaal of South America — a Transvaal which awaits a Cecil Rhodes or a Daniel Boone to be its pioneer," the bulletin continues. "Spaniards found gold in the fastnesses of the Montana, as this region is called, but modern commercial prospectors are more interested in the 'black gold,' meaning the rubber, which abounds in its forests.

"The Maranon, as the Peruvians call the Upper Amazon, pierces the Montana region, and its tributaries form a vast network of natural waterways which already are beginning to bear treasure laden carriers. Yurimaguas lies south of the Maranon, along one of this river's most important Peruvian tributaries, the Huallaga. Remote Yurimaguas is 500 miles from Iquitos, whence cargoes are transferred to ocean steamers which must crawl across a continent for a distance equalling that from New York to North Dakota before reaching salt water. To the west the Andean peaks bar the waterway to the Pacific, but surveys have been made for a trans-Andean railroad which will gird Lorenzo, where the Hualluga empties into the Maranon, to Paita, the Pacific port of Northern Peru.

"Growing appreciation of this land of commercial promise is indicated on the National Geographic Society's new map of South America, wherein a vast territory, larger than our state of Maine, and bounded by the Maranon on the south, Ecuador on the west, and Colombia to the north, now is claimed, in parts, by all three powers. Iquitos, where the revolutionary activities began in early summer, is held by Peru, but lies on the side of the Maranon, where Ecuador's claims extend.

"Reference frequently is made to this region as the 'Land of the Incas.' The designation would be more nearly correct were it called an 'outlying land of the Incas,' for the surprising civilization of pre-Pizzaro days had its center some 600 miles farther south, at Cuzco, near which the Pompeii of the western world, Machu Picchu, was unearthed by a National Geographic Society expedition.

"Long it was a question whether the people who built white granite mansions, temples and staircase farms along the canyons of the Urubamba, and probably gave to the world the humble potato, a far greater gift than the gold which the Spaniards sought—whether those people with a Roman love of urban refinements, penetrated the plateau wilderness in the region of the Maranon and the Huallaga.

"Here geographic explorers were the vanguard of fortune seekers, for the expeditions to northern Peru brought back not only report of tribes which had recognized Inca rule at Cuzco, but fuller accounts of the rich timber treasures awaiting development. Tribes now inhabiting the Montana are thought to be descended from those which massacred early Spanish adventurers and thus discouraged further penetration into the Andean foothills, the grass covered plains and the impenetrable forests which constitute the terrain of this territory.

"The murderous Chunchos, terror of Montana travelers, are only one of many tribes to be found there and the human geographer already has found a treasure store of his own in the primitive customs of peoples who live as they did long before Columbus set foot on American soil. These tribes cover an octave of civilization ranging from the Inje injes, who have but two words in their spoken language, to several which have the ingenious 'wireless telegraphy' device referred to above.

"In each dwelling among these tribes there is a hollowed out tree trunk, with holes of various sizes and at varying distances from each other. Hence the residents had an instrument with a scale of five notes which, however, was not used to produce music, but to signal their messages in code from house to house. In view of the high and complex civilization found at Machu Picchu it is not so surprising to learn that savages devised a way to gossip, and perhaps to trade, before white men began to use the telephone. When these instruments were placed in the open long distance signals could be exchanged, and an important use was to rally the tribal warriors when attack threatened. One observer tells about a friendly conversation carried on across the Maranon, at that point nearly a third of a mile wide."

MR. HARDING "UNDERSOLD" HIMSELF.

To a man who has bought a horse, or to one who has hired a helper, as well as to a country that has picked a President, it is an agreeable feeling to discover that it has got all it hoped to get, and then some. That is what has happened in Mr. Harding's case. As a business man expressed it the other day, Mr Harding in his campaign "undersold" himself. He led the public to expect only 50 per cent of what it was easily in him to deliver. He practiced the desirable device of understatement in the prospectus—a device which leads to as happy results in politics as in business.—Mark Sullivan in the World's Work for November.

JUST FOLKS: By EDGAR A. GUEST

THE BOY AND HIS DOG.

A boy and his dog make a glorious pair,
No better friendship is found anywhere.
For they talk and they walk and they run and they play,
And they have their secrets for many a day,
And that boy has a comrade who thinks and who feels,
Who walks down the road with a dog at his heels.

He may go where he will and his dog will be there,
May revel in mud and his dog will not care,
Faithful he'll stay for the slightest command
And bark with delight at the touch of his hand;
Oh, he owns a treasure which nobody steals
Who walks down the road with a dog at his heels.

No other can lure him away from his side,
He's proof against riches and station and pride;
Fine dress does not charm him and flattery's breath
Is lost on the dog, for he's faithful to death:
He sees the great soul which the body conceals,
Oh, it great to be young with a dog at your heels!

About YOUR HEALTH

What Dr. Copeland Says Will End the Opium Peril

By ROYAL S. COPELAND, M. D., Commissioner of Health, New York City.

If I owned a newspaper, it seems to me I should run an editorial every day on the evil of narcotic drugs and the terrible effects of drug addiction.

Hardly a day passes but a despatch from some city in some part of the world tells of the growth of this deadly habit.

The importation of opium into this country is about three-quarters of a million pounds annually. This means that for every man, woman and child in America there is imported more than forty grains of this dangerous drug. No other civilized country imports more than three grains per capita. We are using a dozen times as much opium as are the citizens of any other land.

"We have laws designed to control the distribution and use of habit-forming drugs," you naturally say, "Why do they not curb the evil?"

These laws do not work because the opium business is an international affair. It cannot be controlled by one country acting alone. There was a conference and agreement, known as "The Hague Convention," intended to regulate the opium evil. That has failed for many reasons. But by a very simple procedure the United States and Canada could end the whole devilish traffic so far as they are concerned.

Here is a plan which would surely succeed:

Let each country determine the amount of opium needed for the legitimate uses of the medical profession. This would be an arbitrary estimate, of course, and the amount might not be hit upon accurately at first. However, that is unimportant, because, if necessary, the figures could be changed from time to time.

Off-hand, I should say the United States should import not to exceed seventy thousand pounds, and Canada eight or ten thousand pounds of opium.

Let each country have its quota of opium made into morphine and such other opium derivations as are of recognized medical valve. This should be done under governmental oversight.

Let opium and its derivations be sold only in recognized establishments, as liquor is dispensed by legitimate druggists in the United States, and as it is sold by government agencies in the Province of Quebec. This would make available to the medical profession such amounts of opium as are essential to the honest practice of medicine. Some simple regulations should be made to ensure the good faith of all concerned.

Having provided for their own sick, let the United States and Canada absolutely prohibit the exportation of opium, morphine and all others of its derivatives.

This would end the smuggling into the United States of large quantities of narcotics now shipped from the United States to Canada and other countries, but secretly brought back into the United States. Such smuggled drugs, in large quantities, are now sold clandestinely on the streets of New York and other cities. Large amounts of American morphine are used in Canadian cities.

Until the importation and manufacture of these terrible poisons are regulated, and until exportation is prohibited, the evil will go its wicked way, destroying thousands of young men and women, boys and girls, helpless victims of the most deadly of all the vices of modern times.

Doctors may wrangle about the best method of treating drug addiction, police departments may work overtime ferreting out offenders against the laws, the courts may be clogged with drug cases, and the jails may be crowded with the pitiful victims of the traffic, but nothing will avail until the clandestine sale of opium and morphine is stopped. When the stuff cannot be had, drug addiction is wiped out as a matter of course.

Let us end the whole miserable business, as I believe can be done, by this simple enactment of law. At one stroke the Congress of the United States and the Parliament of the Dominion of Canada can end the opium evil on the American continent.

Here, People, Is a Chance to Sharpen Your Wits; Name This Picture and Win a Prize

Able to write titles? Easy as rolling off a log. The office boy can do it—sometimes. It's all a matter of inspiration. Down in Hollywood they are paying big prices to men and women who do nothing but write titles for picture scenes.

Try it out on this picture. For the best title, the one most apt, the cleverest or most fitting, The OAKLAND TRIBUNE will pay $10 each week. This is the first one. The rules are simple, as follows:

The titles must be written on a postcard and addressed to Title Editor, OAKLAND TRIBUNE.

The titles must not exceed twelve words in length.

They must reach The OAKLAND TRIBUNE by Thursday night following the Monday the picture is published.

One person may send in as many titles as he wishes, but only two on one postcard.

Winners will be announced each Sunday. Sharpen your pencil and go to it!

RANCHER HURT IN WRECK, READS DEATH ACCOUNT

STOCKTON, Oct. 31. — Joseph Steiner, prominent Newman rancher who had his obituary read to him as he lay on a cot in a Newman hospital, suffering from injuries sustained in an auto accident, laughed and said it was not true. A Stevenson colony correspondent for a Merced paper heard Steiner had been killed in an accident and sent his paper a long account of his life.

Steiner, badly injured, will fully recover. He fears his brothers in San Diego and San Francisco may read of his death and come to attend the funeral.

Amador Rancher Slain While on Hunting Trip

STOCKTON, Oct. 31.—A. B. Johnson was instantly killed at Willow Springs, Amador county, when a shotgun in the hands of Frank Littlefield, a neighbor, accidently discharged, the charge striking him in the head.

Littlefield was attempting to extract the shell when the gun went off. A coroner's jury has exonerated Littlefield. The body has been sent to Sterling City for burial.

PARK, PLAYGROUND DIRECTORS MEET

Park and playground matters of every sort were discussed this noon at a luncheon by the joint boards of playground and park directors at the Lake Merritt boathouse, where questions partially under the jurisdiction of both boards were solved and matters of policy agreed upon.

As the result of this meeting the city council will be asked to enter into a lease with Edson Adams for a 50-foot strip adjacent to Adams park, at a monthly rental of $10. This property will be used as an addition to the animal and wild game grounds.

Bids for concrete work on Cleveland way will be advertised.

Beginning November 1, and until March 31, the hours of labor in the park department will be 8 to 12 a. m. and 12:30 to 4:30 p. m.

Bids will be advertised for the resurfacing of the Lakeside Park tennis courts.

The work of planting and trimming trees along the Foothill boulevard will be paid for out of a special fund.

Because of today's joint meeting, the regular alternate Tuesday meeting of the park directors will be dispensed with.

LODGE TO ENTERTAIN.

RICHMOND, Oct. 31.—Following the regular business session of maple Camp, Royal Neighbors of America, this evening the lodge will entertain with a Hallowe'en party. The business session will be cut short in order to leave plenty of time for merrymaking. Mrs. Mary Raisin heads the committee in charge of the social affairs of the evening.

EPICUREAN JOYS OF DRY SLEUTHS BARED IN COURT

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 31.—The pecuniary as well as epicurean joys attached to the dry squad were gone into in detail before Federal Judge M. T. Dooling today during the trial of Albert C. Morrison, manager, and others connected with the raid on Techau Tavern.

Miss Daisy Simpson, a dry squad member, on cross examination, explained that she received $1600 salary, $240 bonus and $5 a day subsistence when working outside of San Francisco. She explained that on the occasion of her presence at Techau's when, at her signal the place was raided, she and A. S. Rinckel, a deputy enforcement officer, were at dinner. They had, among other things, squabs, artichokes and green peas and their total bill for supper was $15.

Workman Near Death As Result of Fall

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 31.—Otto Dane, a structural iron worker, 40 years old, will probably die as the result of a fall from the third story of the Junior Orpheum building, Golden Gate avenue and Market street, today. He struck on his head, suffering a fracture of the skull and internal injuries. He was treated at the Central Emergency hospital. Dane is married and has five children.

SCHOOL BOND ISSUE SOLD AT PREMIUM

Castro Valley Securities Are Bought by San Francisco Firm; Contract Let for Repairing Bay Island Bridge

Bonds for the Castro Valley school district, totaling $37,000, were sold to Cyrus Peirce & Co. of San Francisco, over nine other bidders today by the board of supervisors. Trustees of the school district will call for bids for the construction of the new school house immediately.

A premium of $2038 was offered by the San Francisco firm. The bonds will draw 6 per cent.

The Bank of Italy submitted the highest bid, but it was rejected because the bid was accompanied by a stipulation that private attorneys must pass on the legality of the bond issue. The bid of Cyrus Peirce & Co. was unconditional.

In accepting the offer of the latter, the board followed an established policy of considering unconditional bids only.

CONTRACT AWARDED.

The Tibbitts-Pacific company was awarded the contract for driving the piling and repairing the Bay Farm Island bridge. The cost of the work will be $3032. It should be completed within from sixty to ninety days.

The contract for the sinking of a well and digging a water gallery at the county hospital was let to the Linscott Drilling company at a cost of $10,282. A fifty-foot well will be dug and a tunnel extended into the side of the hills back of the hospital to a distance of from 200 to 500 feet. This manner of well drilling was decided on following a conference with Professor Andrew Lawson, head of the geology department of the University of California, who expressed the opinion that a fault line back of the hospital would provide a supply of water.

Supervisor Thomas E. Knox of Livermore was officially welcomed as the successor of the late D. J. Murphy by Chairman W. J. Hamilton.

OFFICIALS INVITED.

On request of Dr. R. G. Brodrick, director of hospitals, an invitation was extended to the Kern county board of supervisors to visit the hospitals of Alameda county. The Bakersfield delegation, numbering ten public officials and social workers, will spend three days, from November 9 to 12, in Oakland going over the work of the institutions commission with the view of establishing a similar organization in Kern county.

Supervisor Knox was appointed chairman of the hospital and infirmary committee and a member of the road and finance and the building and estuary bridges committees. He was authorized to install a new street light in Livermore avenue, Murray township and two lights at Niles.

Supervisor Charles Heyer was authorized to install five street lights on roads in Eden township.

The hearing on the protest of assessments in the Bay Farm Island reclamation project was postponed to November 7.

The board accepted deeds to road property on the Centerville-Newark highway offered by Frank Clark Jr., his wife, Phoebe Clark, and Maria da Gloria.

Supervisor Charles Heyer was granted a 40-day leave of absence. He is to visit Honolulu.

The board rescinded a resolution granting an increase from $12.50 to $15 to indigent blind. Under the resolution now prevailing, the indigent blind will receive not more than $12.50 per month.

Dr. Nestor M. Lonn was appointed to serve as dentist at the Berkeley dispensary at a salary of $80 per month, effective November 1.

Canadian farmers were required to answer 220 questions in the 1921 census.

UNION HEAD URGES HELP FOR LEGION

Edgar S. Hurley Asks State to Lend Greater Co-operation to Service Men in Plan for Armistice Day Exercises

That the American people do not fully understand the significance of Armistice Day and should lend a greater support to the movement to place it in the rank with any of our other national holidays, was the declaration of Edgar S. Hurley, president of the Central Labor Council of Alameda county, who spoke today before the members of the Oakland Post No. 5, American Legion, at the Iroquois Cafe.

Hurley declared that the American Legion should not have to solicit co-operation in staging an Armistice Day observance. He said in part:

"Instead of the legion soliciting co-operation the various organizations should solicit the co-operation of the legion."

Hurley paid high tribute to the legion men who are co-operating with organized labor in the Armistice Day program. He said the co-operation between the two organizations on an occasion of this kind would be a better understanding between the legion and organized labor.

"There never has been a misunderstanding between the two organizations as a whole," he said. "There has been much misunderstanding between individuals, however. We have a certain class of agitators who have crept into our organization and who make it their business to antagonize our members against the legion. That naturally causes misunderstanding. Those men should be sought out and disciplined."

Hurley said he had every reason to believe that the merchants of Oakland would see the wisdom of closing their stores on Armistice Day.

"I am told by our committee which is co-operating with the legion, that a number of the local merchants do not take kindly to the idea. They do not seem to realize the great importance of the day. We hope that they will understand its significance and help us make it the day in our history that it should be."

Drinkers Also to Be Taken in Raids

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 31.—The drinking of liquor in a public place will be made a reason for arrest as well as the transporting and selling of forbidden beverages, E. Forest Mitchell, federal prohibition director for California, announced today.

The drinkers will be charged with either the illegal possession or the transporting of the liquor, Mitchell said. Heretofore only proprietors and waiters in places selling liquor were included in prohibition arrests.

Negro Shot by White Man, Who Escapes

STOCKTON, Oct. 31.—"You're the man I'm looking for," an unidentified white man was heard to shout just before he shot Charles Harmon, a negro, in front of a pool hall at 111 West Market street last night. Many persons were on the street at the time and saw the negro's assailant escape into an alley. He was accompanied by another white man. Harmon was hit above the left eye and will die, according to physicians.

Hubby Flees; Gets Too Much Love at Home

Because she loved her husband too well, and too often demonstrated that affection, he deserted her, asserted Mrs. Mary Rickeord, who today received an interlocutory decree of divorce from R. V. Rickeord. They were married on April 20, 1918, in New York City, she told Superior Judge J. J. Trabucco, and he left her on September 9, 1918.

Mrs. Rickeord is a member of the Maitland players of San Francisco, and resides at 1231 Tamalpais road, Berkeley. She has been prominently identified with the artistic set in the university city since coming to California a year ago to join the Maitland players.

Rickeord who was an actor and aviator, "was not of the temperament to settle down and accept the responsibilities of married life," Mrs. Rickeord told Judge Trabucco, adding that he was imbued with an incurable wanderlust. This statement she followed with her declaration that she loved him so much and demonstrated her affection so frequently that he probably left her on that account.

Mrs. Rickeord, who is a daughter of George P. Morris, New York journalist, will resume her maiden name, Mary Morris. Her aunt, Mrs. Shirley Turner, 1329 Tamalpais road, Berkeley, appeared in court today to corroborate Mrs. Rickeord's testimony.

SCOUT SUCCUMBS AT CANYON CAMP

Rendered helpless, apparently by an attack of cramps, Milo Giorgani, 14, living with his parents at 1874 Fifteenth street, was drowned yesterday while swimming at the Boy Scout camp, Sheoak, in Dimond canyon.

The boy's body was removed from the water some time after the tragedy by George Thomas, a Boy Scout, and Scout Master C. A. Witherington. Battalion Chief Elliott Whitehead, of the fire department, was summoned and endeavored for two hours to revive the lad by the use of a pulmotor.

The body was brought to this city. An inquest will be held. Young Giorgani was a pupil at the Cole school.

Mrs. A. A. Moore and Dr. Musgrave Wed

Before only the immediate members of the family, the marriage of Mrs. A. A. Moore and Dr. William Everett Musgrave of San Francisco was solemnized today at the home of the bride in Seacliff, San Francisco.

For a year Mrs. Moore has been dividing her time between "Moorelands," her residence in Crocker Highlands, and the Palace hotel.

The bride is the daughter of the late Thomas H. Blythe, multi-millionaire. She is a member of a prominent Oakland family and among her relatives are Mrs. Donald McClure, Mrs. Walter Starr, Mrs. J. J. Valentine.

Dr. Musgrave is a San Francisco physician. He resided at the Fairmont hotel.

WELCOME TO FOCH PLEASES.

PARIS, Oct. 31.—The French press, except the Socialist and Communist newspapers, yesterday devotes much space to the reception in the United States of Marshal Foch, expressing great satisfaction over the warmth of the greetings accorded him in New York and Washington.

DAY BURGLAR RIFLES HOUSE OF BIG LOOT

Intruder Forces Way Through Window and Gets Jewelry, Cash; Grocery Is Held Up and Proprietor Is Robbed

BERKELEY, Oct. 31. — While dozens of Sunday autoists rode by, a daring daylight burglar gained entrance yesterday afternoon to the home of Albert J. Bach, 1331 Marin avenue, and escaped with jewelry and money valued at several hundred dollars.

The burglar ignored an open window nearby and broke the glass in another window facing the front porch to gain entrance to the Bach home. The burglary was discovered at 5 o'clock in the afternoon, when the Bachs returned after a short absence. Practically the entire house was ransacked, the rooms being left in disorder. Among the articles stolen were a diamond ring, value at $100; a woman's gold watch, value $40; a small savings bank and less than $10 in cash.

The Berkeley police are also searching today for an armed bandit who held up W. A. Nelson, proprietor of a grocery at 2701 Grant street, at his place of business shortly after 9 o'clock Saturday night.

According to Nelson, the man entered the store with his gun in his hand and ordered the proprietor ot hold up his hands. The bandit then searched Nelson, securing a gold watch from his person and $30 from the cash register. Before leaving, the bandit ordered Nelson to remain behind the counter. He then fled east on Derby street.

No trace has yet been found of the four armed men who held up D. E. Duggan, proprietor of a grocery at Third and Camelia streets, shortly before noon on Saturday. The men fled in an automobile minus a covering on the hood of the car.

The theft of a set of spark coils from his automobile was reported to the police by H. E. Brown, 2603 Fulton street, the machine being ransacked while standing on Ward street, near Ellsworth.

Engineer Not Ill; Is Merely Indisposed

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 31.—John Hays Hammond, famous mining engineer, who recently arrived here from the Orient, is not ill from ptomaine poisoning, as was erroneously reported. He is staying at the Fairmont hotel and it was stated there today that he was only slightly indisposed and would likely be up and around tomorrow.

A MODERN HERBALIST. RELIEVES 100 SUFFERERS IN TWO MONTHS.

Old men are feeble; old methods slow; modern improvements sweep all before them. Being scientifically compound, the FONG WAN HERBS bring quick results. In several instances persons who have taken herb treatment for many months where the old methods of compounding were used, without any apparent results, have finally gone to the FONG WAN SPECIALIST and found speedy relief.
The FONG WAN SPECIALIST returned from China two months ago with fresh herbs and latest methods. Though well versed in the old, he has not neglected the new. He is therefore capable of dealing with all sorts of ailments. During the two months since his return more than 100 sufferers have been relieved.

News of the Theaters

FULTON

At the Fulton Playhouse this week, "The Sign on the Door" is splendidly played.

The story is of a girl who gives her very life and liberty to shield her husband, who battles from every conceivable angle the attacks of a villainous acquaintance previously known and despised and later to turn up when she is happily situated in her own home and had forgotten he even existed.

Nana Bryant's handling of the Marjorie Rambeau role is a credit to her. Harold Tucker plays "Lafe Reagan" splendidly. Albert Van Antwerp gave a superb performance in the difficult role of the villian "Deveraux."

T. & D.

The magnetic Pola Negri in "One Arabian Night," and William Duncan in "Where Men Are Men," are the attractions on the double bill which opened at the T. and D. yesterday.

As in "Passion" and "Gypsy Blood," Miss Negri gives further proof of her powers.

Fred Fielding Forman gives special selections from the smart musical comedy, "Angel Face," some of the offerings include "Tip Your Hat To Hattie," "I Might Be Your Once In a While," "Call It a Day" and "How Do You Get That Way." The bill is an attractive one, and the T. and D. should be packed from door to door during the engagement.

AMERICAN

Betty Compson and Lon Chaney, noted successes in "The Miracle Man," are again joint stars in "For Those We Love," as headliners of the double bill at the American.

The story is a dramatic tale of love and regeneration, affording a startlingly accurate glimpse into the inner secrets of the under strata of a great city.

Of special note is the big orchestra score arranged by John Wharry Lewis for his orchestra, which adds much to the successful presentation of the big play. On the same bill is "A Heart to Let," featuring Justine Johnstone in a brilliant and interesting role, and "Topics of the Day."

PANTAGES

The miniature musical comedy, "Revue La Petite," was well received yesterday afternoon at Pantages theater, where Joe "Jazz" Williams offered his colorful number as a headliner. Another hit was Miss Walters of Walters and Walters, ventriloquists. The Powell Troupe thrilled with daring tight-wire stunts. Miss Mary Reilly pleased with her character songs.

Carlton and Belmont captured much applause with the line of funny talk. Paul Sydell Company proved to be a man and a dog—with the honors equally divided. The kiddies were delighted and the older folks marveled. A movie comedy finished the bill.

LOEW'S STATE

Mary Miles Minter's latest Realart production, "Her Winning Way," proved a well-blended arrangement of mirth and romance at Loew's State theater yesterday.

Stuart and Ray Lawrence, "the male Patti and the California baritone," have an artistic cycle of songs. Herman and Briscoe's act is replete with fun and snappy songs. Charles Emery's company, offering Hazelle Black and her cast of musicians, scores heavily. Kneeland and Powers, in "Tit for Tat," present themselves to good advantage. The Dancing Du Browns complete the show, with some new dances. Another enjoyable Paul Ash concert recital is a noteworthy feature of the program.

CENTURY

"Koo-Koo Birds" is one of the best gowned, most comical and highly entertaining musical revues that Will King has yet offered at the Century theater, formerly Ye Liberty, where the new series of revues is being presented with Nimble Jack Russell as the featured comedian.

Russell, as Adolph Heintz, has the support of a new acquisition to the company, Jules Mendel, well-known Pacific Coast character funster, who plays the role opposite him. Mendel's work scored highly yesterday.

An excellent supporting bill, comprising vaudeville acts and short motion picture subjects, most of them comedies, is offered in conjunction with "Koo-Koo Birds."

STRAND

What promises to be one of the most original novelties of the year will be presented at the Strand theater, Thirty-third and Telegraph avenue, tonight and tomorrow, in the form of a Hallowe'en party. The management has withheld from the public all knowledge of what they are to expect, but it promises a show with a "reel" punch, and entirely different from the ordinary motion-picture house program. Casualties, due to side-splitting laughter, will be taken care of by the doctors, nurses and stretcher teams that will be in attendance. Don't miss this treat of the year.

NEW FRANKLIN

Because George Arliss in "Disraeli" had been booked to follow next Saturday, the management of the New Franklin theater announced yesterday that it will be impossible to extend the engagement of Douglas Fairbanks in "The Three Musketeers" longer than the third and final week, which will end on Friday night.

The production has been sumptuously done, with a fortune in settings, costumes and a brilliant cast headed by Fairbanks.

On the program is a one-reel novelty, "The Mystery of the Leaping Fish," made in the early days of pictures by Douglas Fairbanks. It was his first and last attempt at slapstick comedy.

Theater Party Is Plan Tonight for Tribune Carriers

Ice Cream, Cakes Are Also Arranged for the Boys of District Two.

Carriers from District II of The TRIBUNE Carrier Boys' Association will make merry tonight at a Hallowe'en theater party which has been especially arranged for them at the Century theater. Through the courtesy of P. J. Ryan, manager of the Century theater, a block of seats has been set aside for the guests.

Only boys of District II who were winners in the recent carriers' contest will attend this theater party and special ice cream and cookie feed which the boys will attend at The TRIBUNE building before they go to the theater. The young women of the circulation department will assist in serving the ice cream and cookies and will attend the theater party with the boys and the district manager of The TRIBUNE.

The name of the play that the boys are going to see is "Koo-Koo Birds," a Will King comedy. Scenes of the story is laid around an insane asylum, where the most dangerous of the feeble minded are kept, and many comical and humorous situations arise.

Jack Russell, clever Dutch comedian, has a ready line of fun and chatter. He will be assisted by Hughes Mendal, Ruby Lang, prima donna; Jimmy Edwards, character man; Ethel Soule, the King trio, Jesse Mendelson and the usual large cast of chorus girls.

COLUMBIA

A complete change of program twice a week will be the rule at the Columbia theater, in Tenth street, beginning next Sunday.

A first run feature motion picture and a musical comedy with a beautifully gowned chorus will be given on each bill, a complete change being offered Sundays and Wednesdays.

Yesterday the new bill was "The First Born," featuring Sessue Hayakawa, and "Seaside Sirens," in which the Columbia's well-known chorus was the principal attraction.

"The First Born" is a Chinese story laid in California and China, with most of the actual photography in various parts of San Francisco.

BROADWAY

"The Mountain Woman," Pearl White's latest starring vehicle, and one of the most entertaining features shown at the New Broadway theater in months, concludes its presentation at that house tonight. Pearl White has the role of the "he-woman" or "gal in pants," and her portrayal is both convincing and sympathetic.

"The Mysterious Stranger," a comedy, and other attractions are on the same bill. Tomorrow will be William Farnum day. Farnum will be shown in two of his best pictures, "Riders of the Purple Sage" and "The Rainbow Trail."

CHIMES

The beautiful New Chimes theater, 5631 College avenue, will be opened to the public tomorrow, Tuesday, November 1, at 2 p. m. The performance will be continuous from 2 to 11 p. m., and the dedication exercises will be held at 8 p. m. The opening show will include Bebe Daniels, in "One Wild Week," and Buster Keaton, in "The Goat."

Lowell Redfield's famous California Quartet will render a musical program, while Miss Eva Grueninger Atkinson, mezzo-soprano, will sing.

ARCADIA

A Hallowe'en social dance will be given at the Arcadia dancing pavilion this evening, for which a flat admission charge will be made, dancing to be free all evening, with continuous music. It will be in the nature of a costume affair. Professor Perkins promises to give the terpsichorean fans all the dancing they want for one evening, as he will play at least fifteen dances an hour. The midweek feature at Arcadia on Thursday evening will be a one-step marathon, five times around the pavilion.

WOMEN CONDUCT SHOP.

Program for the Junior Red Cross Shop, in which Oakland Federation of Mothers Clubs have taken over a third interest as a means of financing child welfare work, will be presented before Fruitvale Parent Teacher Association by Mrs. F. V. Vollmer, first vice-president, tomorrow. The mothers will meet in the school assembly room at 2 p. m. All women in the neighborhood are invited.

RECONSTRUCTION OF RUSSIA, PLAN OF FINANCIERS

International Syndicate Will Exploit the Nation's Resources.

BY INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

LONDON, Oct. 31.—Tentative understandings have been reached between British, French, American and German financiers for the creation of a gigantic international syndicate for the exploitation of Russia's natural resources, it was learned by the International News Service today in an exclusive interview with Felix Deutsch, manager of Germany's greatest corporation—the German General Electric Company.

Deutsch came to London to confer with British financiers and has just completed a series of important meetings. The scheme for exploitation of Russia's vast natural wealth upon an international scale has been fostered for two years by Deutsch and Walter Rathenau, German industrial magnate and former minister of reconstruction in the German cabinet.

"Although the scheme is still in the idea stage, definite steps are expected within the next six weeks," said Deutsch today. Premier Lloyd George recognizes that reconstruction of Russia is necessary to the reconstruction of Europe. Although not all of the members of the British cabinet have supported the premier's Russian viewpoint, it is indicated now that Winston Churchill and other opponents are coming around to Lloyd George's attitude.

Deutsch had a long conference with Churchill, the secretary of state for colonies.

Asked whether France would participate in an international syndicate of which Germany was a member, Deutsch replied:

"M. Loucher (French minister for liberated regions) was sounded out on this subject and indicated that France is willing to co-operate."

Benicia Notes

BENICIA, Oct. 31.—A meeting will be held on Wednesday night in the Chamber of Commerce rooms of the Benicia chapter of the American Red Cross. The annual election of officers will take place and plans will be made for the coming drive for membership in the chapter. The funds for continuing the activities of the Red Cross nurse in Benicia come from the membership fund and a large attendance is hoped for.

Mrs. Thomas Wright was elected to the office of district deputy at the session of Grand Chapter of the Eastern Star, which convened last week in Santa Cruz. Mrs. Wright's district will include the cities of Vallejo, Napa, St. Helena, Calistoga, Sonoma and Benicia.

At the meeting of the Benicia Chamber of Commerce held on Thursday, Arthur Hargrave, a representative of the California Car Company of Oakland, addressed the assembly and presented to the board very strong arguments in favor of a plan to construct an interurban railroad line between Benicia and Vallejo, on which would be used the gasoline-propelled cars which his company is beginning to build. Hargrave stated that he had had much encouragement in Vallejo in connection with this project. The matter was discussed at length and referred to the committe on railroads, of which Dr. P. B. Fry is chairman.

Word has been received by C. M. Prince that John Silva, a former resident of Benicia, had the misfortune of having his leg broken in three places in Oakland last week.

Colonel E. P. O'Hern will be one of the speakers in a Chamber of Commerce campaign, to be conducted by the American Cities Bureau in Berkeley soon.

F. M. Kerrick and A. B. Sanders, the new secretary of the Benicia Chamber of Commerce, made a trip to Fairfield Thursday night to attend a meeting of the Fairfield Chamber of Commerce.

The Ladies' Social Circle of the Congregational church was entertained in charming fashion at the home of Mrs. W. L. Clark Thursday afternoon. The program, in charge of Mrs. C. Gyerrum, was so arranged as to have each member take part. Following the social time dainty refreshments were served.

The members of the Eastern Star and families and Masons and families enjoyed an unusual Hallowe'en party on Saturday night in Masonic hall. The Virginia reel dancers, prize waltz and broomstick waltz were among the features of the evening. Following the dance and games delightful and entirely unusual refreshments were served.

Vinyes Council, No. 16, Young Men's Institute, is making preparations to receive a visit from John I. Horsernan of Stockton, grand president of the Institute, on the evening of November 3, which will be an official visit.

Miss Helen Lund, who has been visiting at the home of Captain and Mrs. Fred I. Gilbert at the Benicia arsenal, left for her home in Oroville this week. Miss Lund and Mrs. Gilbert are sisters.

A Hallowe'en party was given in the auditorium of the Benicia High school on Friday evening, the host and hostesses being Helen O'Grady, Ardella Fish, Viola Peterson, George Ritchie and Raymond Rankin. The music was furnished by the High school boys' orchestra. Every one was en masque, everything partaking of the spirit of the occasion. Following the evening's fun the assembly enjoyed refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Wilson went to San Francisco on Friday to attend the funeral services of Mrs. Wilson's brother, Dr. T. B. Roche.

Mrs. E. Fredericks has returned to her home in Centralia, Ill., after several weeks' visit with friends and relatives in Benicia and Vallejo.

TWO MEN DROWN.

ST. HELENA, Ore., Oct. 31.—H. Scott, 24, manager for a telephone company here, and Hubert Long, 26, were drowned yesterday when they leaped overboard into the Columbia river near here from a gasoline propelled hunting skiff which became waterlogged. Roy Laws, a third member of the party, stayed in the boat and was rescued. The boat did not sink.

LATEST NEWS OF INDUSTRY, TRADE AND FINANCE

DEPRESSION IN TRADE IS OVER, VIEW OF DOLLAR

Veteran Steamship Man Tells of Conditions in Foreign Countries.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 31.—Following a trip abroad Captain Robert Dollar is home today. Talking along the line of trade conditions in the Orient and kindred subjects he said that the bottom has very nearly been reached, and that, in his opinion, conditions are not likely to become any worse. He said that all countries are overstocked but that there is beginning to be a shortage in certain commodities that promises well for the future from a commercial point of view, suggesting as it does, a demand.

"We in the United States," he said "have certain distressing obstacles to overcome. In Peking not long ago China called for bids for 240 cars. There were seven American bids. The lowest was $2,000,000. The British bid was $1,300,000. The Belgium bid was $1,100,000. This is distressing from our point of view, but I have unbounded confidence in the future and I know we shall pull out somehow.

"In Germany and Belgium they are producing so much that I think they have about overcome their troubles. France is buying and, of course, selling. Great Britain is having its troubles with a balance of trade against them. Japan tumbled deep in the depression and got more in the mire than any other nation, but it seems to be pulling out faster than the others."

Captain Dollar, who is 77 years old, has kept a diary for the past 56 years. On this trip he traveled 22,090 miles by water and 7950 by rail. In the past 30 years he has crossed the Pacific 21 times.

He expressed hope concerning the coming conference for the limitation of armaments but qualified his optimism on the subject to the extent of saying:

"Notice the crowd that is coming to Washington. Aren't they practically all military men? Do military men at heart desire disarmament?"

Investment Bankers Say Crisis Is Over

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 31.—American business has passed the crisis—few disturbing factors are seen on the horizon, and the nation is set for continued improvement in all lines.

This was agreed by bankers from all over the country, here for the annual convention of the Investment Bankers' Association of America. There will be no boom, say the bankers. Progress will be slow, but it will be assured.

An era of thrift is returning. People are saving money despite depressed conditions and are rapidly abandoning the speculative interest prevalent during the war.

Without exception, the bankers are optimistic over the outlook.

Bank Reserves Declare 3 Billions

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31. — Aggregate resources of the 30,815 banks in the country, amounting to $49,688,839,000 declined by $3,390,269,000 during the last fiscal year, according to a statement of bank reports for June 30, issued last night by the comptroller of the currency. The 8154 national banks reporting showed a reduction in resources of $2,883,391,000.

National Bank in Fremont, Neb., Closed

LINCOLN, Neb., Oct. 31.—The First National Bank of Fremont, Neb., was closed today, according to word received here. The bank's statement September 6 showed deposits of $855,000 and loans of $691,000.

Studebaker Company Declares Dividend

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Oct. 31. — The Studebaker Corporation today declared the regular quarterly dividend of 1¾ per cent on preferred stock and 1¾ per cent on common stock outstanding. The dividends are payable December 1st to stockholders of record November 10, 1921.

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, Oct. 31.—Expectance of a decrease in the U. S. visible supply total was a leading bullish factor in the wheat market today, but this influence was largely counter-balanced by selling on the part of houses with northwestern connections.

Opening prices varied from ¼c off to ¼c advance with December $1.08 to $1.08¼ and May $1.12½ to $1.13, followed by slight general gains, although a temporary sag intervened. Corn and oats were relatively easy, owing to lack of aggressive support. Corn opened unchanged 5c lower to ¼c high. May 53⅞@54c, and then declined all around to below Saturday's finish.

Oats started unchanged to ¼c higher, May 35c to 38⅛c, and later weakened like corn. Higher quotations on hogs gave [illegible] lift to provisions.

In later dealings the market fluctuated often, but within narrow limits. The close was easy, ¼@⅛c net lower, with December $1.07⅞@1.08, and May $1.12⅝@1.12½.

For the most part trade was of a local character. Prices closed easy at the same as Saturday's finish to ¼c lower, with May 53⅝@53¾c.

Closing quotations:

Wheat, December, $1.07¾; May, $1.12⅝.

Corn, Dec., 48c; May, 53⅝c.

Oats, Dec., 33⅛c.

Pork, Jan., $15.

Lard, Jan., $9; March, $9.22.

Ribs, Jan., $7.55; May, $7.92.

Corn, No. 2 mixed, 48@48¼c; No. 2 yellow, 48½@49c.

BUSINESS and FINANCE

FUTURE sailings of the American-Hawaiian Steamship Company whose Eastbay agency has been awarded to the Lawrence Warehouse Company, will be made from the Oakland terminal dock of the Lawrence company at the foot of Jefferson street, it was announced today. Negotiations for the steamship company's agency here were completed Saturday, and additional increases in service by the fleet, running in and out of Oakland, was promised by W. H. Pinkston, manager of the ocean freight service of the warehouse company.

Pinkston said today that five additional ships will be added to the American-Hawaiian fleet plying between Oakland and the Atlantic coast and European ports before the first of the year. At present there are thirteen freighters engaged in the freight service of the steamship line and the European Pacific line with which the company is affiliated under the United American lines. The company also controls the Hamburg-American line.

According to Pinkston, there will be 18 large freighters engaged in the local trade of the American-Hawaiian line by the first of the year. These vessels range in size from 8000 to 10,000 tons, sixteen of which are steamers and two of the new motor type of freighter. Regular sailing schedules of from three to four ships per month between Oakland and Atlantic coast ports will be maintained, Pinkston said.

Atlantic coast terminals of the American-Hawaiian lines are New York, Philadelphia, Boston and Charleston. European ports to which regular service will be maintained include London, Liverpool, Glasgow, Antwerp, Hamburg and Havre.

SCHWAB SHIP YARD PURCHASE IS DENIED.

A. S. Dunn, vice-president of the Bethlehem Steel Corporation, and acting manager of the Charles M. Schwab interests here, today denied that Schwab is buying the Los Angeles Shipbuilding and Drydock company's plant at San Pedro, Cal. He said that there is "absolutely nothing" to reports that the plant will be purchased and dismantled, its business being moved here.

"I don't know where the reports started, but they are untrue," Dunn said.

INDEPENDENT PACKERS SEEKING PRUNES.

Independent packers have been forced into the market for prunes, according to New York reports. These same reports give the amount of the fruit now in the hands of independents at less than 15,000,000. Latest estimates on the new California crop make it over 150,000,000, which is 10,000,000 pounds over last estimates. No price reductions have been hinted at.

SHORT LINE ROADS WANT NEW CARRIER CHARGE.

F. W. Gomph, acting as agent for the short line railroads of California, has applied to the Railroad Commission for an order to change the present rate for the transportation of empty carriers from 15 per cent of the rate, applying if new, to one-half of the fourth class rate. This is the charge allowed the interstate roads, and the present application is to put the state lines on equality.

WESTERN SENATORS FAVOR ALMOND TARIFF.

United States Senator Hiram W. Johnson has telegraphed T. C. Tucker, manager of the California Almond Growers' Exchange, that sixteen senators representing eight states west of the Rockies have pledged themselves to a five and fifteen cent tariff schedule on almonds. The support of the western men was pledged on motion of Senator Johnson.

This means, according to Tucker, that the senators signing the agreement will make the fight for a five and fifteen cent schedule both before the finance committee which has charge of the tariff bill and on the floor of the senate if necessary. "It means, too," said Tucker, "that the justness of our farmers' cause has bared itself to the minds of not only Senators Johnson and Shortridge but to the senators from other states where no almonds are grown. Our California almond farmers hope that every citizen of the state will support these representatives of the west in their fight to save a great California industry from extinction at the hands of the peasant almond growers of Southern Europe."

CHANGES IN OAKLAND SANTA FE OFFICIALS.

Several changes in the personnel of the local Santa Fe representatives will go into effect tomorrow morning. N. H. Asp, who has been division freight agent at Oakland for some time, will be transferred to Fresno as division freight and passenger agent.

W. J. Shattuck, who has been traveling freight agent, with headquarters at San Francisco, will succeed N. H. Asp at Oakland.

J. E. Dold, who has been traveling freight and passenger agent at Fresno, will succeed Shattuck at San Francisco.

To fill the vacancy at Fresno by the promotion of Dold it is stated that John Culbertson will be moved from his present position as traveling freight and passenger agent at San Jose.

COTTON MARKET

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—Stronger cables from Liverpool, coupled with rather active buying for southern mills and support from Wall Street interests, gave the cotton market a firm start today. First prices showed net gains of 17 to 30 points. Japanese interests and Liverpool also bought on the call, but the upturn attracted such heavy selling, particularly from spot concerns, that shortly after the start a severe reaction occurred, during which prices dropped about 20 points from initial levels.

GROUP OF OILS SLUMPS DURING MARKET SESSION

NEW YORK, Oct. 31. — The uneven course of early prices in the stock market today was indicated by Mexican Petroleum's loss of 1¾ points and Baldwin Locomotive's gain of 1½ points.

Oils, as a group, were lower, further selling of Pacific issues being noted. Rails, equipments, motors, chemicals, leathers and textiles strengthened fractionally to 1½ points.

Of the speculative steels, vanadium was heaviest, falling 1¼ points. Developments over the week-end seemed to offer little incentive to professional traders.

Threatened labor disturbances accounted for the weakness of the packing shares. Mexican Petroleum and the higher priced domestic oils continued to sag, but other oils and minor domestics were firm. Occasional dealings in rails were mainly at higher levels.

Selling became more general in the afternoon, notwithstanding a relapse in call money rates to 5 per cent. The score of the bears in depressing the Mexican oils encouraged them to go gunning for other weak spots.

Pierce-Arrow preferred was hammered down 4 points and Studebaker, United States Rubber, Marine preferred and Atlantic General 1 to 1½. Accumulation went on in a few shares subject to special influences, Haskell and Barker rising 1½ and Davison Chemical 3¾ points.

S. P. ANNOUNCES HORIZONTAL CUT ON HAY AND GRAIN

California Is Particularly Affected by Action of Road to Aid Agriculture.

The Southern P[illegible] company will undertake at once [illegible] horizontal reduction in its ra[illegible] grain and grain products and ha[illegible] carload quantities, moving locally between points in California, Oregon, Nevada, Arizona and New Mexico, between points in one state and points in another state, and on shipments to and from the east as far as the Mississippi river and Chicago. This announcement was made by [illegible] Luce, freight tariff [illegible] manager, today.

The Interstate Commerce Commission, in its decision [illegible] October 29, in what is known as [illegible] Western Grain Rates case, becau[illegible] involves the interstate rates [illegible] grain, grain products and hay, [illegible] interstate movement in the terr[illegible] lying west of the Mississippi and [illegible] authorized reductions in th[illegible] on grain, grain products and [illegible]

AFTER WAR P[illegible]N.

The proceeding[illegible] the Commission up[illegible] issues. The Commission, up[illegible] testimony introduced, found that this a[illegible] basic industry is in a state of financial prostration and this condition is an aftermath of the World War. It is also of interest to note that the Commission finds upon the voluminous and comprehensive record comprising the testimony of representative farmers, bankers and merchants, that the freight rate itself, while a direct and tangible circumstance adding to the depression of the farming interest generally, was nevertheless a minus factor in the culmination of the depression under which the farming industry is suffering alike with other industrial activities, including the railroads of this country.

RATE VOLUNTEERED.

"While the decision of the Commission is directed against the interstate rates only in the western territory, the Southern Pacific company will voluntarily carry the reduction into its state rates in the states which it serves so that the farming communities on its rails, shipping to points within their own states, may receive the benefit of the reductions which the farmers of other communities shipping in interstate commerce will enjoy."

PACIFIC FOOD PRICES AND WORLD'S COMMERCE

CRANBERRIES ARE ARISTOCRATS OF FRUIT MARKET

Initial Carload From Massachusetts New Record for Opening Quotation.

Included in the fruit arrivals this morning was a carload of Massachusetts cranberries, which went on the market at $21 to $22 per barrel. This is said to be the highest opening price of the fruit in many years in the local market and indicates that at least one portion of the Thanksgiving dinner will not show the inclination to join the downward price movement this year. The bay region consumes ordinarily about 60 carloads of cranberries each season, but the allotment this year is only 50 per cent. So the conditions all favor continuance of the high opening prices.

Dealers [illegible] that the quotations f. o. b. east are at $16 a half barrel and with the freight rate of $3.25 and brokerage added the [illegible] that the profit margin is close.

At [illegible] Southern Pacific this [illegible] included 12 cars of potatoes, [illegible] bananas, 7 apples, 1 cranberry.

The demand for potatoes continues firm and is expected to stay so all winter, that is as far as the better varieties are concerned.

A carload of Valencia oranges went on the street at $6 to $6.25, a slight decline from last week. The southern producers are working hard to clear up the last of the old crop before the coming of the Porterville and Lindsay product.

String beans took a trip in the elevator over Sunday, being quoted at 7 and 8 cents against 4 and 5 cents the end of the week. Limas also went to 11 cents against 6 and 8 Saturday morning. Short arrivals is accounted for the sudden spurt, and tomorrow it is expected that there will be a recession. The northern state crop is not by any means near depletion yet.

NEW YORK CITY CAR LINES CARRY BILLION A YEAR

Withal Congestion Is Increasing and Problem Grows Grave.

By HOLLAND.
Exclusive to TRIBUNE.

NEW YORK, Oct 31.—Russell Sage said after contemplating Broadway, upon which at that time there were no surface cars, that if the city would permit Broadway to be used for passenger surface car purposes then those who invested in a company which was organized for that purpose would find that they had opened a gold mine. Sage also said that the elevated railroads, in which he was personally interested, would in time carry several millions a year and would serve greatly to end the congestion which was tending to paralyze business in lower New York.

Sage was not a man of large imagination, in this respect differing from his associate, Jay Gould, who was a man of ideals, of imagination, and also of unusual executive ability. Gould thought that some day the surface railroads and the elevated in Manhattan might be found carrying as many as a billion passengers a year. There were no subways then.

BILLION YEARLY.

Gould was correct. The various elevated and subway lines now operating exclusively for passenger service are carrying in excess of a billion passengers a year, or nine times more than the population of the United States. Yet enormous as this number is, nevertheless it points to an increase in the demand for passenger service which must be met sooner or later by the construction of new rapid transit systems or else the congestion on lower New York will become unendurable.

Already the various subway lines on both the East and West sides are carrying every hour in the day so many passengers upon each train that there is no longer a difference in such service between the hours of 7 and 9 in the morning and 3 and 5 in the afternoon, in which heretofore passengers jammed the aisles, although trains ran at half-minute intervals. Passengers now crowd into the subway trains at all hours in the day.

DEFICIT IN FINANCES.

Notwithstanding the fact that these rapid transit systems carried in twelve months over a billion passengers, there was nevertheless a heavy deficit of nearly four and one-half million dollars. Governor Miller and experts who have investigated this situation are of the opinion that it may be possible so to improve or so completely change the method of operation as to justify the maintenance of the 5-cent fare. The executives who operate these lines, on the other hand, are saying that a further deficit can be prevented in no other way than by increasing the fare. This is an issue which is entering into the campaign for the election of mayor, although both the Fusion and the Democratic organizations claim that a 5-cent fare is sufficient to meet all expenses and to pay a reasonable return upon the investment.

IMPROVED STEEL TRADE REFLECTED IN CITY STORES

By H. B. LAUFMAN.
BY CONSOLIDATED PRESS.
Special to The TRIBUNE.

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 31.—The gradual movement of industrial conditions toward normal is reducing the number of unemployed in this district and as a direct consequence, retail trade is expanding. Believing that business was to be had, one large department store began this month with a strenuous newspaper advertising campaign, utilizing many pages of space. Every business day this month the sales of this store have exceeded those of the corresponding day a year ago. Merchants declare that it takes more effort to get business but that it is there if gone after.

The great Homestead works of the Carnegie Steel company have reached sixty per cent of normal production. New steel business is not of large volume but the cut in the prices of rails and other developments are looked upon as factors tending towards increased orders.

IRON AND STEEL.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Oct. 31.—Wire nails are quoted here at $2.90 a base keg, and plain wire at $2.60 a hundred. Sheet bars are nominally quoted at $31 but are said to be selling as low as $29. Plate appears firm at $1.75. The ruling base on tin plate is $5.25.

SHOES.

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 31.—There has been a decided improvement in the wholesale shoe business in this section and this has been reflected in the opening of new retail stores.

PRODUCE.

ALMA, Mich., Oct. 31.—The bean shipments from this district so far this year will exceed the shipments for a similar period of 1920 by nearly two thousand carloads.

JEWELRY.

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—While the holiday demand for jewelry stocks has not reached the volume of other years, it has been sufficient to enable manufacturers to recall some of the workmen who have been laid off for some time.

BATTLEBORO, Mass., Oct. 31.—Conditions are quiet in the jewelry trade. Manufacturers are operating at 50 to 70 per cent of capacity. Prices are declining and a drop of about 20 per cent in the cheaper grades of jewelry are expected.

ALONG THE WATERFRONT

Arrivals at this port during the past 24 hours were over 4,000,000 feet of lumber, 7000 railroad ties and 300 cedar poles, besides other general cargoes. The schooner Alert arrived from Apia after a good passage of 48 days, bringing 678 tons of copra to Atkins & Kroll. The power schooner Doris crane, which arrived at Oakland on October 24, has finished unloading her cargo of 319 tons of copra, and departed to the other side of the bay to load a general cargo for the South Sea Islands. The five-masted schooner Vigilant has unloaded her coal cargo and is on the drydock for cleaning and painting. She will leave here in a few days for Puget Sound to load lumber for Callao. The barkentine Mary Winkleman also finished her lumber cargo and will leave the Sunset Lumber dock for another cargo. The barge Charles Nelson came in from Eureka in tow of the steamer Saginaw with lumber and went to the Sunset dock to discharge. The steam schooners Trinidad and the Charles Christensen came here in ballast after unloading lumber at San Pedro, and both vessels went to the Bethlehem shipyard at Alameda for a general overhauling.

The wind along the coast has changed from the south to the north, and the sea had moderated in some localities, although the sky is cloudy. A wireless message from the steamer Victoria, en route to Nome on her last voyage of the season, states that she was hove to for twelve hours when 500 miles west of Cape Flattery, but is now proceeding on her journey, as the wind and sea has moderated. The steamer Spokane, enroute to Seattle from Southeastern Alaska, is storm bound at a port in Northern British Columbia waters. Although the barometer here has fallen considerable during the past twelve hours, no fear is felt for a blow, but fog or cloudy weather can be expected for the next 24 hours, with sunshine to follow.

Farmers along the coast of Southern California are beginning to ship in their products of the season. Yesterday the steamer Admiral Nicholson arrived from Port San Luis, bringing up 647 sacks of beans, 342 sacks of barley, 500 sacks of beet pulp and 163 sacks of potatoes, besides passengers. Later on apples and other products will be shipped, as considerable grain is raised in that locality.

The Columbia Shipping Company has chartered the schooner Wm. Taylor to load a cargo of cedar logs at Coos Bay to be delivered at a port in Japan. During the past few weeks several vessels had been chartered to carry lumber cargoes to Japan from the North Pacific. The cause of this is that the Japanese government has forbidden the cutting of timber in Japan for some years to come.

The steamer Admiral Rodman, which was afire at Seattle on Saturday last, was damaged to the extent of $20,000, according to the survey held by the marine underwriters. The fire started in her engine room.

The steamer Frederick Luckenbach was towed into Tampa bay badly damaged by a hurricane. The vessel and part of her cargo are badly damaged. She sailed from this port on September 22 for New Orleans, with a large cargo of general cargo. A survey will be held on her today.

The British steamer Empress of Russia reports sighting the Japanese steamer Fukui Maru, which was abandoned 1250 miles west of Cape Flattery. Her decks were awash and the hull is being kept afloat by the lumber cargo in her hold. The crew was taken off by the steamer West Ivan and is being taken back to Seattle.

The fine sunshine yesterday brought many visitors to the waterfront, and many yaching parties were out for a cruise around the bay. Several private excursions were out in the launches of the Oakland Launch & Tug company's fleet.

WEATHER FORECAST

Oakland and Vicinity—Tonight and Tuesday, fair; gentle westerly winds.
Balance of California—Tonight fair; Tuesday, fair and cooler; light westerly winds.
Nevada—Tonight, fair and warmer; Tuesday, cloudy.
Idaho—Tonight and Tuesday, probably rain.
Washington and Oregon—Tonight and Tuesday, rain; fresh to strong southwesterly gales.

CONDITIONS.

A small depression is moving eastward through British Columbia causing cloudy weather in the North Pacific states with rain near the coast. In other portions of the Pacific slope and in the Rocky Mountain region it is fair. The eastern storm is central in the South Atlantic states, and has given rain in the central Mississippi and Ohio valleys. Southwest storm warnings are displayed at Washington and Oregon stations for fresh to moderate gales north of Cape Blanco.

Conditions are favorable for rain in the northern portion of this district and fair weather in the southern. It will be cooler in California, Tuesday.

LEGAL NOTICES

NOTICE OF SALE OF STATE BUILDING BONDS.

WHEREAS, The Governor of the State of California did heretofore make and issue his certain proclamation, pursuant to the provisions of section ten of an act of the legislature of the State of California, entitled "An Act to provide for the issuance and sale of state bonds to be known as 'state building bonds,' to provide a fund for the erection and equipment of state buildings in the City of Sacramento for state purposes, creating a commission to determine the amount to be expended for furnishing and equipping said buildings and accepting a suitable site, creating a sinking and interest fund for the payment of interest on said bonds and the redemption of the same, making an appropriation therefor, making an appropriation of five thousand dollars for the expenses of printing and lithographing said bonds and providing for the submission of this act to a vote of the people," approved June 5, 1913, proclaiming that said act had received a majority of all the votes cast for and against it at the general election held throughout the state of California in the month of November, A. D. 1914; and

WHEREAS, a site suitable for the erection and construction of the buildings contemplated by the provisions of said act has heretofore been given or donated to the state free and clear of all liens and encumbrances and such site has been accepted in behalf of the state by the board created in section five therefor; and

WHEREAS, the bonds authorized to be issued by said act have been duly prepared in conformity to the provisions thereof and are ready to be sold; and

WHEREAS, the Governor of California did heretofore and on the tenth day of October, A. D. 1921, direct me as Treasurer of said state to offer for sale as provided by said act and to sell at public auction to the highest bidder for cash the bonds hereinafter described, in parcels of one or more, or as a whole;

NOW, THEREFORE, Notice is hereby given that the undersigned, F. W. Richardson, as treasurer of the state of California will on Thursday the seventeenth day of November, A. D. 1921, at the hour of two o'clock P. M. of that day, at the office of the treasurer of said state, in the State Capitol, at Sacramento, State of California, sell at public auction to the highest bidder for cash in parcels of one or more or as a whole, five thousand seven hundred and twenty of said bonds of the state of California, each bearing date the second day of July, A. D. 1917, and becoming payable on the second day of July, A. D. 1965, and being numbered consecutively from number 281 to number 6000, both numbers inclusive.

Each of said bonds shall bear interest at the rate of four per centum per annum from the date of issuance thereof, payable semi-annually on the second day of January and on the second day of July in each year after the sale of the same, both principal and interest being payable in gold coin of the United States of the present standard of value, at the office of the Treasurer of said state or, at the option of the holder, at the fiscal agency for the state of California in the city of New York, state of New York. The said bonds are of the par value of Five Hundred Dollars each.

The undersigned is required by said Act to reject any and all bids for said bonds, or for any of them, which are less than the par value of said bonds, plus the interest which has accrued thereon between the date of sale and the last preceding interest maturity date, and he may, by public announcement, at the place and time fixed for the sale, continue such sale, as to the whole of the bonds offered, or any part thereof offered, to such time and place as he may at the time of such continuance designate.

Dated, Sacramento, California, this 15th day of October, A. D. 1921.
F. W. RICHARDSON,
Treasurer of the State of California.

WORK STARTS ON CONSTRUCTION OF NEW WATERFRONT

Municipal Pile Driver Commences Repairs to Bay Shore Bulkhead.

The great task of rebuilding the western waterfront bulkhead line was started today. A municipal pile-driver crew began work driving piles along the bay shore line.

Simultaneously the street department opened a new road to the garbage dump, through the Union Construction Company's plant, and repairs to the old road began.

The pile driving is planned to repair the damage during the past several years, teredos having eaten away the old waterfront piling and the waves having sucked away thousands of cubic yards of filled land. The first job will be to drive the long and heavy "line piles," in front of which several hundred tons of rock fill will be placed. When the fill is completed and the piles are thus reinforced with rock the final sheet piling will be laid and then the municipal dredger will re-fill the waterfront lands which have crumbled away.

"It is a long and costly job," says Commissioner Carter of the public works department, "but our waterfront line must be rectified."

The old garbage dump road was made of timbers, which have splintered under the heavy wheels and repairs were decided upon before the rains set in. The new road, open after 4 p. m. today, will go through the plant of the Union Construction Company, which has given the city this privilege for the time.

Sunday Crap Games Swell City Treasury

BERKELEY, Oct. 31. — Sixty-five dollars was added to the city treasury this morning as a result of a Sunday crap game on the municipal wharf.

Alexander Szopieray, 2017 Eighth street, contributed the bulk of the funds by failing to show up in court. Judge Robert Edgar ordered his bail of $50 forfeited and issued a bench warrant for his arrest. James Hansen, 23 years old, 900 Hearst avenue, paid a fine of $10 while Jack Blaikie, 18, contributed $5 as his share of the fines imposed.

Patrolmen C. K. Thayer, W. F. Dean and C. P. Taylor conducted the raid.

Body of Young Man Is Found in Estuary

ALAMEDA, Oct. 31.—The body of a man was found floating in the estuary off the Southern Pacific car shops early this morning by Deputy Sheriff F. W. Paller. From the appearances of the body Deputy Coroner Smiley concluded that it had been in the water more than a week. There was practically no means of identification. The body was that of a young man. It was clothed in a brown suit, black shoes of good quality, a soft shirt, and the trousers were held on by means of a belt.

No More Gas in Stomach & Bowels

If you wish to be permanently relieved of gas in the stomach and bowels, take Baalmann's Gas-Tablets.

Baalmann's Gas-Tablets are prepared distinctly for stomach gas, and for all the bad effects coming from gas pressure.

That empty and gnawing feeling at pit of your stomach disappears, that anxious, nervous feeling with heart palpitation will vanish, and you will again be able to take a deep breath, often prevented by gas pressing against your heart and lungs.

Your limbs, arms and fingers won't feel cold and go to sleep because Baalmann's Gas-Tablets prevent gas interfering with the circulation; drowsiness, sleepy feeling after dinner will be replaced by a desire for some form of entertainment. Your distended stomach will reduce because gas will not form after using Baalmann's Gas-Tablets.

Realism Sways Swedish Drama Patriotic League Will Give

GRETA ALMROTH in leading character of famous Swedish film drama.

"The Woman He Chose" Is Written by Feminine Winner of Nobel Prize.

Great interest is being shown in the coming production of "The Woman He Chose," the noted Swedish drama film which will be shown at the Auditorium theater next Friday and Saturday evenings and Sunday afternoon and evening. This will be the first showing in California of this masterpiece, recognized as one of the greatest pictures ever filmed in Europe.

"The Woman He Chose" is founded upon the novel of Selma Lagerlof, the great Swedish writer, the only woman to receive the Nobel prize of literature. It is stark, realistic art in the finest sense. It has been pronounced as equaling the finest American pictures and M. Seastrom, the director, has been compared to Griffith. Included in the cast are many of the greatest actresses of Sweden, among them Greta Almroth, Costa Cederlund and Concordia Selander. They act their roles with consummate art.

This picture contains a sound, wholesome story of simple people, devout and moral, who countenance no transgressions against the Ten Commandments. As a result the woman who loved not wisely but too well is condemned by the community. How she works out her salvation is the story of the play.

"The Woman He Chose" is being given for the benefit of the Swedish-American Patriotic League, with which are affiliated the Swedish organizations of the bay and interior cities.

Death of Switchman To Be Investigated

The coroner's inquest of J. E. Nichols, a switchman, who was instantly killed Sunday morning when he fell out the window of the apartment of Mr. and Mrs. James Nelson, 479 Ninth street, will be held tomorrow morning.

The police inspectors who investigated the case state in their reports that Nichols' death was caused by an accident. They also state that the trio had been drinking during the evening prior to the accident.

The body of Nichols was found eighteen feet below the window of the Nelson apartment by Joseph Fozzio and Joseph Peddroni of 543 Myrtle street, who were walking by at the time of the accident.

Both Nelson and his wife are being held for investigation by the police. Captain of Inspectors Richard McSorley stated this morning that the couple would be released today after they had been further questioned by the coroner.

Youth With Slingshot Injures Playmate

ALAMEDA, Oct. 31.—Benny Love, 2516 Buena Vista avenue, was shot in the right eye yesterday with a slingshot in the hands of Bobby Atkinson, 1715 Broadway. Benny was treated at the Emergency hospital for a badly cut eye and Bobby had his slingshot confiscated. He also received a severe reprimand from Chief of Police William Wahmuth.

HILMAR, Oct. 31.—The Hilmar board of trade has elected the following officers: T. G. Pedigo, president; Thomas Wilde, vice-president; A. J. Lundell, treasurer. The directors are Elmer Challberg, A. W. Caidwell, O. B. Klint, G. A. Mord, A. O. Wickstrom, Nels Shoreen and F. S. Heil.

ASK THE TRIBUNE Bureau of Information

"How many passenger automobiles are owned by the city of Oakland?" was a query that come into the Information Bureau recently.

The city of Oakland owns 51 passenger automobiles.

Another query was as follows:

"How many passenger automobiles are owned by the county of Alameda?"

The county of Alameda owns 32 passenger autos.

Here is another question that came in today:

"How many Congressional districts are there in California, and how does the number compare with the number in Texas?"

There are 11 Congressional districts in California and 18 in Texas.

The TRIBUNE Information Bureau will answer all questions of a general nature except school or legal problems, debates, trade and firm names and queries as to the time of day.

The Bureau is open every day, except Sunday, from 8 a. m. to 9 p. m.

If answers are desired by mail, stamps must be enclosed. Quickest results can be obtained by telephoning to the Bureau. If you have any problems of a general nature to solve ask The TRIBUNE'S Information Bureau, Lakeside 6000.

Communty Festival Endorsed by Lodges

ALAMEDA, Oct. 31.—Meetings scheduled in the city hall for this week include a meeting of the city council and of the board of education tomorrow night, the directors of the Chamber of Commerce Wednesday night and the community Christmas festival committee Thursday night.

Alameda Lodge, Knights of Pythias, has endorsed the community festival plan and will be represented on the festival committee. Alameda Aerie of Eagles has also endorsed the festival. Both these endorsements were secured through the efforts of E. R. Neiss of the festival committee, who is a member of the Eagles and also the Knights of Pythias. Several other fraternal orders are expected to take formal action this week. The committee on program will make a report at the meeting Thursday night.

BUILDING PLANS COMMITTEE WILL GET BOARD O. K.

Barzee Investigators Also Are Scheduled to Submit a Report Tonight.

The project for a building program committee for the board of education, threshed out recently at a stormy session of the board's committee of the whole, will come up for final ratification tonight at the regular weekly meeting of the board.

It is forecast that the building program committee will be created, as the majority of the education board favors it. The building program committee will have charge of construction work on new schools.

Another prominent question expected to come up tonight will be that of Lloyd Barzee, business manager and secretary for the board, who is accused of hiring, transferring and promoting school employees without the ratification of the civil service board. A special committee of three, chosen to compare the sixty-odd charges against Barzee with his answers to the same, is scheduled to report, and unless it pleads for further time a decision in the case is admitted to be possible.

Barzee and his attorneys admit that if the business manager is found guilty and dismissed, he will immediately take Superior Court action. The attorneys, Walter J. Burpee and W. H. L. Hynes, assert that Barzee's appointments, transfers and promotions of employees received the formal sanction of the board of education when the latter continually vouched the payrolls without raising any question.

The new board of education members, on the other hand, hold that they are not responsible for the actions of their predecessors. The Barzee adherents say that the board of education as an institution, not its individual members, has set the precedent by vouching the payrolls and the board of education is thus tied up with many Barzee transgressions, which are not admitted anyhow. Barzee asserts his actions have been regular insofar as it was possible to make them so.

STUDENTS STAGE AUTUMN PAGEANT

Under the direction of the Oakland Recreation Department the Autumn Festival, the second of a series arranged by the department, was held yesterday at Mosswood Park, in which several thousand school children took part. Beginning with an overture by the student orchestra of the Lafayette, Emerson and Prescott schools at 9 o'clock in the morning the pageant continued throughout the day until late in the afternoon.

Following the opening number came the processional in which several thousand school children participated. First came Mother Autumn and attendants singing "Come Ye Thankful People, Come," from Moss Playground; the harvest gift bearers of the Golden Gate Playground, Fairies of the Autumn Forests, Dancers of the Garlands, Spirits of the Autumn from the Golden Gate Playground. Dance of the Corn, of the Poplar street playground, and Frolic of the Pumpkin Bearers from the Harrison school playground.

In the morning, following the processional, the boys engaged in soccer, indoor ball, relay races and other sports. The girls also played indoor baseball, cheered on by the boys of the various schools and playgrounds.

While the Queen, and her attendants and Mother Autumn and her attendants looked on from their thrones, the spirits of autumn presented quaint Hallowe'en customs, such as bobbing for apples, true love charms, biting for apples, and blowing the candle flames. Then came the dance of the witches by the girls of Park Avenue playgrounds and the dance of the Ghosts by the girls of deFremery playground.

With the audience singing "Home Sweet Home," followed by "America," the Queen of Autumn and Mother Autumn led the recessional which completed the day's activities.

The dances in the pageant were directed by Miss Louise Jorgensen, the singing by Miss Geane Hansen, the merry makers by Miss Miriam Coleman and the music by Albert Humphreys.

Ruddy Cheeks—Sparkling Eyes —Most Women Can Have

Says Dr. Edwards, a Well-Known Ohio Physician.

Dr. F. M. Edwards for 17 years treated scores of women for liver and bowel ailments. During these years he gave to his patients a prescription made of a few well-known vegetable ingredients mixed with olive oil, naming them Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. You will know them by their olive color.

These tablets are wonder-workers on the liver and bowels, which cause a normal action, carrying off the waste and poisonous matter in one's system.

If you have a pale face, sallow look, dull eyes, pimples, coated tongue, headaches, a listless, no-good feeling, all out of sorts, inactive bowels, you take one of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets nightly for a time and note the pleasing results.

Thousands of women and men take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the successful substitute for calomel — now and then just to keep them fit. 15c and 30c.—Advertisement.

Thanksgiving Turkey Sells For 40 Cents

Those who consider the Thanksgiving meal incomplete without the crowning glory of a turkey, take heart. Families who remember the 65 cents paid last year for a pound of the "national bird," breathe a sigh of relief. At the darkest hour, with farmers holding out for 50 cents a pound for the dressed bird, comes the announcement that freshly killed and frozen turkeys, from Australia, are selling in local markets for prices as low as 40 cents a pound.

The turkeys are of the same quality supplied to the London market, it is said. On September 20, 818 cases of Turkey from Sydney arrived in San Francisco; September 21 brought 1316 cases; October 26, 893 cases arrived, and heavy shipments are expected throughout this month, in time for Thanksgiving.

Oregon, Nevada and California supply the birds for the Thanksgiving tables, and, as a rule, Texas helps out with the Christmas and New Year feasts. Last year wholesalers had practically sold out at Thanksgiving, but this year it is reported that a large stock of cold storage birds have been carried over from last year. Dealers will be glad to take 42 cents a pound for turkeys they paid 52 cents for a year ago, and have carried over at an additional cost of 3 or 4 cents a pound, it is said.

Many of the wholesalers predict that 40 to 45 cents a pound will be the wholesale price of turkeys this year.

Law Halts Coronation Of Gypsies

Somewhere in Contra Costa county today there is a weary and dispirited caravan of Gypsies, who are seeking a place where, undisturbed, they can hold solemn coronation for their ruler, King Phillip.

Two recent attempts to stage the coronation ceremony were disrupted by the police. Last night the third attempt ended in a more or less fiasco because of Mrs. J. C. Blackburn's chickens.

The caravan was encamped on a lot adjoining Mrs. Blackburn's home near Dublin. While the coronation ritual was being prepared Mrs. Blackburn discovered that every chicken she possessed, twenty in number, had mysteriously disappeared.

Sheriff Frank Barnet was summoned. He overtook the caravan at San Pablo avenue and Staniford place. Barnet didn't like the demeanor of the Gypsies and, at the point of a gun, ordered them out of their wagons while he made a thorough search. He did not find the chickens. After a parley, which was listened to with intense interest by scores of autoists, who had found the highway blocked by Barnet and the caravan, the caravan dejectedly struck out for Contra Costa county, with the full realization that Sheriff Veale already has declared Gypsy gatherings taboo.

DELEGATES LEAVE FOR WASHINGTON

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 31.—Viscount Shibusawa of Japan and his party, in America to return the visit of the Vanderlip mission to the Orient last year, left here today for Washington. They will visit various other cities of the United States, returning early in December to California.

A delegation representing the Sacramento Chamber of Commerce, held a brief conference with Viscount Shibusawa yesterday at the Fairmont Hotel. The delegation was headed by State Senator Charles B. Bills. The viscount accepted an invitation to take a motor trip through the Sacramento and San Joaquin valleys before he goes back to Japan.

The trade-relations party and the delegates to the armament conference in Washington were entertained here yesterday with luncheons, teas and dinners. The two groups were guests of honor at a special luncheon given by the Nippon club. Viscount Shibusawa and members of his party were entertained at tea in the home of Wallace M. Alexander, president of the Chamber of Commerce, and last night Viscount Shibusawa and his party were guests of honor at a dinner given in the Fairmont Hotel by the Japanese Association of America.

E. Kimura, secretary of the Japanese department of foreign affairs, is head of the Japanese delegation to the limitation of arms conference. This delegation is the second from Japan. Kimura yesterday declared that the members of that generation are "emphatically and unanimously in favor of a reduction in armaments."

One Held, Two Freed On Burglary Charge

George Mathews was held to answer in the Superior Court on a charge of burglary this morning by Police Judge Edward J. Tyrrell and similar charges against George Orpert and George Manes were dismissed for lack of evidence.

The men were alleged to have been implicated in the theft of 34 sacks of sugar from the warehouse of H. V. Hull, 1053 Thirty-seventh street, on September 10.

John Southerland of 3421 Chester street testified that on the afternoon of September 10 he saw Mathews and two other men carrying the sugar from the warehouse to an automobile which was parked in front of the place. He could only identify Mathews.

Manes resides at 411 Forty-first street and Orpert at 1063 Thirty-seventh street.

According to the police, Mathews told them that he sold some of the sugar to Orpert.

EXPERT TO HEAD WATER FIGHT IS PICKED BY MAYOR

Council Passes Ordinance Providing Pay for R. W. Hawley; Other Cities to Aid.

By request of the mayor, the City Council this morning passed to print an ordinance authorizing the employment of R. W. Hawley as expert to secure data for Oakland for the big hearing on water rates to be held by the Railroad Commission November 28.

Hawley is employed by all the Eastbay cities, and the $1800 for his services is apportioned among the cities, according to population.

The ordinance creating the position of executive engineer for the city of Oakland was given final passage and will become effective in eight days. At that time Ralph Beebe, appointed by the mayor, will be in a position to work with Hawley, according to a letter from the mayor to the Council today.

TIME FOR REDUCTION.

"We feel that the time has come for a material reduction in water rates," says the letter, which asserts that the Eastbay cities desire to make an aggressive campaign in the face of the water company's request for an even higher water rate.

As explained by Mayor Davie in a letter to the Berkeley City Council, the appointment of Hawley was decided upon last Wednesday at a meeting of Eastbay city officials, Hawley having been hydraulic engineer for the Railroad Commission and knowing the subject thoroughly.

URGES COOPERATION.

In urging the Berkeley Council to cooperate, Mayor Davie says:

"I urge your honorable body to cooperate with the other Eastbay cities in the employment of Mr. Hawley, feeling that such cooperation is necessary to discharge your duties to your citizens, and that any expenditure necessary to make possible such employment will be adequately repaid in insuring the fixing of reasonable water rates."

Berkeley was not represented at the recent meeting of city officials in Oakland. Its attitude with regard to the water company battle on rates is not yet entirely known to the other cities, according to the officials of the latter.

Club Will Give Dances To Swell Park Fund

NILES, Oct. 31.—A series of benefit entertainments, beginning with a dance on Friday night is being arranged by the Niles Woman's Civic Club for the benefit of the new Niles park, which fronts the principal business section for a distance of 300 feet. The strip, which is 20 feet wide, has been acquired by Niles largely through the courtesy of the late Supervisor Murphy.

Cooperating in the benefit with the woman's club are the Chamber of Commerce, the American Legion and the soldiers' memorial committee. Among the local leaders who are arranging the week's dance are: Mrs. J. E. Thane, Mrs. William Moore, Mrs. Charles Overacker, Mrs. J. P. Barnard, Mrs. J. R. Whipple.

Pioneer Women Hosts To Pioneer Society

A program and dance were given to the Oakland Society of Pioneers by the Oakland Pioneer Women on Saturday night in the municipal ballroom. More than 250 were in attendance. Greetings were extended to the guests by Mrs. Sarah Farwell, president of the hostess organization. Charles E. Reed responded on behalf of President Fred L. Button of the Oakland Pioneer Society.

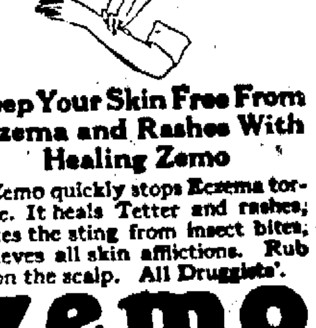

A program of music was rendered under the direction of Mrs. Clara Mayer Mundt. An old-fashioned grand march preceded the dance. "The Blue Danube" was the favorite waltz.

CANDY THEFT CHARGED.

ALAMEDA, Oct. 31.—Three boys are under arrest here today and are said to have broken into the Saylor candy factory late Saturday night, taking $15 worth of candy. They are said to have gained entrance by kicking a panel out of one of the doors. The parents of the boys were notified. The oldest boy of the trio, Harold Lowenthal of Elmhurst, is 17 years of age. The other two are under 16.

SOCCER CHAMPS BATTLE.

ALAMEDA, Oct. 31.—The Washington playground lightweights, the 75 pounders, won the Inter-playground soccer championship, Saturday, by defeating Lincoln 1 to 0. The game went over two hours, no score being reached until the eighth quarter. The game was played on the Lincoln grounds. The Washington lightweights have won all three games played to date. There is another league game scheduled, but the outcome will not affect the championship.

Fire Lieutenant Weds Sweetheart Of School Days

MRS. WILLIAM A. MEINHEIT, who before her marriage tonight to officer of Berkeley fire depart was Miss Elsie Wemmer of Oakland.

W. A. Meinhert and Miss Elsie Wemmer Steal March On Friends.

BERKELEY, Oct. 31.—Romance entered the Berkeley fire department when Lieutenant William A. Meinheit was quietly married Saturday night at St. Joseph's church to Miss Elsie Wemmer of Oakland.

Before members of the department were aware of the wedding, Meinheit and his bride had departed on a honeymoon trip. Tonight's wedding culminates a pretty romance beginning when Meinheit and Miss Wemmer played together as children.

Rev. Father T. J. Brennan, pastor of St. Joseph's church, read the wedding ceremony in the presence of members of the two families. Mrs. Meinheit is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Casper Wemmer, 1518 Chestnut street, Oakland, and is a graduate of Oakland High school. She is an attractive and talented girl with a host of friends in the bay cities.

Meinheit is the son of Mrs. L. Meinheit and a member of a pioneer family of the college city, the Meinheits being among the earliest settlers in Berkeley. Meinheit in his capacity as lieutenant of the Berkeley fire department has filled the role of driver to Chief G. Sydney Rose since the latter was named to head the Berkeley department some years ago.

After a honeymoon Meinheit and his bride will return to make their home at 1725 University avenue.

AD. CLUB WILL HEAR GOVERNOR

Governor Stephens will be the principal speaker at the weekly luncheon of the Oakland Ad Club at the Hotel Oakland tomorrow and will take as his theme, "Twenty Years as a Traveling Salesman." Governor Stephens was on the road for that period of time.

Other features on the program will be a one-act burlesque, "Andy and the Oak," and selections by the University of California orchestra.

S. F. Man Is Assistant Attorney-General

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 31.—John Heywood, San Francisco attorney, and former captain in the United States army, was today appointed assistant attorney general with offices here. He succeeds Major Fred Milverton and will have charge of admiralty matters and act as special adviser to the shipping board.

FIRE PREVENTION SYSTEM SOUGHT BY CHIEF SHORT

Oakland Department Weak in This Alone, He Says After Touring East.

The Oakland Fire department compares favorably with any other department in the United States in everything exception fire prevention work, according to Fire Chief Sam Short, who returned today from an extended tour of the East.

Chief Short attended the convention of the Fire Chiefs of the Pacific Coast at Vancouver, and then the National Convention of Fire Chiefs at Atlanta. He also visited most of the big cities of the East and Middle West, and at Washington was received by President Harding and former President Woodrow Wilson.

"We must install a fire prevention bureau right away," says Chief Short. "Oakland is far behind many cities in this matter, which can be remedied in short order. Fire prevention education has gone to great lengths in many other cities, and the results are uniformly good. We are not up to their standard in this, but in everything else Oakland compares favorably with any other city in the land."

The Associated Fire Chiefs, who traveled in a body from city to city, learned many new "wrinkles" in handling fires," says Chief Short. For instance, the New York department has a neat little wrecking tool which tears things apart with twice the efficiency of the ordinary fire ax, and Chief Short will recommend that it be adopted in Oakland.

"Every department has something of interest," said Chief Short, who reported for duty immediately, "and we looked them all over. It was a very profitable trip."

When the chief returned to Oakland late yesterday afternoon he was greeted at the depot by the firemen's band and by a delegation of fire department members.

Unbidden Guest Is Routed by Police

ALAMEDA, Oct. 31.—A moving flashlight in an unoccupied house at 1511 Willow street last night revealed the fact that a temporary occupant had taken charge unknown to the owner or residents. Policemen Andrew Peterson and Joseph Sevina, who were sent to investigate when the light was reported by residents, were unable to find the unbidden guest. They found, however, that he had built a fire in the front room grate and had evidently planned to spend a pleasant evening. The police are of the opinion that he escaped through the rear door as they entered the front way.

Dean Leuschner to Represent U. C. in East

BERKELEY, Oct. 31.—Professor Armin O. Leuschner, dean of the graduate division and head of the astronomy department at the University of California, left yesterday for the University of Missouri to represent the university at the annual meeting of the Association of American Universities, to be held November 3-5.

From the University of Missouri Dean Leuschner will go to New Haven and Washington to attend special meetings of scientific committees of the National Research Council. On November 14 and 15 he will attend the fall meeting of the National Academy of Science at the University of Chicago.
